FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Let us walk in the light of the Lord

Jesus said to his disciples, "Watch, you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning. May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping. What I say to you, I say to all: 'Watch!' " (Mk 13:35)

We are grateful to those who have signed up for our Blood Drive happening from 8 a.m.-1 p.m. this Sunday, Dec. 3, aboard the Mobile Unit parked at the parish. We still have openings. Stop by the North Lot and see what's available.

the WORD
among us®

Get your copy at church

The Advent edition of the Word Among Us focuses on the Holy Family and how all of our families are a reflection of the love of Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

Grab a copy of this booklet at any of the church doors and enjoy the thoughtful content as you are guided through the Season of Advent.

Thank you!

Thank you to all the people who have taken a family to buy gifts for and those who have taken tags from the Giving Tree. Next Weekend, Dec 9/10, is the time to bring everything to church (unwrapped). Make sure the tag is attached and place the gifts by the matching tags. It will be clear once you're at church next weekend. And, for those who adopted families, you can bring items in gift bags for each person. Put a label on each bag with the Family # and include boy or girl and their age. Place items for families behind the back pew. There will be labeled spots for each family. For any clarification, please contact Pat Knittel.

Special Collection for Retired Religious next weekend

You can help! "Religious are blessed to serve," says Dominican Father Bertrand Ebben, age 90. Please donate to the Retirement Fund for Religious next weekend. Your gift will provide essential care for nearly 25,000 senior sisters, brothers and religious priests who have dedicated their lives to serving others. Let's show our gratitude to these selfless individuals by giving generously. A donation envelope is in your offertory packet from the parish.

PRACTICING STEWARDSHIP

I once came upon a prayer consecrating the last two hours of life to the Blessed Mother. I have since found variations of the prayer online with different phrasing, but the sentiment of them all is the same: let me not be caught sleeping. Let me be ready. "You can't do all your homework at the end," a deacon who ministers to the dying once told me. I think of that a lot when I don't particularly feel like praying, when I think I'm too busy to go to confession or when feelings of resentment fester inside me on Sunday mornings as I pack my family off to church. You can't do all your homework at the end. God is faithful. Are we?—Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Fun times getting ready for Advent

Our Religious Education and Youth Ministry sponsored their first all-family gathering this past Wednesday, Nov. 29. Everyone in the parish was invited to come and enjoy making an Advent Wreath. The attendees prayed together, learned a little history of the Advent Wreath, and created their own wreath to take home to be part of their celebration of Advent.

December Vocation Prayer Calendar

The Diocese of Joliet Vocation Prayer Calendar was designed for people to pray each day for those who have committed their lives to the church. It lists names of diocesan priests, seminarians, religious priests, brothers, sisters, deacons, and men and women in formation. You can access December at St. Joseph's website. Please pray for those listed for the given day, asking our Lord to continue to sustain them, and that others will respond similarly to ministry in the Catholic Church.

Getting ready for Advent & Christmas

Deepen your faith this Advent by joining the St. Joseph Rosary Group on Tuesdays at 6:30pm. There are about a dozen of us who meet to pray the rosary and adore the Blessed Sacrament.

The rosary is a Catholic tradition which was given to us by the Blessed Virgin Mary, the mother of our Lord, Jesus. While reciting the prayers we meditate on the events of our Savior's life.

Praying the Rosary will bring peace to your daily life and family. It is a powerful spiritual weapon to fight against the evil in our present day.

(The Perry Street door will be open to enter).

Thanks so much to our Knights of Columbus for putting up the Christmas trees this past Wednesday and helping get the church ready for Advent and Christmas. It's not easy to assemble and arrange those big trees. But, the knights take it upon themselves yearly to do the job for Our Parish, Our Family.

Thanks as always to our Art & Environment Crew for all their work to switch the church décor from Ordinary Time to Advent and all of the other volunteers, including the families who came over after the Wreath Making Event that evening. The parents and grandparents did an awesome job and the kids were such great workers! Everyone worked so well together! What a great night!!

In addition to the Sunday collection, we have some additional envelopes for December 2023

Many parishioners who utilize our electronic giving options have opted not to receive contribution envelopes from the parish. This desire is perfectly fine, but the decision has caused these registered members not to receive any of the holy day or special collection envelopes. Some of these parishioners have reached out to us for a solution as they want to participate and give to various ministries, causes and outreach efforts. So, moving forward, at the beginning of the month, we will try to publish these envelopes in the bulletin. ✂
