

In II SAMUEL,

meet King David's kids: one prince falls in love with his half sister & defiles her. Enter prince number two, the sister's half-brother, who kills prince number one, then runs for his life. David's story has no sugar-coating. David is a flawed hero who knows how to get right. This book is for anyone who has ever made a "royal mess" of his life.

I KINGS is an example of "you reap what you sow." Solomon, David's son, builds the first temple and accumulates many wives. Israel splits into two kingdoms, and Elijah challenges the prophets of Baal.

In II KINGS get to know Elisha, Naaman, Ahab & Jezebel—and experience dejavu. After generation upon generation heaps disobedience upon disobedience, God has had enough. Both kingdoms are set for a fall.

My Bible Reading for April

- 1 I Samuel 12-14
- 2 I Samuel 15, 16
- 3 I Samuel 17, 18
- 4 I Samuel 19-21
- 5 I Samuel 22-24
- 6 I Samuel 25-27
- 7 I Samuel 28-31
- 8 II Samuel 1-3
- 9 II Samuel 4-7
- 10 II Samuel 8-11
- 11 II Samuel 12-14
- 12 II Samuel 15-17
- 13 II Samuel 18, 19
- 14 II Samuel 20-22
- 15 II Samuel 23, 24
- 16 I Kings 1, 2
- 17 I Kings 3-5
- 18 I Kings 6, 7
- 19 I Kings 8, 9
- 20 I Kings 10, 11
- 21 I Kings 12-14
- 22 I Kings 15-17
- 23 I Kings 18, 19
- 24 I Kings 20, 21
- 25 I Kings 22
- 26 II Kings 1-3
- 27 II Kings 4-6
- 28 II Kings 7-9
- 29 II Kings 10-12
- 30 II Kings 13-15

In II SAMUEL,

meet King David's kids: one prince falls in love with his half sister & defiles her. Enter prince number two, the sister's half-brother, who kills prince number one, then runs for his life. David's story has no sugar-coating. David is a flawed hero who knows how to get right. This book is for anyone who has ever made a "royal mess" of his life.

I KINGS is an example of "you reap what you sow." Solomon, David's son, builds the first temple and accumulates many wives. Israel splits into two kingdoms, and Elijah challenges the prophets of Baal.

In II KINGS get to know Elisha, Naaman, Ahab & Jezebel—and experience dejavu. After generation upon generation heaps disobedience upon disobedience, God has had enough. Both kingdoms are set for a fall.

My Bible Reading for April

- 1 I Samuel 12-14
- 2 I Samuel 15, 16
- 3 I Samuel 17, 18
- 4 I Samuel 19-21
- 5 I Samuel 22-24
- 6 I Samuel 25-27
- 7 I Samuel 28-31
- 8 II Samuel 1-3
- 9 II Samuel 4-7
- 10 II Samuel 8-11
- 11 II Samuel 12-14
- 12 II Samuel 15-17
- 13 II Samuel 18, 19
- 14 II Samuel 20-22
- 15 II Samuel 23, 24
- 16 I Kings 1, 2
- 17 I Kings 3-5
- 18 I Kings 6, 7
- 19 I Kings 8, 9
- 20 I Kings 10, 11
- 21 I Kings 12-14
- 22 I Kings 15-17
- 23 I Kings 18, 19
- 24 I Kings 20, 21
- 25 I Kings 22
- 26 II Kings 1-3
- 27 II Kings 4-6
- 28 II Kings 7-9
- 29 II Kings 10-12
- 30 II Kings 13-15

In II SAMUEL,

meet King David's kids: one prince falls in love with his half sister & defiles her. Enter prince number two, the sister's half-brother, who kills prince number one, then runs for his life. David's story has no sugar-coating. David is a flawed hero who knows how to get right. This book is for anyone who has ever made a "royal mess" of his life.

I KINGS is an example of "you reap what you sow." Solomon, David's son, builds the first temple and accumulates many wives. Israel splits into two kingdoms, and Elijah challenges the prophets of Baal.

In II KINGS get to know Elisha, Naaman, Ahab & Jezebel—and experience dejavu. After generation upon generation heaps disobedience upon disobedience, God has had enough. Both kingdoms are set for a fall.

My Bible Reading for April

- 1 I Samuel 12-14
- 2 I Samuel 15, 16
- 3 I Samuel 17, 18
- 4 I Samuel 19-21
- 5 I Samuel 22-24
- 6 I Samuel 25-27
- 7 I Samuel 28-31
- 8 II Samuel 1-3
- 9 II Samuel 4-7
- 10 II Samuel 8-11
- 11 II Samuel 12-14
- 12 II Samuel 15-17
- 13 II Samuel 18, 19
- 14 II Samuel 20-22
- 15 II Samuel 23, 24
- 16 I Kings 1, 2
- 17 I Kings 3-5
- 18 I Kings 6, 7
- 19 I Kings 8, 9
- 20 I Kings 10, 11
- 21 I Kings 12-14
- 22 I Kings 15-17
- 23 I Kings 18, 19
- 24 I Kings 20, 21
- 25 I Kings 22
- 26 II Kings 1-3
- 27 II Kings 4-6
- 28 II Kings 7-9
- 29 II Kings 10-12
- 30 II Kings 13-15