Homelessness is a serious issue, especially for families who often face separation due to shelter limitations. Holy Family Shelter, supported by the United Catholic Appeal, offers hope by keeping families together and providing refuge.

The shelter offers not only a safe place but also rehabilitation services, counseling, skill-building programs, and resources to help families regain stability and become self-sufficient.

Supporting the United Catholic Appeal enables Holy Family Shelter to continue its vital work, helping homeless families stay united and empowering them towards stability and independence. Together, we can make a tangible difference in their lives.
