St. Ann by the Sea

"The Lord is with you." No matter what you may be facing, God is walking with you. Jesus was human, and he knows what pain and sorrow feel like. He knows what it is like to be let down and judged by the ones we love most. He knows what it is like to be made fun of for doing the right thing. When Mary was nervous about doing the right thing, she put her trust in God. We need to know that no matter what we are dealing with, God is with us.

The Harvest is Great...

The Weekend of July 5-6, the Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, we hear Jesus say to the 72 he commissions to minister, "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few..". Even in his time he commissions others in addition to the first 12 Apostles he called to share in his work. Parishes rely on the generosity of their parishioners to share their time and talents in our parishes. One specific way that people have felt called to service is in many aspects of our liturgical celebrations, specifically the Holy Mass, as Altar Servers, Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, and as collectors, music ministers, people who tend to the altar linens, candle shrines and many other areas.

I would like to specifically speak to the commissioned ministries of Lector and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist. Our Lady of the Assumption and Saint Ann by the Sea parishes could benefit from additional people who would be interested in assisting at our Masses in these two capacities. The ideal candidate would be the person who has a devotion to the Mass specifically to the Holy Eucharist and Holy Scripture. These services and ministries need to be rooted in a love of sacred liturgy and a life of faith.

If you are a person who, after prayerful consideration, would like to know more about these ministries and to express an interest in serving in this capacity, please contact Fr. Aveni the pastor or Fr. Will the parochial vicar at aveni@olamarshfield.org or sexton@olamarshfield.org or call the office at (781) 834-6252 to arrange for a time to have a conversation with one of them.

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms... be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord.

Parking at Saint Ann

We have been asked by our neighbors to be mindful of where we park while at Mass, particularly on Foster Ave, where some are parking on the wrong side of the road going against traffic, on Ocean St. in front of the church (State Highway) and on Sakonnet street beside the church. There are plenty of parking spaces in our parking lots.

Neighbors will begin calling the police if we don't respect our neighbor's property and safety.

Modesty is the guardian of purity.

Saints Joachim and Anne

1ST CENTURY
FEAST DAY: JULY 26

Not mentioned in the Bible, Joachim and Anne are first named as the parents of Mary in the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James, which may date from the second century. In this story, they are old and childless, like the Old Testament Hannah, mother of Samuel, when angels deliver the news that Anne will conceive a child. Anne was an especially popular saint in medieval England, and her feast was celebrated in the West by 1350; Joachim's feast was authorized or suppressed by various popes, but was joined with Anne's in 1969. They are the patrons of married couples; Anne is also the patron of childless women, expectant mothers, and miners.

"Mary grew up in the home of Joachim and Anne; she was surrounded by their love and faith: in their home she learned to listen to the Lord and to follow his will. Saints Joachim and Anne were part of a long chain of people who had transmitted their faith and love for God, expressed in the warmth and love of family life, down to Mary, who received the Son of God in her womb and who gave him to the world, to us. How precious is the family as the privileged place for transmitting the faith!"

Journey OF Faith

SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Word & Deed

When we are learning something new, it's often the case that we learn better when we take things slowly so that we see how things work or how we handle them. For example, driving, playing a sport or doing artwork requires us to master basic skills before we go on to more complex ones. It's the fundamentals that are important to build on. They become the foundation of creative expression as well as mastery of technique.

During His public ministry, Jesus spends time in prayer and solitude and teaches His disciples the fundamentals of a relationship with the Father. Love, mercy, compassion, forgiveness and healing are all hallmarks of God's relationship with His people. The Apostles want the loving and personal relationship with God that Jesus has. Jesus

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

Kids naturally want to do things for themselves and so will often ask mom or dad to “show me how” to do things, from tying their shoes to driving a car. We teach kids how to play games, how to read, how to ride a bike and how to clean their room. But the best teaching does not come by way of explanation, but by example. Kids mimic what they see and hear their parents do. And they learn those lessons so well. Ever hear a three-year-old use some interesting language? Some lessons are taught, and others are caught!

There are many ways that we teach. We mentor, instruct, direct, demonstrate, explain and assist. But when it comes to faith, the most important of all is witness. The best lessons we teach are the ones that we practice as we preach! Good example is the most powerful tool. If I want my children to be truthful, I cannot lie, even little ‘white lies.’ If I want them to be honest, I cannot cheat. If I want them to be holy, I must have my own relationship with the Lord and be genuine in my beliefs. I have to pray, receive the sacraments and participate in my parish. We teach kids to do so many things so well; let’s include our faith. Make your life the best answer to the unspoken request: Show me!

teaches them how to pray. It is not just the recitation of words, but an offering of praise, an acknowledgement of love and a request for the things we need.

It’s easy to recite the Our Father from memory and fail to pay attention to the words. They’ve become so familiar and so routine that we can skim through them and complete the prayer, yet miss its meaning. Slow down. Listen to the words and pray them carefully. The Lord will teach you once again how to pray.
