STEWARDSHIP

“Love is patient, love is kind ...” This Scripture passage isn’t just for newlyweds. First Corinthians wasn’t written for married folks either. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life across the globe. Which means that it is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms. A sense of division—whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else—is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen—especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree—even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window. As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us—even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.” So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read—and remember, love never fails.—Tracy Earl Welliver

Last Sunday's Confirmation session at St. Joseph's

Do you consider yourself to be a disciple? Or are these just figures from the bible that we read about?

The truth is, as baptized sons and daughters of God, we are ALL called to be disciples, to follow Jesus and help others to follow Him as well.

How are we doing with this call?

Last Sunday, our Parish Hall was filled with such followers of Jesus. Our 30-plus Confirmation candidates came together to continue on their path of preparing to become fully initiated into the church. In addition, these teens had a chance to eat, visit, and learn with some actual disciples from their own lives: their Confirmation sponsors. The purpose was to give candidates and sponsors a chance to spend time together, not only to review what it means to be confirmed, so they can continue to work on living as followers of Jesus, but also to foster their relationship with each other as faith partners.

Sponsors were first acknowledged for answering their call as a disciple, even if they may not even realize they are doing it. Being chosen as a sponsor is proof they must be doing something that shows others they are followers of Jesus. In fact, here are a few of the responses written by our candidates on why these men and women were asked to play such an important role, as their Confirmation Sponsors:

She goes to church weekly, I look up to her and want to be like her; I trust him a lot; She's a good role model; He is a perfect example of a follower of Jesus; I wouldn't be very involved with God if I didn't have her; She loves Jesus; He always is by my side; He is a good person; She would be the perfect fit to get me closer to God; He has a good relationship with his church and God; I know she will always be there for me; He teaches me a lot of things; She is strong in her faith. While not necessarily calling themselves disciples, these men and women are obviously being true witnesses of faith.

Just as Confirmation is not an ending or graduation for our candidates, sponsors too, (and all of us) we must continue to work on our faith. As all participants learned from viewing the video, "Chosen-Your Journey Toward Confirmation" (Ascension Press), being a disciple is not easy, along with the graces given with the Gifts of the Holy Spirit, it also takes discipline (see the resemblance in the two words?).

But when we do live out this call, we live the life God intended for us, a life of peace and joy.

Luckily, by forming this new bond as candidate and sponsor, they can help one another grow and deepen their faith for the rest of their lives. The gathering ended with everyone making their own "game plan" on how they can stay connected (attend Mass together, pray for and with each other, share inspiring messages, etc.) before, as well as, long after Confirmation takes place on Friday, April 1.

Please keep these Confirmation candidates, sponsors and families in your prayers as they continue to work and prepare to receive the sacrament of Confirmation and answer that call as disciples.

January Mobile Pantry

We so appreciate the 28 volunteers who braved the cold on Jan. 21 to help with the Mobile Food Pantry. We were able to serve 110 families who came seeking help. There were a few challenges, but our amazing Team knew what to do and jumped into action to get everything done with their usual determination, happy spirit and kindness. Thanks again to our helpers and all who support this ministry!

Area Catholics pray for victims of Abortion

Saturday, Jan. 22, was the 49th anniversary of the Roe v Wade decision, which legalized abortion in this country. To honor the millions of lives lost and to pray for those still affected, over 60 Catholics assembled outside of the Kankakee County Courthouse that afternoon and recited the rosary. Many ages and churches were represented, including parishioners of St. Joseph in Bradley. Thanks to St. John Paul II Parish in Kankakee for organizing this special event.
