25th Sunday in Ordinary Time Catechetical Sunday

This is my body given for you

The 2022 theme for this weekend's celebration of Catechetical Sunday, "This is my body given for you," is a reminder of the amazing gift of the Eucharist. This annual observance celebrates Catechists. These are people involved in our parish Religious Education and BMCS, RCIA ministers and Youth Ministry leaders as well as parents, grandparents and all others whose lives model what it means to be a follower of Jesus. This year's theme is perfect as the faith of our Catechists and their resolve to share it are both nourished by the Eucharist, the source and summit of the Catholic Church. Happy Catechetical Sunday to all of you, thank you for sharing the faith and may you feel God's abundant blessings for your efforts!

Our PARISH Our FAMILY

This week you will receive a brochure introducing the "Our Parish, Our Family" program. We ask that you please review its contents and prayerfully consider how you can help St. Joseph Parish by financially supporting our ministries, furthering our mission, and reinforcing our future.

Next weekend, Sept. 24 and 25, we will invite each of you to make a commitment and help us respond to God's great gift of love. As part of Commitment Weekend, we will have lay witnesses speaking at each of the Masses about what St. Joseph Parish means to them.

We ask that all parishioners complete the Commitment Card that you will receive in the mail with your brochure. Please bring the card to Mass next weekend; mail it to the church office using the pre-addressed envelope or visit www.stjosephbradley.org and complete an electronic Commitment Card.

The back of the Commitment Card has a place for you to include any prayer intentions. These will be prayed for collectively over the next few weeks. If you would like to speak to Fr. Marcin, please indicate that on your card for a return call.

We invite each of you to participate in the "Our Parish, Our Family" program and help us respond to God's great gift of love. Our goal is 100 percent participation! Thank you for your generosity and support of St. Joseph Parish!

Parish Blood Drive This Sunday!

We are so very grateful to those who have signed up to participate at our Blood Drive happening from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. this Sunday, September 18. We still have some slots open. If you'd like to give blood, please stop by and see what times are available. Thanks again for doing your part to save lives!

PARISH
Women's GROUP

Join Us Next Sunday!

We have Donut Sunday next weekend on September 25th after the 8:30 a.m. and 11 a.m. Masses. Invite a friend and introduce them to Our Parish, Our Family. All are invited for Donut Sunday!

Things are really taking shape with St. Joseph's Council of Catholic Women. Let's keep the momentum going! All ladies of the parish are invited to the CCW Meeting at the Ministry Center this Tuesday, Sept. 20, at 7 p.m. New officers will be installed and they will be looking for your suggestions. Did you write out some ideas and put them in the collection basket this weekend? Of course you can bring your list to the upcoming meeting or feel free to use the contact form at the parish website. Please spend a little time with the CCW on Tuesday. You'll be so glad you did! Take advantage of this opportunity to be part of this group of women!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The reality of selfishness usually lies in the grey shades of our decision-making. We would never go out of our way to kick a homeless person. We would never steal from our parish collection basket. But would we drive past the homeless person without a thought or a prayer? Would we justify stinginess in time, talent, and treasure because of our own comfort? We all have been guilty of these transgressions and we will fall again in the future. Most of the evil in this world can be traced back to a feeling of entitlement that lurks deep within each of us. The same instinct that compelled Eve to reach for the fruit still compels people to focus on what they are “owed,” on what they have “earned,” on what they have “coming to them.” We are so tempted to fix the scales. We are so tempted to keep score. We would do well to remember that our God does not keep score. He does not act entitled and does not tack on extra dues, taking as much as He can get. He seats the lowly with princes. He seeks avenues for reconciliation and mercy.-Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Aperion Care Bradley has invited St. Joseph Parish to resume weekly Communion Services for residents of this facility located on Kinzie Avenue which provides rehab, nursing care, and physical therapy. We have not done this ministry since before the pandemic, so we are seeking Eucharistic Ministers to serve on a rotating basis, leading prayer and distributing Communion to residents wanting to receive the sacrament. If this might be something God is inviting you to consider, please contact Deacon Greg at the parish office to discuss this special ministry of care.
