Hosted by St. Joseph Men's Group

By Dr. Scott Hahn
What We Must Do

We are to love God and our neighbor with all the strength of our being, as the scholar of the Law answers Jesus in this week's Gospel.

This command is nothing remote or mysterious - it's already written in our hearts, in the book of sacred Scripture. "You have only to carry it out," Moses says in this week's First Reading.

Jesus tells His interrogator the same thing: "Do this and you will live."

The scholar, however, wants to know where he can draw the line. That's the motive behind his question: "Who is my neighbor?"

In his compassion, the Samaritan in Jesus' parable reveals the boundless mercy of God - who came down to us when we were fallen in sin, close to dead, unable to pick ourselves up.

Jesus is "the image of the invisible God," this week's Epistle tells us. In Him, the love of God has come very near to us. By the "blood of His Cross" - by bearing His neighbors' sufferings in His own body, being himself stripped and beaten and left for dead - He saved us from bonds of sin, reconciled us to God and to one another.

Like the Samaritan, He pays the price for us, heals the wounds of sin, pours out on us the oil and wine of the sacraments, entrusts us to the care of His Church, until He comes back for us.

Because His love has known no limits, ours cannot either. We are to love as we have been loved, to do for others what He has done for us - joining all things together in His Body, the Church.

We are to love like the singer of this week's Psalm - like those whose prayers have been answered, like those whose lives have been saved, who have known the time of His favor, have seen God in His great mercy turn toward us.

This is the love that leads to eternal life, the love Jesus commands today of the scholar, and of each of us - "Go and do likewise."

The Harvest is Great...

The Weekend of July 5-6, the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear Jesus say to the 72 he commissions to minister, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few.." Even in his time he commissions others in addition to the first 12 Apostles he called to share in his work. Parishes rely on the generosity of their parishioners to share their time and talents in our parishes. One specific way that people have felt called to service is in many aspects of our liturgical celebrations, specifically the Holy Mass, as Altar Servers, Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, and as collectors, music ministers, people who tend to the altar linens, candle shrines and many other areas.

I would like to specifically speak to the commissioned ministries of Lector and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. Our Lady of the Assumption and Saint Ann by the Sea parishes could benefit from additional people who would be interested in assisting at our Masses in these two capacities. The ideal candidate would be the person who has a devotion to the Mass specifically to the Holy Eucharist and Holy Scripture. These services and ministries need to be rooted in a love of sacred liturgy and a life of faith.

If you are a person who, after prayerful consideration, would like to know more about these ministries and to express an interest in serving in this capacity, please contact Fr. Aveni the pastor or Fr. Will the parochial vicar at aveni@olamarshfield.org or sexton@olamarshfield.org or call the office at (781) 834-6252 to arrange for a time to have a conversation with one of them.

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms... be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord.

Need for Counters

We are looking for some new volunteers to refresh and add to our counting teams that count the collections and prepare the deposits at both parishes. Some of the dedicated individuals who have been counting, either need to step away, due to new responsibilities in their lives or the need to reduce the frequency of weeks they are able to serve. Saint Ann parish has been counting on Sunday mornings; Our Lady of the Assumption counts on Monday mornings. We would like to add enough people so that one's commitment can be one time a month.

Please consider this important volunteer opportunity. If you are interested or would like to know more about it, please email Steve Strug at account@olamarshfield.org or call him (Tuesdays and Thursdays 10AM to 1PM at (781) 834-6252.

Journey OF Faith

FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Word & Deed

The mayor of a small town gave a speech about making the city better, one citizen at a time, block by block. A few men in our neighborhood took it seriously and began to clean up litter, tidy up a vacant lot and start a neighborhood watch program. Their motto was, "If you want a better neighborhood, be a better neighbor!" Their efforts were contagious and the neighborhood not only looked better, but it became a better place to live.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan is about loving others as God loves. There are no limits or restrictions. It's just one person—one neighbor—helping another, without regard for nationality, language or religion. We are all members of the same human family, all created by the same loving God. We cannot claim to be people

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

During a summer storm, the power went out at grandmom and pop-pop's house when six grandchildren were having a sleepover. They all huddled in the family room and turned on a small, battery powered candle. Everyone got quiet as thunder rumbled off in the distance. One of the younger kids focused on the little light and said, "Wow! That little candle lights up the whole room. We don't even need the lights anymore!"

Small acts of kindness go a long way in making our world better. They cost nothing, yet make a valuable contribution to developing people's positive attitude and outlook on life. So hold the door for someone. Say hello to a passer-by. Give the paper carrier a tip. Tell your waitress she is doing a great job. Let someone go first in traffic or in line. You will see that little glow of appreciation and pride light up. Everyone will feel better and maybe even pass it on.

Just a little faith can change the world, too. The promise of prayer, a simple 'God bless you' or the willingness to share your belief can change a life. The motto of The Christophers says, "Better to light a candle than curse the darkness." Bring the light of faith, kindness and generosity to your world. Don't underestimate your power to make a difference, one little light at a time.

~James Gaffney

of love if we fail to practice what we claim.

How do we become the Good Samaritan? Try random acts of kindness. Be more patient in traffic—even leaving the church! Give someone a helping hand. Buy someone's lunch—anonously. Send a thank you note. Forgive a debt—or a grudge. Call someone who needs a friend. Pray a little more. Make a good confession. Practice Lent in July. If you want a better Church, or if you want a deeper faith, work to be a better believer!
