

"Bear Bare Nature..."

Welcome, Raw Earth. Grand life giving force.
Mother of all.

Rise, tall tree. Grow and kiss the sky.
Together are we, connected always.

Nurture the cycles of nature, of life.

Find peace in healing solitude.
Honor your alone time and acknowledge the importance of rest.
Hibernate.
Take your time.
Finding your true purpose.
Fulfilling all goals.

Speak your truth, express all feelings. There is no wrong or right.
Just be.

Still.

And then, when ready, a new life awaits.
Fresh beginnings.

Birthing another world. The fairest, real beyond our imagination.

That is how powerful you are, manifesting it all into realisation.
You are the embodiment of that Raw Earth.
Creator.
Grand life giving force...
