Lector Training Next Thursday March 16 at 6pm

Have you ever thought about proclaiming the Word at Mass?

We would really like to once again have two readers at each service. A Lector Training Session is scheduled for next Thursday, March 16, at 6 p.m.

Please help strengthen this ministry by sharing your gifts. If you know in your heart that you have what it takes to be a lector, please consider coming to the training at church and getting on the roster. Those currently involved in this ministry are welcome too for a good refresher as well.

You're invited to help out next Friday morning when the Mobile Food Pantry returns. Go to our website to see what time volunteers need to arrive and to sign-up or call the parish. And, please spread the word about this event from 10-11:30 a.m. next Friday, March 17, to receive food. Thanks to our team and all who support this outreach.

Celebrate Our Parish, Our Family St. Joseph Table Potluck is next Saturday

The CCW is hosting its annual St. Joseph Table Celebration at 5pm next Saturday, March 18, in the parish hall. Everyone is welcome to attend! Go to our parish website to RSVP and to sign-up to bring a dish for the potluck or call Peggy Blanchette at 815-370-2831. (Fried chicken will be provided).

Please come for dinner and enjoy a nice time with a lot of great food, fellowship and fun as we honor our patron and celebrate Our Parish, Our Family.

BLOOD DRIVE COUNTDOWN 1 Week Away!

If you are physically able and will be around next Sunday, maybe take a little time to give a life-saving gift. Sign-up for our Blood Drive happening on March 19 by visiting the parish website, scanning this QR code or calling the parish office.

Lenten Opportunities

Our Lenten Reconciliation Service is scheduled at 7pm on Wednesday, March 22. Fr. Marcin and priests from parishes in the area will be available to hear individual confessions at the end of this brief service.

We will be hosting a session of the Diocesan Lenten Mission at 1pm on Friday, March 24. The presenter will explore how Eucharist draws us into union with God and one another and stirs us into action. The complete schedule is at our website. And, Stations of the Cross will continue to be offered at 4pm on Fridays during Lent. Join us as we recall Christ's sacrifice.

Still seeking red gowns

We are in need of a few red Confirmation (or graduation) gowns. Donations are being accepted at the Parish Office or call our RE office at 815-937-9340 to arrangement pickup. We so appreciate your generosity!

PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

If you would have asked me on my confirmation day what the chances were of the Holy Spirit getting into my heart, I would have told you the same as getting water from a stone. My faith was fragile primarily because I viewed it as exactly that—my faith. Something within my possession and subject to my own power. I was waiting to be made more faithful. I was waiting for a transformation. Little did I know, I was like the woman at the well, talking about the Messiah, unaware that he was standing right in front of me. She wasn't ready; she was still living in her sin. She was caught so unaware that she left her water jar at the well, rushing out to tell everyone. When I was anointed with the oil at my confirmation it no longer mattered that I wasn't strong enough to break open the stone that encased my heart—God's grace gushed forth through the cracks. While I certainly didn't become a perfect Christian—and never will in this life—I did learn that when God tells you to strike, it's best not to second-guess Him.

We will be celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday (the Sunday after Easter) with a special afternoon observance on April 16, 2023.

In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun received visions of Jesus, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers—the Divine Mercy Chaplet—and the request to have a feast established to remind the Church of God's mercy. St. Faustina died in 1938 during one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world. Her story circulated across the globe. St. John Paul II canonized her in 2000 and established Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind with experience in the years to come."

St. Joseph Parish is giving members and all who attend at 2pm on Divine Mercy Sunday the opportunity to receive the extraordinary graces of this feast through Reconciliation, Chaplet and Divine Mercy image. The hope is that all will leave with the desire to perform acts of mercy and love through deed, word and prayer.

Exploring their church

Confirmation candidates spent some time exploring the church last Sunday. The idea was not only to see the beauty of the church, but to also realize how everything has a specific purpose to help us remain focused on Christ. With Fr. Marcin there to help provide some interesting background and trivia, the candidates got to see the crucifix, tabernacle, and stained-glass windows, but also some rather unique items, such as hidden relics in all three altars and the monstrance in the sacristy.

