

"Prosperous Wisdomkeeper..."

Beautiful creature. Being of Light. Protector of fertility and creation. Essence of life.

Fear not your mystic abilities. This greatness. Eminence.
Immerse in this magical energy for it is of great significance, to yourself but even so to all.

Come now my love and glimpse back for a bit. Back on your own yesteryears, your own path, and those of the ones that came before you. Your ancestors...
Connect. Deeply. Can you see the tremendous growth you have made? All the lessons learned.
Appraise the change and transformation. Your evolvment within this earthly experience.
The way you have come. How glorious. How brave!

Now be present once more. Within lies a promise. A potency of wholeness. Very well trusting your own inner wisdom.
See, KNOW, that nothing lasts forever. All will pass.

In great endings lie the seeds of even greater beginnings.
Birth, death and rebirth, just phases of a cycle. Strides on the wheel.
A natural flow.

In reality there are no endings. Nor beginnings. Only steps to come, to take.
Other experiences. Different dimensions.

When leaving behind all that is not serving new paths will emerge. Clearing and opening up the space for new, better possibilities. Unexpected extraordinary outcomes. Beyond everything you know or can think of. Powerful. Magical.

So look behind and grow from there. Further. Greater. Over and above.

Even if going a new path looks hard or frightening. Just take one step. Just one.
Than, another. And one more...
Remember that spirit is looking out for you. You are being guided.

So do not worry, you have got this. The universe has your back.
Darkness will evaporate, dissolve.
There is no stopping it.

New Earth is rising. New, rejuvenated you...
Reborn.
