

"Starseedling..."

Forgotten but never lost. Memories of origin.

Emerged from stardust, spark of source. Born through your mothers holy womb. Risen from the ashes and cradled in the soil of this sacred land.

Earth.

You have entered with the frequency of the stars. The pulse of divine light. Love. Your natural state of Being.

Embodiment of something that never existed before, nor shall ever again.

Remarkable.

One of a kind. Sanctified.

You have been gently exploring this realm. Curious. Seemingly unaware but never truly. Ever this unfulfilled feeling. Wishing to belong. Looking up to the skies and yearning home. The time has come, now, to fully start remembering who you are. Your own light. Greatness. Reborn.

Awakening from this dense slumber, soon your memories will start flooding in. Your unique abilities will unlock and you will become the innate leader that you were meant to be. You are.

Stop following the rules of others. Start creating your own.

Paving new paths. Weaving an advanced web so that others, the ones you came with, will start finding you.

Rainbow warriors.

Reconnect. Culminate. Thrive!

Together you shall be of great influence. A vast well of boundless wisdom. Restoring ancient ways. Divine knowledge. An example for many.

Once reunited a source of immense strength, determination and resilience. A catalyst. Uplifting others. Nurturing peace.

While fostering growth and renewal you will bring forth brand new ways. Healing the old. Transforming all that is still holding us back. Restoring the natural balance. Wholeness.

So grow now. Expand. Find each other and come home. Together.

Gather in circles.

Share. Create.

Make Art. Music.

Sing. Dance. Laugh. Cry. Hug. Kiss.

And love... Love like you never loved anything ever before.

She is here. Fertile and determined. Grand.
The goddess is rising.

NEW EARTH.

Enjoy this next part. You shall all be amazed...
