BEWONG RIVER RETREAT

Looking for a wedding that feels like you? Bewong River Retreat is the ultimate South Coast hideaway, an award-winning boutique venue set on 160 acres of stunning Australian bushland along the peaceful Bewong River. Just 2.5 hours from Sydney or Canberra and a quick skip to the white sands of Jervis Bay, it's the perfect spot to escape, celebrate and create unforgettable memories with your favourite people.

At Bewong River Retreat you're invited to create your very own "wedstival weekend." With exclusive access for three days and two nights, you can slow down, soak it all in and truly make the space your own.

There's plenty of room to stay and play too. Private spa bungalows for up to 34 guests and space for camping or caravans mean up to 50 of your crew can stay on-site and keep the party going. From intimate elopements and cosy micro weddings to full weekend celebrations, flexible packages (plus winter and small wedding discounts) make it easy to bring your dream day to life.

Want to DIY? You can BYO catering and drinks or go all out with professional styling and onsite prop hire. With their award-winning Wedding Coordinator taking care of planning, setup, on-the-day coordination and even rubbish removal, you can focus on the fun stuff like the dance floor.

Come and explore Bewong River Retreat in person and see why it's the ultimate choose-your-own-adventure wedding venue. Your wedding your way, relaxed, joyful and unforgettable

KIRUNA FARM

Nestled in the rolling hills just outside Milton on the NSW South Coast, Kiruna Farm offers a serene and truly unique setting for intimate weddings. This 100-acre family-run flower farm, created with love and care by owners Anna and Murray, provides a breathtaking backdrop of seasonal blooms, open fields, and rustic countryside charm. It's a place where couples can celebrate surrounded by nature's beauty, creating a warm and personal atmosphere that feels worlds away from the ordinary.

Kiruna Farm is all about sustainability and simplicity. Operating completely off-grid with solar power and rainwater systems, it offers couples the chance to reduce their environmental footprint without sacrificing style or comfort. The farm's on-site flowers can be used for ceremonies and receptions, allowing couples to incorporate fresh, locally grown blooms into every part of their day. Whether you choose to create your own arrangements or work with the farm's floral team, the result is a beautifully cohesive and authentic celebration.

Couples have access to a variety of stunning ceremony locations, including a purpose-built deck overlooking vibrant flower fields and an enchanting aisle set amongst shoulder-high dahlias. With a generous three-day venue hire package, there's plenty of time to set up, celebrate, and soak in every moment without feeling rushed. The package also includes a generous flower allowance to help bring your dream wedding vision to life.

Just ten minutes from the historic village of Milton and close to some of the South Coast's most beautiful beaches, Kiruna Farm offers the perfect balance of convenience and seclusion. For couples seeking a wedding that blends natural beauty, sustainability, and heartfelt hospitality

MOGENDOURA FARM

Nestled between the Moruya River and Mogendoura Creek on the NSW South Coast, Mogendoura Farm offers a tranquil 220-acre setting for couples seeking a relaxed, nature-inspired wedding. Just minutes from Moruya and a short drive from Canberra, this riverside retreat combines rustic charm with modern comforts, making it perfect for intimate ceremonies, micro-weddings and weekend-long celebrations surrounded by loved ones.

At the heart of the property is The Loft, a warm and welcoming event space designed for micro-weddings and special gatherings. Overlooking a tree-lined, grassed Olympic-sized arena, it provides a beautiful and versatile backdrop for both ceremonies and receptions. For a memorable and playful touch, couples can include the Beltie Bar — a repurposed horse float turned mobile bar — adding rustic flair and convenience to the celebration.

Accommodation at Mogendoura Farm includes three self-contained, two-bedroom cottages, each comfortably sleeping up to six guests. These cottages are set apart from the main farmhouse, offering privacy and a peaceful retreat for the wedding party or close family. For larger groups, the farm also welcomes camping, campervan and RV options, so everyone can stay close and truly make a weekend of it.

Beyond the wedding day, Mogendoura Farm invites guests to immerse themselves in the natural beauty of the property. With 2 km of private river frontage, guests can enjoy activities such as bushwalking, kayaking and wildlife spotting, making it easy to turn a wedding celebration into a full countryside escape. With its laid-back atmosphere, scenic surrounds and flexible spaces, Mogendoura Farm is the perfect choice for couples wanting to create a wedding that feels heartfelt, personal and uniquely theirs.
