Helpful to Know

A 2% discount applies to funeral home services and merchandise paid by cash or check at the arrangement conference or in advance through a preneed arrangement. The discount does not apply to cash advance items or payments made by insurance assignment, credit card, debit card, or any other payment method.

If your check is returned unpaid, the discount will be forfeited and the discounted amount added back to your balance. You will also be responsible for applicable returned-check fees and any interest disclosed on your Statement of Funeral Goods and Services Selected, subject to limits permitted by law.

Understanding Your Choices and Funeral Costs

Planning a funeral can feel overwhelming. This general price list covers the services of the funeral home and the merchandise we offer. If you have any questions, please ask your funeral director.

There Are 3 Components To The Cost Of A Funeral Service

- Funeral Service

Merchandise Selected

- Casket
- Burial Vault
- Monument
- Headstone
- Urn

Cash Advances

- Musician

= The “Complete Funeral Cost”

The sum of these three categories make up the total cost of a funeral bill, and it will be broken down on a written Statement of Goods and Services for your review before the arrangements are finalized.

Packages or Individual Selections

Our packages are specially priced to provide greater value than purchasing each included item separately. Removing an item from a package does not reduce the package price or create an additional discount.

However, we will always calculate both options for you. If itemizing your selections results in a lower total, we will automatically use the itemized price. If the itemized total is higher, you will receive the lower package price.

Packages do not include cash advance items or charges from outside providers, except where specifically included in the Pineview Heritage Package.

Payment Options

At Lawrence Brown-Service Funeral Home, it is our privilege to serve every family with compassion, dignity and care. If cost is a concern, please speak openly with us before making your final selections. We will explain your options and help you plan a meaningful service that respects your family's budget.

When Payment Is Due

Payment for selected services and merchandise, along with estimated cash advance items, is requested at the arrangement conference. Services cannot be scheduled until payment has been received for all services and merchandise to be provided, including estimated cash advance items. Pending insurance verification, financing applications or crowdfunding contributions do not satisfy this payment requirement.

Acceptable Forms Of Payment

Cash or Check—A 2% discount applies to funeral-home services and merchandise purchased from Lawrence Brown-Service Funeral Home when paid by cash or check. The discount does not apply to cash advance items.

Credit or Debit Card—We accept major credit and debit cards. We cannot accept a credit or debit card issued in the name of the deceased.

Life Insurance Assignment—We may accept a verifiable, assignable and non-contestable life insurance policy. Insurance assignments are processed through Matthews Funeral Funding and are subject to verification and approval. Some insurance companies require additional time to verify coverage or confirm that an assignment will be honored. Presenting a policy does not secure payment or permit services to be scheduled. Payment through the approved assignment must be received before scheduling. If an assignment cannot be approved or funded in time, another accepted payment method will be required.

Financing—Financing may be available through CareCredit and LendingUSA. Families apply directly with the financing company and are subject to the lender's approval, terms and conditions. Approved financing must provide payment before services can be scheduled. Lawrence Brown-Service Funeral Home does not make credit decisions or extend in-house credit.

Crowdfunding—We offer crowdfunding on our website alongside your loved one's obituary at no additional cost. This allows relatives, friends and others to contribute toward funeral expenses. Services cannot be scheduled until contributions have been received and/or any remaining balance has been paid through another accepted payment method.

Preneed Funeral Contracts—Existing preplanned and prefunded funeral contracts will be reviewed and applied toward the goods and services covered by the contract. Any goods, services, merchandise or cash advance items not covered by the contract will be shown separately and must be paid before services are scheduled.

Questions or Financial Concerns
