PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

For years I feared going to confession. I would wait in line trembling, feeling sick. In the upper room, the anxiety of the disciples was so strong that they locked themselves away. But still Christ stood in their midst. He would not be prevented from bringing mercy and hope to those in despair. No door barred in fear could keep him out. This is the genius of the sacrament of Reconciliation—and of all sacraments, really. Here we are, restricted in so many ways by a physical existence. We feel fear, and we react, just as we feel anger and our body reacts. How can God deliver mercy to us in this human state? Through that very confining flesh.

Through confession, which requires a physical action, and the physical participation not just of the penitent but of the priest.—Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

The Sacred Paschal Triduum at St. Joseph Church

The Triduum began with the evening Mass on Holy Thursday as we celebrated the institution of the Eucharist. Fr. Marcin washed the feet of representatives from each parish ministry and organization—

Harrison Adams (Altar Server), Ryane Jefferson (Confirmation Candidate), Marian Worby (Lector), Annie Kidd (RCIA Team), Pat Knittel (CCW & Art/Environment), Mike Storer (Holy Name), Kathy Storer (Hospitality), Steve Luehrs (Knights & Blood Donor), Lindsay Adams (Parish Council & Eucharistic Minister), Graham Williams (First Communion Candidate), Mark Williams (Mobile Food Pantry), Cheryle Strother (Music Ministry)—modeling Christ at the Last Supper. In the end, the Blessed Sacrament was transferred to an altar of repose for adoration and people came throughout the night to be with Jesus.

On Good Friday, we recalled the crucifixion.

We participated in the Passion narrative. And, later, one-by-one, we venerated the cross, thanking Jesus for loving us so much that he endured such a painful and horrific death. It was an extremely powerful moment for the people at our church!

Meanwhile, on Holy Saturday, Fr. Marcin blessed foods brought to St. Joseph's during the Blessing of the Baskets service.

The Triduum reached its high point at the Easter Vigil Mass.

We experienced lighting of the Paschal Candle at the fire outside of the church building.

The Chrism Mass: A Call to Newness of Life

By the time you are reading this article, we will probably have already celebrated Palm Sunday, Holy Week, the Triduum and Easter Sunday.

During that holy and busy week in the Catholic Church, there is a beautiful, albeit sometimes overshadowed, Mass we celebrate called the “Chrism Mass.” Here in the Diocese of Joliet, we gather for it each year on the Monday after Palm Sunday, and I would like to share with you why I love it so much.

During this joyous and powerful celebration, there are two additional parts that are included in the Mass. The first one is the “Renewal of Priestly Promises.” Immediately after the homily, the priests all stand and the bishop begins to address them with these words: “Beloved sons, on the anniversary of that day when Christ our Lord conferred his priesthood on his Apostles and on us, are you resolved to renew, in the presence of your Bishop and God’s holy people, the promises you once made?”

This year at the Chrism Mass, as I listened to the priests renewing their promises with zeal and courage, I felt a deep sense of unity with them and gratitude for them. I also thanked God not only for their original “Yes” to the priesthood, but also for publicly reaffirming their commitment throughout all the ups and downs of the journey.

The second additional part is the “Presentation of the Oils.” The Oil of the Sick and the Oil of Catechumens are first presented and blessed. Then the Chrism oil is presented to the bishop. Right before the bishop consecrates it, he pours the ‘chrism essence’ into the container and stirs the oil, then he literally breathes upon it, recalling when Jesus breathed on his disciples after the resurrection, thus sending the Holy Spirit. (John 20:22)

I love that after this Mass, representatives from each of our parishes and various institutions receive a box containing the newly blessed Oils and return to their parishes with these Holy Oils. On Holy Thursday, these Holy Oils are presented in all of our parishes at the beginning of the Mass of the Lord’s Supper. These Holy Oils are used throughout the year for the Sacraments of the Anointing of the Sick, Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders, and in the dedication of a new church and/or a new Altar.

Immediately after the blessing of the new Oils at the Chrism Mass, we turn to the Liturgy of the Eucharist as the gifts of bread and wine are presented with this prayer over the offerings, “May the power of this sacrifice, O Lord we pray, mercifully wipe away what is old in us and increase in us grace of salvation and newness of life.” It strikes me that the Chrism Mass magnifies this newness of life through Christ our Lord as the priests renew their promises and as the people bring back the new holy oils to their parishes. This newness of life was celebrated in your parish on Easter Sunday and these Holy Oils will be used in your parish and ministries in the year ahead to renew us in our lives.

After the Chrism Mass, as I exited the Cathedral and I was walking through the parking lot, I noticed a small group of people who had also attended the Mass. They were walking to their car, gently carrying the newly blessed Holy Oils almost like parents carrying a new-born baby into the house for the first time. I was delighted by their care and attention.

They told me that they had driven to the Cathedral from Kankakee. One of the women then said, “Bishop, I felt like I won the golden ticket when I was asked to represent my parish at this Mass today. It was just splendid! And it reminded me that our diocese is a lot bigger than just my parish. It felt good to worship with the larger Church today.”

As I started my car, I thought about her comment. Sometimes, we might think that the Church is only as big as our experience in our own local parish. We can easily get focused on just our own personal communities, realities, needs and issues. And yet, we are a large and diverse diocese made up of many people from various demographics and locations with a wide variety of opinions and points of view. Through it all, part of the beauty of what makes us “Catholic” is that amid our diversity and individual parish experiences, we are also united in Christ. And yet together, wholeheartedly, we all believe that salvation is only through, with and in Him.

So, as I drove home from the Chrism Mass with a smile on my face, I spontaneously uttered a prayer of thanksgiving to God for all of the laity, religious women and men, deacons and priests across our diocese, and for the newness of life that we share, united through Christ, our Lord.

Representing St. Joseph's

Peggy Blanchette, Gisel Waide, and Ruth Tomlinson presented the holy oils to Fr. Marcin at the start of Holy Thursday Mass.

These women along with Barb Fortin and Vicki Burgener had represented us at the Chrism Mass earlier in the week.
