Jesus said to his disciples: "Whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. I tell you, unless your righteousness surpasses that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven."

You're invited to bring the Old Palms that are displayed in your home back to church. We have baskets at each entrance for these branches. Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal

The opening report for the 2023 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal in our bulletin reflects how we belong to God because we are part of Christ's Church. Through the CMAA, we care for the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many diocesan ministries, like vocations, religious education, and Catholic Charities. St. Joseph's goal this year is $48,000. The diocese will return 70 percent of any amount we raise over this goal to us. You should have already received a packet, including a pledge card. Please review this information and prayerfully reflect on your gift. Commitment Weekend is next weekend.

Mobile Food Pantry Next Friday Volunteers Needed

You're invited to help out next Friday morning when the Mobile Food Pantry returns to St. Joseph's. Go to our website to see what time volunteers need to arrive and to sign-up or call the parish. And, please spread the word about this event from 10-11:30 a.m. next Friday, Feb. 17, to receive food. Thanks to our team and all who support this outreach.

Through the waters of Baptism, Gracelyn Marie Birmingham, recently became a child of God. Congratulations to her parents, William and Ashley (Lovell) Birmingham and her entire family! What an extremely joyful event at St. Joseph Church!

It's Heart Month A good time to get an AED

The CCW is collecting funds to purchase an automated external defibrillator for our church. Cardiac arrest needs to be treated fast. Having an AED onsite could save critical time if someone collapses in church. With your help, we can get one of these life-saving devices for our worship space. Donations can be put in an envelope marked CCW Defibrillator. (Checks can be made out to St Joseph CCW). Thanks for your support!

SUPER BOWL FUNDRAISER

Thanks to all who are participating in this Sunday's Super Bowl Fundraiser sponsored by the Knights of Columbus of St. Joseph Parish. You can view the grid at www.stjosephbradley.org. Good luck!

Daily Schedule for this Week at St. Joseph Church

PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

These days, "I'm not feeling it," is a genuine excuse to avoid something. "I feel that," we say to indicate agreement. "I feel like..." is a way to offer our opinion. Feelings carry a lot of weight. Before Christ, there was only the law, which dealt with actions. Do this. Do not do this. All well and good. But with the fulfillment of the law, Christ wants us to look inwardly. He wants us to consider the influence of our feelings on our actions, and to understand how our chosen actions can, in turn, inspire certain feelings. I'm a millennial, so, depending on your age, you may think that I feel either too much or too little. One thing I have learned, though, is that when I give my feelings free rein, my instincts immediately turn into actions. I become the toddler grasping at shiny objects with no thought for what they represent. Anger becomes unkindness. Jealousy becomes cruelty. Fear becomes selfishness. Free will, I have come to understand, means freedom from the tyranny of feelings. If a feeling is strong enough, it can build a prison.-Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Parents with young children are most welcome at St. Joseph's

We're heard Fr. Marcin say time and again that a church without children is a dying church. We know it can take time and energy and patience to bring the little ones to Mass. But, they are part of Our Parish, Our Family and we are so happy to have them here!

For your convenience and comfort only, we do have a "calming room" that we often call our "cry room." It's at the back of the church (with the big glass window). It's open and ready for you only if you want to use it. We have recently brightened this room up with a nice carpet and put out some books for the youngsters to learn about Jesus while visiting this space at church.

We also have a few toys, a couple bottles of hand sanitizer, some surface wipes and baby wipes available. And through the generosity of our CCW, we have added a gate for you to latch if you need it and changing table in the nearby Hospitality Room. If you have to leave the sanctuary, please feel free to do so, but know that you are most welcome to return. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me." And, watch for our Youth & Family Mass, which happens at 11 a.m. monthly on Donut Sunday!!

Feeding the hungry through our ministries

People are sometimes surprised to hear that I do my own grocery shopping and cook my own meals. I am not a gourmet chef, but I can hold my own in the kitchen. Frankly, it is not that big of a task since I live alone and frequently eat out at meetings, receptions and events. Therefore, most of my trips to the grocery store are a very quick “in and out.”

However, for Christmas day, I invited my family for dinner. Hosting 10 people resulted in a much longer grocery list and time in the store than usual. So as I navigated the aisles filled with a multitude of carts and frantic shoppers on the morning of December 24, it struck me just how much the price of food has gone up. There was a woman standing next to me in the egg section. Suddenly, she blurted out, “Is this really the cost of eggs?!” I turned to her and said, “I think so. It’s unbelievable, right?” With an affirming and exaggerated nodding of her head, she added, “Unbelievable, yes! And outrageous. I have sticker shock!”

With the soaring grocery prices across our nation, hunger is also on the rise. As a Church, we are mandated to not turn a blind eye to those in need. One of the many ways that we put our faith into action is by feeding the hungry. Scripture is clear about the obligation to help those who are less fortunate. Once we have adored and worshiped God, being nourished by the Word and the Eucharist, we are mandated to go out and serve the poor, and not just in abstract ways, but tangibly: “What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if you say you have faith but do not have works?” (James 2:14)

I am proud that we in the Diocese of Joliet take this mandate to heart. Our Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA) supports so many ministries, including outreach to the poor and hungry. It helps support Catholic Charities, whose mobile food pantries at parishes and schools throughout the diocese helped more than 26,000 people last year. Catholic Charities also uses these visits to offer resources to other services participants may need.

Additionally, the ministries of mercy advisor from our Department of Catechesis and Evangelization organized “Christmas Blessing” grants to local parish-based food pantries. The applications submitted by parishes painted a stark yet accurate picture of the struggle to stock pantries in the face of dramatically increasing prices. Yet it was heartening to read of the commitment of parish staff and volunteers to help their faith community and neighbors. Our Catholic schools and religious education programs also contribute to this ministry with donations and service hours. We all work as a family to help our brothers and sisters with a basic need of life.

My aunt and uncle volunteer at their church’s food pantry. They, too, have reported that the number of people requesting food has continued to rise exponentially, and sometimes they are surprised by who is asking for food. Recently, they handed a basket of food to a man who has been a longtime parishioner and pillar of their church. Confused, they assumed he was there to volunteer for the distribution of food, but why was he waiting in the line? Sheepishly, he said to them, “I feel so bad. Over the years, I was the one giving out food, and now I need it myself. With prices skyrocketing, I have come to the point of having to choose between my medication or food. I am embarrassed to admit that I now need this assistance myself.”

Sometimes, we can be tempted to wonder if everyone in the food pantry lines really needs the food they are receiving from us. There might be some people who take advantage of our generosity. Yet, I would rather err on the side of generosity and love than turn away those who are in need. St. Paul boldly challenges us to be generous to all people, even those we might deem undeserving, such as our enemies: “If your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink.” (Romans 12:20)

There are so many ways to feed the hungry and help those in need. Whatever way you choose—the CMAA, donations to your parish or local pantry, volunteerism or prayers—to you I say, “thank you!” For whenever we put our faith into action, we are following what Jesus teaches in the Gospel: “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did it to me.” (Matthew 25:40)+

It's all about Love!

This past Wednesday, St. Joseph's Religious Education session was All About Love! Jesus taught us the Greatest Commandment: to Love God with all our heart, all our soul and all our mind, and to love our neighbor as ourselves. So, RE students read Scripture, played games and made a craft reminding them of this great command of Jesus! Thanks so much to our volunteers who give of their time and talents to offer our children this special experience of faith! We couldn't do it without you!
