STEWARDSHIP

We've never known the Jesus of the Gospels to doubt the will of God. We've never known him to be defeated, giving into feelings of despair. He's the hero who walks on water, the Savior welcomed with a pathway of palms. And he knows how this story ends; he knows full well that his Father has not left him. So why does he say from the cross, "My God, my God, why have You abandoned me?" With his crucifixion, Jesus reminds us of his humanity. Somehow, in tandem with his divinity, he still possesses a heart that knows fear and pain. And with this question, he reminds us of that. Let us never doubt that Jesus can relate to us in our brokenness. This is the week that reminds us that our God is a God who knows and understands us. Our God knows what abandonment feels like. He knows what rejection feels like. He knows what it is to keep going when the strength and the will has disappeared. -Tracy Earl Welliver

Receiving the Gifts of the Holy Spirit at Confirmation

What an exciting and inspiring time here at St. Joseph Parish! On Friday, April 1, we were blessed to witness 33 of our teen parishioners receive the sacrament of Confirmation with Bishop Daniel Conlon. It was a wonderful liturgy with the bishop sharing a great message to the Confirmandi (and all of us) to be strong in our faith, by using the Gifts of the Holy Spirit to help us to make the right choices in life, even when they are not easy. Afterward, all were invited to the Parish Hall for a celebratory reception hosted by the gracious and generous women of our CCW (and spouses who helped with cleanup). Congratulations to our Confirmandi, their sponsors and families on this amazing step in their faith journey.

Thank you does not seem adequate to fully express our gratitude to everyone who contributed to Confirmation, making it such a memorable and meaningful celebration. We are truly blessed with so many generous hearts (and hands) in our parish. Whether it was helping the candidates prepare, planning the liturgy, taking part in the Mass as servers, hospitality, choir, Eucharistic Ministers or having a hand in hosting the reception and helping move tables and tidy the hall afterward, the true spirit of Our Parish, Our Family was very much alive and evident. What a blessing each one of you are to our parish!

Bishop Ronald Hicks' Column for April 2022

"Lenten pruning leads to Easter glory"

Recently, I stopped by a big home improvement store. The garden center was bustling with people shopping for flowers and plants. Happily, I sighed and thought, "Ah, spring is in the air!"

One of my favorite images in the Bible is that of the garden. It not only reminds us that we reap what we sow. But also, it all begins in the Garden of Eden with the creation of Adam and Eve and then their eventual fall from grace. Jesus experiences deep prayer, agony and betrayal in the Garden of Gethsemane before his crucifixion. At the resurrection, Mary Magdalene is the first to see the risen Christ, but she does not recognize him, "supposing him to be the gardener" (John 20:15). Throughout Scripture, gardens are a place to encounter the mystery of God. They are places of suffering, death and most importantly, new life.

Saying all this, let me acknowledge that I do not have a naturally green thumb. I admire people who possess that gift. Regardless, I am starting to dabble in some basic gardening.

At the bishop's residence in Joliet where I live, I have made the decision to have some large trees cut down in my backyard. The reason I am having them removed is not because I am "anti-tree." On the contrary, I love trees. However, there are so many in my backyard, that they have created a canopy over the yard through which no sunlight can penetrate. As a result, instead of grass, my backyard is basically a plot of dirt that, when it rains, turns into a muddy mess and at worst a swamp. As we remove a few of the trees, my hope is that the sun may shine through the remaining ones and that grass, flowers and plants may return to sprout, grow and flourish.

Scripturally, Jesus reminds us that gardens need to be pruned so that they may produce fruit: "He prunes it so that it may bear more fruit" (John 15:3). In the Catholic Church, spiritual pruning is not a negative exercise. Instead, it helps our spiritual growth by removing whatever inhibits or prevents us from growing in healthy and holy ways.

Perhaps that is a good way to look at these past 40 days. Lent provides us the time to cut down and prune some things in our lives that prevent God's light from shining on and through us. We do so, specifically during Lent, with our acts of penance, prayer and almsgiving.

Continuing this theme of gardening around my house, late last fall I planted over 50 tulip bulbs around the statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary. After I planted them, I have constantly wondered, "Did the squirrels dig them up and eat them?" "Will they blossom and what color will they be?" "Will the Blessed Mother enjoy them?" Every day, I find myself eagerly awaiting these tulips to colorfully burst through the soil.

This is an act of hope! While I still cannot see the flowers, I eagerly anticipate their arrival. We, too, wait with faith and hope to celebrate the resurrection of our Lord and savior at Easter and boldly proclaim that he is not dead. He is not still in the ground. He is risen!

The lingering question is, "Why do we spend time at garden centers and in our own gardens, planting and caring for flowers and plants?" It is partially because they are tangible signs of beauty, hope and life. As St. Alphonsus Liguori rightly noted, "When we see a beautiful garden, or a beautiful flower, let us think that there we behold a ray of the infinite beauty of God, who has given existence to that object."

As we come to the end of this Lenten time of pruning in our own spiritual gardens, let us approach Easter with great joy and enthusiasm. In other words, with springtime hope, let us continue to search for and bask in the risen life of Christ, for he truly fills our world and lives with light, beauty and new life.+

Awesome Drive-Thru!

People have been raving about the porkchop sandwiches and the speedy service at the Holy Name's fundraiser last Sunday, April 3. Many thanks to these gentlemen and all the volunteers and the people who stopped by for lunch. In the end, the crew sold out of the 147 sandwiches. Proceeds will help purchase additional closers for the doors in our church for easier access.

Family Mass!

Thanks to everyone who helped at Family Mass last Sunday and those who attended the afternoon liturgy. These are such happy celebrations of our faith.