Hopefully, they have a better appreciation and will be more open to new ways to encounter Christ each time they come for Mass. Please pray for our candidates and families as they continue their Confirmation formation.

Bishop Ronald Hicks' Column for March 2023

Journeying 10 years with Pope Francis

It is a common practice to give a gift made of silver for a 25th anniversary and something of gold for a 50th. However, I was wondering, what do you give for a 10th anniversary? After some research, there seems to be some consensus that either tin or aluminum is meant to commemorate a decade. Perhaps these metals make an appropriate gift since they are known for their strength and resilience.

On March 13, our Holy Father will celebrate his 10th anniversary as pope. As we have watched our pontiff lead, guide and shepherd the Church, few would argue that he has done so with great strength and resilience. I am truly amazed by his vigor, perseverance and tenacity. Sometimes I wonder if I reach his age, God willing, will I still have that type of energy?

Pope Francis, like his predecessors, is so much more than a CEO of a worldwide organization. He is the apostolic successor to St. Peter, the “rock” upon which the Church is built. Just like the apostle, he has his own personality. Some people focus on his warm smile or infectious laugh, while others notice his ability to listen and engage in conversation. Even the name he chose as pope, Francis after St. Francis of Assisi, is a nod to his humility.

I am a bishop ordained under Pope Francis in 2018 and then installed in 2020 for the Diocese of Joliet. I have tried to emulate his famous advice that a bishop and priest should strive to be a good shepherd with “the smell of the sheep.” In other words, the Church is better off with leaders who spend time among the people of God. Pope Francis continues to give us an example of how to be and do just that.

I have a beautifully framed photo of Pope Francis, Cardinal Cupich and myself taken in Rome in December 2019 during an ad limina meeting. I love the photo because we are all laughing out loud. This snapshot was captured when Cardinal Cupich, one by one, was introducing the 26 bishops from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin to the Holy Father. While introducing the bishop standing in front of me, Cardinal Cupich said to the pope, “He is one of my retired bishops.” The pope looked at him and said, “You look much too young to be retired.” Then it was my turn. The pope firmly took my hand to shake it, and Cardinal Cupich said to him, “And this is Bishop Ron Hicks. He is my vicar general.” The pope then broke into a big smile, looked at me and said, “You are a vicar general and a bishop? You look like you are still in high school!” It was a beautiful moment to share in that laughter and joy, and I am glad it was immortalized in a photo, which I treasure.

No matter how you describe Pope Francis, his 10th anniversary gives us a wonderful opportunity to thank him for his faith, leadership and prayers. That’s in addition to all of the work he has accomplished, which includes three encyclicals, four synods, countless homilies, extensive travel, innumerable audiences and the canonization of more than 900 new saints, chief among which are Pope John Paul II, Pope John XXIII, Mother Teresa of Kolkata, Pope Paul VI and Oscar Romero, along with the 813 martyrs of Otranto.

He has also given us several exhortations over these 10 years, from which there are many things to learn and ponder. His first such document in 2013 was “Evangelii Gaudium” (The Joy of the Gospel), and I appreciate that he began his pontificate proclaiming, “joy” – namely the joy that comes from an encounter with the risen Lord, Jesus. The joy of the Gospel fills our hearts and lives because of the salvation brought through Jesus’ suffering, death and resurrection, which sets us free from sin, sorrow, inner emptiness and loneliness.

As I write this, I realize it would take volumes to capture what the pope has done and accomplished over 10 years. And even though his achievements are vast, I cannot help but think of all of the pressure he endures and the burdens he carries daily. Leading the Church amid today’s complexities, polarization and challenges is not easy. Therefore, I thank God that our pope wakes up each day and leads with gospel joy, faith and zeal.

Every day at Masses across the globe, we as a Church rightfully unite our voices in the Eucharistic Prayer as we ask God to “be pleased to confirm in faith and charity your pilgrim Church on earth, with your servant, Francis, our Pope.” As we celebrate the 10th anniversary of our Holy Father, let us in a special way pray for his continued strength and resilience, as together we wish Pope Francis, “Ad multos Annos!”
