

PORT OF HOOD RIVER FOUNDATION

OVERVIEW:

The Port of Hood River Foundation is a charitable organization established to support the governmental property of Hood River and other charitable activities that advance its mission. Established in October 2024, the Port of Hood River Foundation is a 501(c)3 nonprofit organized under Oregon law. Created by the Port of Hood River Resolution No. 2024-25-9, the Foundation operates independently from the Port while proudly supporting the Port's long-term commitment to stewardship and community investment.

HOW DONATIONS HELP:

Donations to the Port of Hood River Foundation help sustain and improve the places that bring our community together—from the shoreline we gather around to the airport that connects us to new opportunities. Through community partnerships and dedicated funding, the Foundation works to enhance access, safety, and quality of life for everyone who lives, works, and plays in Hood River.

HOW TO DONATE:

All donations will be administered by the Port of Hood River Foundation in accordance with its charitable purpose and established Foundation policies.

You may donate online at www.portodhoodriverfoundation.com, or by mailing or delivering a check to: Port of Hood River Foundation, 1000 E Port Marina Drive, Hood River, OR 97031

For mailed or delivered donations, please include a completed donation form and note the Foundation's EIN on your check (EIN: 33-1850307).

The Foundation welcomes donor-directed gifts and encourages donors to specify their intended use on the attached donation form. All gifts are reviewed by the Foundation Board to ensure alignment with its mission and its ability to administer the funds effectively. The Board may accept the gift as proposed, collaborate with the donor to refine its intended use, or decline the gift if necessary. Upon request, the Foundation can also provide a written agreement outlining the intended use of the funds.

If a donor-directed project is not undertaken within a donor-specified timeframe, the Foundation will work with the donor to determine an appropriate alternative use of the gift or, if appropriate and at the discretion of the Foundation Board, return any unused funds.

The Port of Hood River Foundation is a 501(c)3 and can accept tax-deductible donations from individuals, companies, and other 501(c)3 organizations. The Foundation will provide receipts for donations, but the application of tax deductions is the responsibility of the donor. The Foundation does not provide legal or tax advice. Donors are encouraged to consult their own advisors regarding the tax implications of their contribution.
