Reconciliation Service This Wednesday at 6pm

As we get closer and closer to Easter, you are invited to take a moment to reconnect, heal, and renew by attending our Lenten Reconciliation Service this Wednesday, March 20, starting at 6pm. Together, we'll pause to reflect, confess, and seek forgiveness. Following the brief service, Fr. Marcin and priests of our area will be on-hand to hear confessions and offer God's boundless love and mercy. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity before Easter and come with an open heart, ready to embrace God's grace and grow closer to Him.

Church Decorating

Please join our Art & Environment group by helping change the setting of the church for Palm Sunday. This will take place starting at 9:30am next Saturday, March 23. Other upcoming decorating days and times are: Holy Thursday (March 28) at 9am; Good Friday (March 29) at 9am; Easter (Saturday, March 30) at 9am. The quick turnaround is always a challenge. Please mark your calendar and help enhance Holy Week and Easter for our parishioners and guests!

PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

I write my phone number on my kids’ arms when we go into crowds. That probably makes me neurotic, but also practical. I’ve endured moments of panic after looking up and briefly not being able to locate a child. The number, across their sunscreen-streaked skin, is a safeguard, however insignificant. It’s something they can hold up to show an adult, something they can point to and say, “This is where I need to be. Help me.” When I reflect on my own life, it occurs to me that I was born lost. We all were. It was only in Eden that a human ever knew what it was to be at home. In Eden, I would imagine, the feeling of safety was so natural that it was only noticed after it was gone. But original sin came like a noisy crowd to bear us away from the place we needed to be, and since that time, our human lives have played out against a backdrop of insecurity and unfamiliarity. We are cold and alone and confused. And God, our caring parent, never stops seeking us, never stops calling our names. Baptism is not a phone number written on our arms. It’s something far better—it’s a homing signal, planted deep within. And it will lead us back to where we need to be.-Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Woman of the Year!

Members of the CCW presented their 2024 Woman of the Year, Anita Lovell, to Fr. Marcin and the people of the St. Joseph Parish last weekend.

Anita and Pat joined the parish in 1989. All three of their children attended St. Joseph School where Anita was quite active over the years and she continues to play a pivotal role at her church. Anita became one of the coordinators of our parish Religious Education program in 2014. Her ministry focuses on deepening faith lives of children and families, encouraging them in their relationship with Christ and inspiring them to be active members of Our Parish, Our Family.

Anita and other wonderful women from parishes in the diocese will be recognized by Bishop Hicks on April 20 at the Cathedral of St. Raymond in Joliet.

OCIA Scrutinies

Those in the OCIA process are going through the Scrutinies. These rituals are meant to heal all that is weak in their hearts and strengthen all that is good. This picture was taken last weekend as Fr. Marcin led the second of the three Scrutinies.

Jack Brownsey (pictured) and everyone preparing to become Catholic, please know of our prayers and love as you finish these final weeks of preparation. Although you cannot yet experience the Lord's Eucharist, we so look forward to Easter when you will receive Communion and the Holy Spirit to reshape the face of the earth!

PARISH ROOF PROJECT

Thank you to those who have made donations for the roof at the main church entrance. Installation is nearly completed. The next phase will be creating a drainage system. Any donation you are able to make to help us offset the cost is appreciated. (Please indicate "roof" on your check or envelope). Thanks in advance!

Thank you for your ongoing support

This is a shout out of gratitude to our Mobile Food Pantry volunteers and all those who offer funds for this amazing community outreach! Thanks again!

"Super Bowl Surprise"

I gathered with my family and friends to watch the Super Bowl. It was entertaining hearing everyone's reasons for gathering around the game that day. Some were cheering on a particular team or player. Others couldn't wait to view the halftime show or catch a glimpse of Taylor Swift.

A few just relished being in the company of friends and family and indulging in the abundance of food and drink. Regardless of each person's motivation, the Super Bowl provided us with an opportunity to come together in the spirit of fun and camaraderie.

I enjoyed the gathering and the game for all those reasons, but I must admit many of the commercials left me confused! I found myself asking, "What was that commercial about?" or, "What product were they trying to sell? I just don't get it!" Thankfully, there were plenty of younger people around to explain curious ads to me.

Then, to my surprise, a 30-second commercial popped up featuring the actors Mark Wahlberg and Jonathan Roumie. I did a double-take and blurted out in surprise, "Wait a minute! Did they just actually run a positive, CATHOLIC commercial?!" I convinced my family and friends to rewind it and rewatch it with me three times. Amazingly, the commercial urged viewers to take a break from the game, thank God, and enjoy a moment of prayer on this Sunday. The ad highlighted a 40-day Lenten prayer challenge to be found on the Hallow app. The last three words in the commercial nudged us to "Stay prayed up." If you have not yet seen this commercial, you can find it on Hallow's YouTube channel (hallow.com/youtube).

I'm already a subscriber to the Hallow app. But I immediately clicked to join the 40-day prayer challenge which began on Ash Wednesday. It seems I was not alone in heeding that call! The day after Ash Wednesday, the Hallow app reached the number-one spot in Apple's App Store. I'm liking this structured and intentional Lenten challenge; it has enhanced my further spiritual growth during this season of Lent.

Here's what's stirred me: the Pray40 Community Prayer Challenge offers a different, well-prepared meditation or reflection from a variety of presenters, including Mark Wahlberg, Jonathan Roumie, Sister Mary Bernice, M.C.; Sister Miriam James, S.O.L.T; and Father Mike Schmitz. Many of the days guide us through the astonishing, spiritual classic, He Leadeth Me, written by Fr. Walter J. Ciszek, S.J. Fr. Walter was a Jesuit priest and missionary, imprisoned for more than 20 years in the Soviet Union. Amidst horrific and brutal conditions, Fr. Walter underwent a profound spiritual journey. He surrendered his life to God and gifted us with an extraordinary example of faith, humility, and hope in Christ.

I've noticed several testimonials about the positive, spiritual effects of using the Hallow app this Lent. One that was moving was from a man who shared "Hallow right now is bringing me back to my faith and I will see where it goes. I abandoned my Catholic upbringing because I struggle with religion being the root of so much division and war in our world. I've just recently introduced Hallow and am taking great comfort in welcoming God back into my life."

This Lent, I've been trying to spend less time on social media and more time in quiet and meditative prayer. So it seems like a paradox to me that Hallow's Lent Pray40 challenge is leading me back to my phone. Yet, using this particular app doesn't make me feel like I just wasted a large chunk of time—instead, it's guided me to feeling nourished, inspired, and blessed during my Lenten journey.

This Lent, I've noticed how many people are seeking to go deeper spiritually. So many yearn to return to God and the Church. The Church gives us so many beautiful paths to do so. Astoundingly, this year's Super Bowl commercial, which was broadcast to millions throughout the world, just might have been the voice of the Holy Spirit whispering with a megaphone to each one of us! We have been invited to draw closer to the Lord this Lent and become more fully the person God created us to be. So, here's my commercial: if you have not already done so, I encourage you to download the Hallow app and start following the Lent Pray40 challenge daily. It's never too late to stay prayed up!
