EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

My friend's grandmother was famous for giving her children some blunt advice when they left the house: "Eyes straight ahead. Mind your own business." She could not anticipate every scenario they would encounter, but she could distill what she knew about life, safety, and manners into a few words. And long after she was gone, her aging children repeated these words to themselves over and over again. Jesus does the same for us in the Gospels. "Ask the master to send out laborers for his harvest...Eat what is set before you...Know that the Kingdom of God is at hand." He knows us best—knows our strengths, but even more importantly, he knows our weaknesses. He doesn't always have the space to address each of these explicitly in Scripture, but what he can do is distill the truth into a few words for our journey through life.

Fun time at Movie Night!

It was certainly a fun evening last Saturday. We weren't able to have the Movie in the Parking Lot as planned because of the weather, but we had a lot of candy, popcorn and laughs in the parish hall as we enjoyed a family film together in the darkened gym.

Many thanks to Fr. Marcin and all of the Parish Party Planners, especially Marvin and Michelle Meier, Julie Gindy, Margie McCalester, Mike and Kathy Storer and Aliess Bedford for coordinating the gathering, donating items for concessions and helping at the event. We would also be remiss not to mention Al and Pat Knittel for providing the video equipment and screen and Brad Benoit for helping with the sound system.

Thanks to those who attended for a fun evening and to support the goal of the Party Planners to build community and foster friendships at St. Joseph's.
