22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus said, "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor. Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.' For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted." (Lk 14:8bc)

Celebrating Our Parish, Our Family

Over the next few weeks, you will be hearing about the “Our Parish, Our Family” program. This is a celebration of our parish, highlighting the mission and vision of St. Joseph’s. We, as a parish family, have changed so many lives in our community! We will celebrate Our Parish, Our Family at our Picnic on Sept. 10 and Commitment Weekend will be held on Sept. 24 and 25. If you have any questions regarding this effort, please contact the parish office.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Some people have “the rich relation” in their family tree. Oftentimes these relatives take great happiness in sharing their wealth. Yet sometimes, that person wants something in return. Not money, of course, but something else.

Attention. Flattery. Gratitude. Cindy wants you to ask her where she got the priceless artifact, so she can talk about the many antiquities dealers she visited. Richard wants you to ask about his new boat, so he can talk about how well business has been this year. Maybe the person just wants to know you like the gift or that the experience offered is pleasing to you. There is nothing wrong with wanting to be the person people count on. There is nothing wrong with wanting to offer worthy gifts. What matters is the spirit we carry within our hearts when we do it. What matters is our destination as we approach that proverbial table. Are we headed for the place of honor, expecting it to be waiting for us? Or are we making our way to the lowest place, simply thankful to be invited to the meal?—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

There's always a great reaction when mom and dad tell the kids "It's Donut Sunday!" as they drive to church that morning.

Thanks so much to the group of parishioners who hosted this popular event last Sunday.
