Student Spotlight

“Thank You, God”

By: Lilly McGlothlin

Grade 7

Thank you, God, for this world.
Thank you for everything unfurled;
From beautiful sunrises to dazzling seas,
To warm sand and oceans' breeze.

But why, I wonder,
Why the lightning and the thunder?
Why the wonderful breezes turn into terrible whirling winds,

Why all the discord and sins?
Why all this good and delight,
Only to turn into fear and fright?
Why does the earth quake and buildings shake?

Well, it all started with a snake.
It all started with an angel fallen,
A demon awake,
Soon hell he would make,
A fiery lake,
In the garden he would wait,
Waiting for Eve to take the bait;
Always his words so slimy and slippery,
Waiting for trickery.

He tricked Eve into trying that fruit-the forbidden
fruit,
And in that moment, sin was absolute.

Then Adam ate,
And for him the sins await.

The moment he took a bite,

He had realization and knowledge with absolute fright.
They hid, but nothing could truly keep them
hidden,
Once they had eaten the fruit forbidden.

They were found
And sin forever bound;
But hope was not lost,
Though there would be cost.
God would send His Son;
The battle against Satan would be won.

God is on our side;
There is no need to hide.
With His perfect blood we will be redeemed,

As said in I Peter 1:19.

Thank you God for loving us so,
With all your grace you show.
We should praise with every part,
From our mind to the deepest part of our heart.
