5th Sunday of Easter

Jesus said to his disciples: "Do not let your hearts be troubled. You have faith in God; have faith also in me. In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be. Where I am going you know the way." (Jn 14:6-7)

ST. JOSEPH'S Parish PICNIC

Saturday, September 9, 2023

Have you come to our Parish Picnic the last couple years? We've had such a great time and now we are planning for our 2023 celebration! A committee is coming together to manage the event. If you'd like to be part of this group, please contact Peggy Blanchette at blanchettepbj@att.net. We will have a Planning Meeting scheduled at 7pm on Tuesday, June 6, at the Ministry Center.

Happy Anniversary!

Here's Fr. Marcin leading Ron and Kathy Joubert in renewing their wedding vows on their 50th anniversary. What a happy moment that recently happened at St. Joseph Church. Congrats! If you or your family is celebrating a wedding anniversary, call the parish office to setup a blessing at Mass.

We would also like to take this opportunity to invite all parishioners with wedding anniversaries in 2023 for 10, 25 and 50 years and more to the annual Wedding Anniversary Mass of the Diocese of Joliet. This special liturgy, which will be held at 2pm on August 27, 2023, at the Cathedral of St. Raymond in Joliet, will be celebrated by Bishop Ron Hicks. To attend, call St. Joseph's Parish Office at 815-939-3573.

The Last RE Session of the Year is this week
Our year has been awesome; definitely "Something to Celebrate" this Wednesday!

PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

My husband is an architect. Through him, I've learned a lot about houses, buildings and other structures. One of the main reasons a home might strike some as displeasing is because it has undergone a renovation. Whether out of laziness or an effort to be cost-effective, additions are made that depart from the architectural style of the original structure. The result is "ugly" for lack of a better word. I think of this when I consider Christ as the "cornerstone." We know we are called to model ourselves on Christ, to build on his example. But very often we cherry-pick elements of his message and attempt to build on it with additions that make no sense. When someone looks at us, at our lives, they should be able to tell after whom that life is patterned. We must resemble the cornerstone, if we do not, it will be apparent, unseemly. You can't see God the Father without embracing God the Son. You can't chart the future of a house without any thought for its past. If Christ is not our inspiration, he will be our contradiction.-Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

CCW presents Woman of the Year

Last Sunday, April 30, Pat Knittel, the president of St. Joseph's Council of Catholic Women, presented Julie Gindy to Fr. Marcin and the people of the parish during the 11am Mass as our CCW's 2023 Woman of the Year. Pat, Julie and Fr. Marcin posed for a picture with some other members of the CCW after Mass.

Julie, a lifelong parishioner, has been involved at her church with programs such as Religious Education, Youth Ministry, Nursing Home Ministry, and the Covid Response Team. She currently serves as part of the Hospitality Ministry and as a Eucharistic Minister as well as on the Parish Council.

Julie and her husband, Jeff, have three children, Jillian, Katie, and Cody, and they are looking forward to becoming grandparents this summer! Julie is the president and founding member of Acting Out Theatre Co. (Of course, she shares her artistic talents at her parish. Have you noticed the empty tomb as part of the Easter décor? Julie created that!) And, she is part owner and production coordinator of Sweet Street in Bourbonnais. Yum!

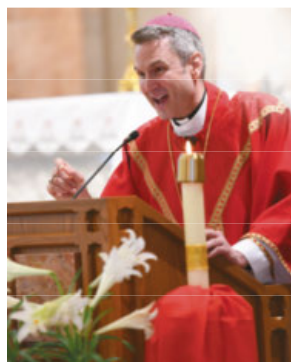

And, finally, more than one person called Julie "the best friend you could ever want," said Pat as the CCW president described her friend and fellow parishioner before inviting the Woman of the Year to the front of the church to be recognized during Mass. It was an awesome moment as the assembly applauded for this very deserving woman of faith.

The outpouring of words of congratulations has "been overwhelming," said Julie. "I love my St. Joseph Parish family and being named as Woman of the Year is such an honor." Countless people do so much in public ministry and behind-the-scenes. "I am happy to be part of the village it takes to get all of the things done."

CCW Event Happening at St. Joseph's!

