3rd Sunday of Easter

And it happened that, while Jesus was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. (Lk 24:30-31)

Defibrillator installed at St. Joseph Church

An automated external defibrillator has been installed at this location at the back of St. Joseph Church.

Cardiac arrest needs to be treated fast. Having this AED onsite could save critical time if someone collapses during a service or event.

Thank you to everyone who made contributions to purchase this life-saving piece of equipment for the worship space. You responded so quickly and generously and we are extremely grateful for your concern for the wellbeing of our parishioners and guests. We certainly also appreciate the CCW for initiating this project, reaching out to the parish for assistance and ordering the AED.

Members of the CCW have received instructions from medical personnel in the community about operating the device and the necessary procedures that need to be followed in the event of a cardiac emergency. A handy training video is available at <https://americanAED.com/dvd/frx> or by scanning the QR code in the picture above. Of course, our prayer now is that the AED in our church won't ever be needed!

Recently initiated into the faith!

Sarah (Themer) Martin is one of our newly initiated members. She and her husband, Tom Martin, have been married for six years and they have two daughters, Stevie, 5, and Maggie, 3. They have been parishioners for about a year at St. Joseph's. Sarah is an oncology nurse and Tom works in law enforcement.

At the Easter Vigil Mass on Holy Saturday, April 8, Sarah's conversion journey culminated. "I had had an interest in joining the Catholic Church for a long time," she said, explaining that as a child, she would often attend parish programs and events and Sunday Mass with friends. "When I married into a Catholic family I grew to love it even more."

What a wonderful moment as her children, nieces and nephews and many family members watched from the front pews as Sarah was baptized by Fr. Marcin and received Confirmation and First Communion.

Sarah has learned a lot during the RCIA process. "I want to continue to expand my faith and strengthen my relationship with Jesus. I also want to help guide my children as they embark on their religious journey." Congratulations and many blessings, Sarah! Please know how happy we are for you!

Thanks for your support!

Thank you to our Mobile Food Pantry volunteers, coordinators, and all those who offer donations to cover the costs.

PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

We have all had jobs that leave us feeling unfulfilled. Most of us have also been lucky enough to have a job that we love—a vocation, a calling that makes us look in the mirror and think, “This is who I’m supposed to be. I recognize this person.” For me, that work is the work of marriage and motherhood. The hours are terrible and the pay is even worse—but it doesn’t matter. When I look in the mirror every morning and see my tired face, choruses of “I don’t want the blue shirt, mommy!” and “Honey, I need to go in early, I have to run,” in my mind, I think to myself: “I recognize this girl. She was born to do this.” Christ’s own disciples didn’t recognize him on the road to Emmaus. It wasn’t until he broke the bread that their eyes were opened. In that moment, he was doing the very work he was born to do, making the sacrifice. I don’t know what kind of vocation you are called to. I don’t know what kind of work reveals your true self. But I hope that whatever you are doing, you can look in the mirror and feel your heart burning within you.—Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Celebrating the feast of Divine Mercy at St. Joseph Church

St. Joseph Parish celebrated the feast of Divine Mercy with a special afternoon observance last Sunday, April 16.

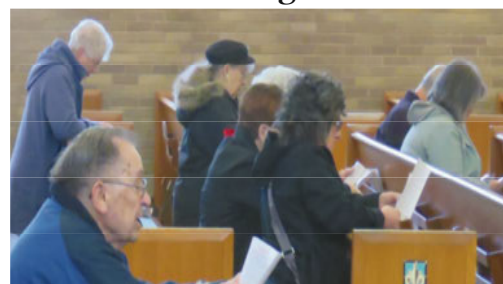

Deacon Leon Fritz led the prayer service, which included adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet prayer and veneration of the relic of St. Faustina. Meanwhile, Fr. Marcin heard individual confessions as the public celebration unfolded in the worship space.

Thanks so much to the parishioners and all of the guests who attended the prayerful celebration.

We are so grateful to everyone who had a hand in creating this powerful opportunity, especially parishioners Kent and Ellen Taylor who organized the event and donated the beautiful Divine Mercy image to the parish. Please take some time before or after Mass to view the striking picture hanging above the tabernacle in the church.
