EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Before text messaging and social media made us unconditionally reachable, people would do this thing called “stopping by.” They would be passing by a friend’s house, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. “I was just in the neighborhood,” they would say. “Crazy,” you might exclaim. “People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?” Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready. Today’s readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They’re about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things. Most of all, though, they’re about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be? Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God—every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready.—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Jesus is inviting us to take a little time to be with him "Can you not spend an hour with me?"

Eucharistic Adoration is an opportunity for peaceful dialogue with our Lord. You can come with a rosary, a book, a prayer app on your phone or anything you feel comfortable using to help focus your spirit.

We are looking for parishioners to make a small commitment to adoration at our church. Someone needs to always be present with our Lord during exposition as a sign of love and respect and to ensure the safety of the Blessed Sacrament. Please consider this opportunity.

If your situation allows you to offer an hour during the adoration period (Tuesdays, 1 p.m.-6 p.m.), please call Sharon Monty at 815-263-8087, to be placed on the roster. It really is a wonderful way to be close to Jesus. Please make a commitment to adoration. ©LPi

Lunch for the Mission Team!

It was like an assembly line in the Parish Hall Kitchen this past Wednesday as members of St. Joseph's Council of Catholic Women put together sandwiches and prepared lunch for the Mission Team doing work in Pembroke Township.

The Knights of Columbus and Holy Name handled the cost of the meal. Meanwhile, lunch was prepared and delivered to the worksite by CCW ladies. What a great way to connect with and support young members of our parish and the other teens. We'll have more pictures from the week-long experience in the bulletin next weekend.
