"Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come. Be sure of this: if the master of the house had known the hour of night when the thief was coming, he would have stayed awake and not let his house be broken into. So too, you also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." (Mt 24:42)

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Some people hate surprise parties. There are those who are uncomfortable with a last-minute vacation or even an unexpected travel upgrade. There is a temptation to view these folks as sticks in the mud, obsessed with predictability. But I think if we're being honest, there's a little bit of the surprise-averse in all of us. Deep within the a surprise is a kernel of shock. And shock, in the moment, can feel similar to trauma. If we reflect on the most traumatic occurrences of our lives—a loss, an accident, a calamity—it is likely that we will say this: “It was the shock more than anything that got to me.” Grief or fear, those feelings were overwhelming as well, but they came later. In the first moment, all we knew was we were going about our lives on one path until we were thrust on a different one and then the whole future changed. This is the natural rhythm of our life here on earth. We never know what is coming—which is to say, in a beautiful way, we always know what is coming. More importantly, we know Who is coming. Like the early riser who sets the “pre-alarm” (the one on which he knows he's going to hit snooze just to take the edge off the disappointment of waking up), we are always being given a heads-up in Scripture. From the earliest prophecies of the Messiah to Jesus' reminders in the Gospel to the very last words of Revelations, God has communicated to His stewards: You know the time. The time is now. We are called to constant vigilance, perpetual renewal, steadfast accountability. Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Saying thanks is never out of season!

And just like that (with the hard work of our Art & Environment ministry), our church has switched from pumpkins and fall foliage to evergreens and purple and pink, all to help us start off a new church year and celebrate a new season, Advent. A change of season often means packing things away, not to be seen or used again until the next year, however, one thing that never goes out of season is gratitude!

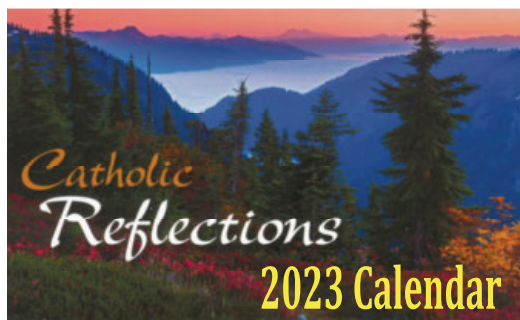

So even though our Thanksgiving feasts have come and gone, the Religious Education Office would like to kick off Advent by saying THANK YOU to many wonderful and generous people who help and support our ministry. So a huge THANK YOU to: the parish staff, Fr. Marcin, Deacon Greg, Brad Benoit, Kevin Delabre and Paul Storer for your help, guidance and promotion of our program and events; our parish ministries, the CCW, Knights of Columbus, Holy Name for assisting with special events and overall support; Dana Berg and the staff at BMCS for being such great partners in faith formation; Andre Marcotte for keeping our spaces clean, maintained and always ready for a set-up; Diane Gonzcy, Marilyn Gruber, Norma Lovell, and Emily Storer, who often help with projects behind-the-scenes; Cathy LaRocque for putting together the monthly Family Liturgical Activity packets, providing families with a wealth of Catholic information, resources and ideas to build their domestic churches; our St. Joseph parishioners who always seem ready and willing to be involved, whether by donating to our causes or participating in our events. Thank you for your support!

The RE program can only thrive with the help of volunteers. These amazing parishioners give their time each month, coming to work with the children during our In-Person sessions, teaching them about the Catholic faith and how to grow their relationship with Jesus. Some are parents and/or grandparents with children in the program, others are parishioners who just want to share their love of God, all of them are dedicated models of Christ, including Melissa Diaz, Jennifer Fitzgerald, Mollie Grizzle, Lauren Gross, Tracey Jurka, Jessica LaMore, Pat Lovell, Brenda McLean, Katie Martin, Cindy Massey, Michelle Meier, Gina O'Neill, Christina Robinson, Meredith Scafiezzo, Andrea Sexton, Danielle Shervino, Kathy Storer, Amie Thompson, Sarah Valerio, and Becky Williams.

Thanks Be to God for everyone, in whatever part you play, no matter how big or small, in supporting RE. May God bless you for making a difference in the lives of our children and families!-Anita Lovell, RE Coordinator

Take home a calendar

2023 Calendars courtesy of Clancy-Gernon Funeral Homes are available at St. Joseph Church. A beautiful painting with a passage from the Gospels represents each month. This is a handy resource for seeing the liturgical days and seasons of the Catholic Church and finding out information about our parish. Please take a calendar home. Many thanks to Clancy-Gernon Funeral Homes for providing us with this wonderful gift!
