sSaints Peter and Paul — June 29, 2025

First Reading — Acts 12:1-11: Herod imprisoned Peter to appease the Jews. With the Church praying fervently for Peter, an angel appeared, shining light into his cell. Unchained, Peter followed the angel past guards, through self-opening gates, to freedom.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 34: Bless the Lord always, his praise fills my mouth. Join me in exalting His name. He answers, dispels fears, and fills us with joy. The Lord's angel protects those who fear Him, blessing those who seek refuge.

Second Reading — 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18: I, Paul, see my end near, but I've run my race well, keeping the faith. A crown of righteousness awaits me. The Lord gave me strength, protection, and will guide me to His heavenly Kingdom. Amen.

Gospel — Matthew 16:13-19: Jesus asks His disciples about the people's opinions regarding His identity. Simon Peter declares that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus acknowledges Peter's revelation, affirming that upon him, whom He calls Peter, He will build His Church, and the powers of death will not overcome it. Jesus entrusts Peter with the keys of the Kingdom, granting him authority to bind and loose matters on earth and in heaven.

FORWARD FAITH

"Every gift to the Appeal, no matter the amount, has meaning and purpose." — Cardinal Seán O'Malley

Archdiocese of Boston Catholic Appeal 2025

Thank you to all who have contributed to the Catholic Appeal for each of the parishes this year. The appeal ends on Monday, June 30 (though I think they will provide for a grace period). Our Lady of the Assumption has superseded their goal at 101% and their assessment at 131%, Congratulations! St. Ann by the Sea remains at 61% of both their goal and assessment, let's make an effort to reach our goal with the remaining $9,200. The remainder of the goal that is not raised will have to be made up from our parish general account.

REST IN PEACE...

Remember in your prayers the soul of Anne M. Delozier, pre-deceased by her husband Edward, loving mother, grandmother and friend. Her funeral Mass took place this past week.

*"No eye has seen, nor ear heard,
Nor heart conceived, what the Lord has prepared for those who love Him."*

To live by faith means to put our lives in the hands of God, especially in our most difficult moments.

The Church Offices will be closed Thursday,
July 3-4, in observance of July 4th!

By Dr. Scott Hahn

ST. PAUL CENTER
FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

The Apostles' Church

This Sunday's celebration of the great apostles Peter and Paul is a celebration of the Church. Peter's deliverance from jail is compared to the deliverance of Israel from Egypt. Like Israel he is rescued at Passover from "the hand" of his enemy by an "angel of the Lord" after girding himself with belt, sandals, and cloak (see Ex 3:8; 12:8, 11-12; 14:19).

The Church is, as Peter says, "all that the Jewish people had been expecting." As he affirms in his great confession of faith in Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is "the Christ," the Messiah that the prophets had taught Israel to hope for.

But Christ is more than what the Jewish people had been hoping for.

He is the Christ. But He is also, as Peter confesses, "the Son of the living God." Born of the flesh of the Jewish people, he is a son of Abraham and David (see Mt 1:1; Rm 1:3). Through Him and the Church founded on the rock of Peter's faith, God fulfills the promise he made to Abraham—to bless all nations in his seed (see Gen 22:18).

What Christ calls "my Church," is the new Israel, the kingdom of God, the family made up of all peoples—Jews and Gentiles—who believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the living God (see Gal 3:26-29; 6:16). And we must make this confession our own. Jesus' question, "Who do you say that I am?" is addressed to each of us personally.

We must confess our faith in Christ not only with our tongues, but with our lives. As Paul describes his discipleship in this week's Epistle, we must make our lives an oblation, an offering of love for the sake of Jesus and His kingdom (see Rm 12:1).

We know, as we sing in this week's Psalm, that the Lord has rescued us in Christ Jesus. We know that he will stand by us, giving us strength to face every evil—and that He will bring us to the heavenly kingdom we anticipate in this Eucharist.

Need for Counters

We are looking for some new volunteers to refresh and add to our counting teams that count the collections and prepare the deposits at both parishes.

Some of the dedicated individuals who have been counting, either need to step away, due to new responsibilities in their lives or the need to reduce the frequency of weeks they are able to serve. Saint Ann parish has been counting on Sunday mornings; Our Lady of the Assumption counts on Monday mornings. We would like to add enough people so that one's commitment can be one time a month.

Please consider this important volunteer opportunity. If you are interested or would like to know more about it, please email Steve Strug at account@olamarshfield.org or call him (Tuesdays and Thursdays 10AM to 1PM) at (781) 834-6252.

Sowing Seeds is in need of volunteer drivers to drive clients to essential appointments in the area. Weekdays only. Drive when it's convenient for you. For more information, please call Betty at 781-837-6037, or Sowing Seeds at 781-837-3337.

The Clothing Bank is in need of summer clothing for children and adults. Always needed: new underwear for all ages. The Clothing Bank, located on the corner of Route 139 and School St., is open on Thursday and Saturday from 10am to 12noon to distribute and receive donations.. Thank You !

Collectors

We have a new opportunity at both parishes for more people to assist with the collections. Some of those who have been collecting have asked to step aside from this task or to serve less frequently. Though we regularly see men collecting, both men and women are welcome to volunteer.

Please consider this important volunteer opportunity. If you are interested or would like to know more about it, please email Steve Strug at account@olamarshfield.org or call him (Tuesdays and Thursdays 10AM to 1PM) at (781) 834-6252.
