ASSUMPTION

of the blessed virgin Mary

Please join us this Tuesday, August 15, on this Holy Day of Obligation as we joyfully celebrate Our Blessed Mother's assumption into heaven. We will have Masses at 8:30am and 7pm. Before evening Mass, our Rosary Group will lead a special Outdoor Recitation of the Rosary. The Rosary will be prayed beginning at 6:30pm at the statue of the Blessed Mother on Perry Street. Please bring a lawn chair. (In the event of inclement weather, we will meet inside the church). Please Note: we will not have our regularly scheduled 7 a.m. Tuesday Mass on the Solemnity of the Assumption.

The Knights have scheduled another Convent Workday this coming Wednesday, August 16, starting at 2:30pm. All are invited to help out, especially those who have professional expertise or are handy with home improvements. If anyone is interested, contact Justin Sommer at 815-216-0314 or jasommer85@yahoo.com. Or just arrive on Wednesday ready for the Workday!

Volunteers Needed for Mobile Food Pantry
Go to stjosephbradley.org to volunteer for the Mobile Food Pantry happening next Friday at St. Joseph's or call the parish office. And, please spread the word about this event from 10-11:30 a.m. on August 18 to receive food.

PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

My only real memory of the Mackinac Island ferry was the physical sensation of the wind against my face. I remember, distinctly, that it hurt. I was four years old, and it was, in the immortal words of Winnie-the-Pooh, a very blustery day. I remember thinking I was going to die. I'm positive now that it wasn't really all that dramatic, but at four years old, you're awfully scared of a good strong wind. Deep inside, aren't we all, really? I think of the apostles who cannot recognize Christ because he is doing something new. Something impossible. And even when he reassures them, still Peter is not convinced. He demands, essentially, a miracle. He demands that Christ make him do what only Christ can do. And even when the miracle takes place, still he is human. Scared, doubtful, distractible. No match for a good strong wind.

Many thanks to all who have signed up for electronic giving. These two options are the most convenient ways for giving and staying consistent with your offerings. You can make automated ACH Offerings from your savings or checking accounts. Clip the authorization form on page 7 or download one at the parish website; print; complete; follow the directions and put in collection basket or mail to the parish. Or stop by the parish office to sign-up for Auto Deduct. Or look for the PayPal option at our website to set-up online contributions. Thanks for your ongoing support!

Place your order for Mums

Members of St. Joseph's Council of Catholic Women are selling Mums for $10 each with color choices of orange, red, yellow, purple, pink and white. The ladies are taking orders this weekend, August 12-13, after Masses. (They will be back to take your order next weekend, August 19-20, or place your order at the parish office). Payment is due when ordering with cash or check made out to: St. Joseph CCW. Feel free to print the order form at the parish website and complete it before coming to church. The order deadline is: Tuesday, August 22. Pick up will be Sept. 18 at the Ministry Center parking lot. Thanks for your support!

St. Joseph Parish hosts Natural Family Planning Classes

Reasons may arise that cause a married couple to limit the size of their family, including financial stresses, physical illness, and psychological difficulties. Natural Family Planning is a moral way to accept God's gift of fertility while cooperating with His plan. Our parish hosts NFP classes on the last Friday of the month. Registration is required by contacting Lupita at SorichLifeCoach@gmail.com.

"Travel Lessons"-Bishop Ronald Hicks' August 2023 Column

"WHAT I DID THIS SUMMER" is usually the first essay of the school year for students. My own essay would include a trip to El Salvador, staying at Nuestros Pequeños Hermanos (Spanish for "Our Little Brothers and Sisters"). NPH was originally founded in Mexico, by Father William Wasson in 1954, as a home to care for orphaned, abandoned and at-risk children. He created a safe place where children could thrive within a culture of unconditional love and faith at its core. Currently, NPH nurtures children and transforms lives in nine countries in Latin America and the Caribbean.

With permission from Cardinal George, I worked as a priest as the Regional Director of our NPH homes in Central America from 2005 until 2010. Last month, I returned to El Salvador, and as I walked through the enormous doors, the aromas of handmade tortillas mixed with the cow farm next door instantly filled me with memories from five years of service there. I instantly smiled and thought to myself, what a blessing to be back here! I knew, of course, I would be sacrificing many of the creature comforts of home during my visit.

While I was there, NPH celebrated its 24th anniversary of operating a home in El Salvador. We began the day with an early Mass, and I was uplifted knowing the tradition of full and active participation in the liturgy still exists there, as over 500 children enthusiastically sang and responded to the prayers.

After Mass, everyone changed out of their "church clothes" and into their "play clothes." By 9 a.m. it was already 95 degrees, so I, too, decided to change out of my black suit and roman collar and into a T-shirt and sandals. It was a good decision because the day's next activity was an hour-long Zumba/salsa class! Did the bishop Zumba and salsa? Yes! However, trust me when I say that I lacked all skill and grace while doing it—it was an exercise in true humility that also got my heart pumping.

The rest of the day was filled with games and soccer tournaments as we basked in each other's warm friendship and lively conversation. The highlight for the children was being served hotdogs, a bag of chips and a can of pop for lunch. While you may think this is rather basic food, these children are accustomed to eating rice and beans daily, so this was a wonderful and welcomed treat.

After my morning holy hour the next day, I waited for the daily ritual of the water trickling on at 6 a.m.

After showering, I dressed in my black suit, roman collar and pectoral cross and got into a pickup truck to drive across the border to Guatemala—a trip that should have taken about two-and-a-half hours. However, because of the condition of the roads scattered with potholes and fallen trees, the drive took almost four hours.

I arrived in the town of Santa Rosa de Lima to ordain Juan Carlos Pirir. For the past four years he has been a seminarian studying for the Diocese of Joliet. After completing his studies, I ordained him a priest there in his hometown as he was surrounded by his parents, siblings, relatives and just about everyone else from the town.

Before and after the Mass, fireworks were launched. And outside of the church, with its large choir and sacred music, the spirit of fiesta filled the air with booming music along with colorful balloons, banners and decorations. It was an amazing celebration and reflected the deep faith in that community, which formed Father Juan Carlos Pirir and fostered his vocation.

Back in El Salvador, a strong storm came through and knocked out the power my last night there. But instead of being upset by this inconvenience, I was thankful for the rain which cooled everything down, including me.

As I went to bed, I thanked God for keeping me safe during my travels. I asked for special blessings upon the dear children of NPH and upon Father Juan's proud family and supportive community. My "summer essay" would thank God for the comforts we enjoy "back home" and often take for granted: our safety, food, water, electricity and our parish communities.

Do enjoy the rest of your summer!+