Ladies are invited to the Spring Institute of the Kankakee Deanery Council of Catholic Women to be held at St. Joseph in Bradley on Wednesday, June 7. Registration will begin at 5pm with Mass starting at 5:30pm followed by dinner. The cost is $20. Please make checks payable to St. Joseph CCW and turn them in at parish office or at our May CCW meeting. The deadline is May 16th.

Bishop Ronald Hicks' Column for May 2023

Calling Joyful Shepherds

This year we will ordain five new priests for the Diocese of Joliet. While this quantity is outstanding, so is their quality. These five men are young, intelligent, faith filled, pastoral and enthusiastic, and they all strive for holiness. They easily could have followed one of many good and exciting career paths offered by the world. Counterculturally, they heard the call of the Lord and responded by choosing to follow the call to the vocation of ordained priesthood.

We are blessed in the Diocese of Joliet to have 23 seminarians studying for the priesthood. However, we cannot rest on our laurels. Encouraging young men to consider the priesthood is the responsibility of the entire people of God.

The question becomes, “How do we invite and encourage others to discern a life to the priesthood or religious life?” Most of us, I hope, feel comfortable praying for vocations and donating to our Seminarian Endowment Fund to help cover the costs of seminarian formation. However, when it comes to proactively inviting others to it, we can become tongue-tied and need help as to what we should say and do.

For that reason, I just recently sent an inspiring little book to all the priests in the Diocese of Joliet called, “Five Conversations about the Priesthood,” by Father Michael Pratt. Studies show that the local priest is one of the most influential factors for their parishioners discerning a vocation to the priesthood or religious life.

This book provides a simple and solid roadmap to intentionally encourage others to discern a priestly vocation.

Father Pratt’s book gives five practical ways to talk about the following: 1. Priestly identity. 2. The Eucharist in the priest’s life. 3. The Sacrament of Penance. 4. Preaching. 5. Parish priesthood.

While this book is geared to our priests, you might also want to consider reading it. A quick internet search of the title, or a visit to <https://vianneyvocations.com> will provide ordering instructions.

Just about all recently ordained priests throughout the country commonly report one of the reasons they took the leap of faith to actively discern the priesthood and to enter the seminary is that someone specifically invited them to do so. Just one voice has the power to break through all their doubts, fears and negative messaging about becoming a priest. My hope is that before we approach eternal life, we will be able to name someone specifically that we encouraged to discern the priesthood or religious life.

This may be hard to believe, but there are many parents who explicitly discourage their sons from considering the priesthood. While some parents claim it is because they want grandchildren or because they want their son to pursue a more prestigious profession and make a lot of money, the most common factor for their lack of support is because they think their son will be unhappy as a priest. Most parents’ greatest desire is for their children to be happy. If they think that priesthood is the road to unhappiness, then they tend to actively discourage the possibility of it.

Most studies reveal that priests are happy. While there are exceptions to this rule, most of us know many happy and well-adjusted priests. I, for example, empathically declare that as I celebrate 29 years of priesthood, I am happy! I say so without being naïve or sugarcoating the challenges. The priesthood, like all vocations, comes with an experience of suffering. But these moments of the cross also lead us through and to the joy of the resurrection.

In 2010, after completing five-years of living and working in El Salvador, I spoke with Cardinal George in eager anticipation of my next assignment. I clearly remember him saying to me, “Fr. Ron, I am assigning you to Mundelein Seminary to be the Dean of Formation.” Quickly brushing off my initial shock, I responded, “Well, thank you for that assignment. You know that I am obedient and will go wherever you send me. However, after spending five years in Central America and becoming fluent in Spanish, why are you not sending me to be a pastor in a large, Hispanic parish, and instead sending me to the Major Seminary?” His answer surprised me, “Fr. Ron, you are a joyful priest...and the seminarians need to see your joy.”

As we give thanks for our five new priests, please join me in expressing my gratitude to the priests in the Diocese of Joliet. With them, let us all strive to joyfully and intentionally encourage others to consider a vocation to the priesthood or religious life. To learn about priestly vocations and also for ways to encourage them, please go to our website at www.diojoliet.org/vocations or contact our Office of Vocations at 815-221-6171.
