Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 95: We are called to worship joyfully, remember God as our creator and shepherd, and keep our hearts open, recalling the lessons from Meribah and Massah.

Second Reading — 2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14: Reignite the divine gift within you, embracing God's spirit of power, love, and discipline, and steadfastly proclaim your faith, guided and protected by the Holy Spirit.

Gospel — Luke 17:5-10: Jesus teaches that even a small amount of faith can achieve great things and compares this to a servant's duty, emphasizing that fulfilling obligations is simply doing what is expected.

Thank You Fr. Will Sexton

Time has definitely flown by since we announced Fr. Will's appointment as pastor of Saint Nicholas Parish in Shirley and Ayer. I am excited about his appointment, with a similar sentiment to an older brother, when his younger brother gets a new job and moves out on his own, I also am melancholy about Fr. Will moving on.

I am filled with gratitude for the ministry Fr. Will has shared here in Marshfield in a pivotal moment in the history of these two parishes, which has been instrumental in forming the Our Lady of the Assumption and Saint Ann Collaborative. A second set of eyes and another's perspective, when we are open to it, can shed a brilliant light on what we cannot see on our own. Fr. Will's fresh and new perspective has been generously shared with me and with our parishes. I have been blessed in my twenty-seven years of priesthood to be assigned with some of the finest priests I have encountered, and Fr. Will is no exception. Our parish collaborative has benefitted from his piety, fraternal spirit, love for God and His Church (particularly his reverence for the Eucharist), and innovative nature.

With thanksgiving to God for his ministry, we send Fr. Will to serve the good people of Shirley and Ayer in the Apple Valley, we do so with excitement and enthusiasm for what lies ahead for Fr. Will. Our parishes will be forever affected by his presence with us, and I can say without hesitation that I am a better priest in 2025 because of Fr. Will's ministry and fraternity in my life.

Thank you, Fr. Will and may God continue to bless you and work through you for the people of God.

"The Lord is with you." No matter what you may be facing, God is walking with you. Jesus was human, and he knows what pain and sorrow feel like. He knows what it is like to be let down and judged by the ones we love most. He knows what it is like to be made fun of for doing the right thing. When Mary was nervous about doing the right thing, she put her trust in God. We need to know that no matter what we are dealing with, God is with us.

ST. PAUL CENTER
FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By Dr. Scott Hahn

Because of his faith, the just man shall live. We hear in today's First Reading the original prophetic line made so central by St. Paul (see Romans 1:17; Galatians 3:11; Hebrews 10:38).

We are to live by faith in Christ who loved us and gave himself on the Cross for us (see Galatians 2:20).

The world, though, can seem to us as seventh-century Judah seemed to Habakkuk - in the control of God's enemies. The strife and discord we face in our own lives can sometimes cause us to wonder, as the prophet does, why God doesn't seem to hear or intervene when we cry for help.

We can't let our hearts be hardened by the trials we undergo. As today's Psalm reminds us: Israel forgot His mighty works, lost faith in the sound words of His promise. They tested God in the desert, demanding a sign.

But God didn't redeem Israel from Egypt only to let them die in the desert. And He didn't ransom us from futility only to abandon us in our trials. He is our God and we are the people He shepherds always - though at times His mercy and justice seem long delayed.

If we call on the Lord, as the Apostles do in today's Gospel, He will increase our faith, will stir to a flame the Holy Spirit who has dwelt within us since Baptism.

As Paul tells us in today's Epistle, the Lord will always give us the love and self-control we need to bear our share of hardship for the Gospel - with a strength that can come from God alone.

Our task is to continue doing what He has commanded - to love and to build up His kingdom - trusting that His vision still presses on to its fulfillment.

For His vision still has its time. One day, though we are but "unprofitable servants," we will be invited to eat and drink at our Master's table. It is that day we anticipate with each celebration of the Eucharist.

Are you interested in inquiring more about or joining us in the Catholic Church? “Come and See!”

“The next day John was there again with two of his disciples, and as he watched Jesus walk by, he said, “Behold, the Lamb of God.” <http://www.usccb.org/bible/john/1> The two disciples heard what he said and followed Jesus. Jesus turned and saw them following him and said to them, “What are you looking for?” They said to him, “Rabbi” (which translated means Teacher), “where are you staying?” He said to them, “Come, and you will see.” So, they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about four in the afternoon. Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. He first found his own brother Simon and told him, “We have found the Messiah” (which is translated Anointed). Then he brought him to Jesus.” John 1:35-42

In John’s Gospel above, the first disciples ask him, ‘where do you stay?’ Jesus invites them to “come and see.” After meeting Jesus, Andrew goes home and tells his brother Simon about Jesus and brought him to Jesus. Like Simon, we are more likely to respond to someone in our life asking us or inviting us to become involved or join them in an activity or group or at times we may ask “how we could be a part of this. Our Happiness and commitment to our faith life, is the strongest witness and example to those outside of the faith, or friends and family who have chosen to step away from the faith.

Whether through marriage, or by the example of people they know, perhaps after attending a wedding, baptism or funeral of a friend, or just by driving by a full parking lot on a weekend, men and women come to express interest about the Roman Catholic faith. Nurturing that initial curiosity, has led many to pursue instruction and ultimately answer God’s call to holiness and initiation into the Roman Catholic faith.

- If you know of someone who has asked you about the Catholic Faith, or has asked how to become a part of the church
- If you yourself have been thinking of learning more about the Catholic Church with the desire of joining us in the church, or
- If you have been baptized in the Catholic Church though have not received First Communion and Confirmation

The program of instruction for adults interested to learn more and ultimately join us in the Catholic Church is called The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA). Our program will begin Early November to prepare for the Sacraments of Initiation to be celebrated at the Easter Vigil on April 5, 2026.

“Come and see” or invite someone who wants to learn more about initiation into the Roman Catholic Church at an informational meeting on Tuesday, October 7 at 6:30 PM at Sant Ann Rectory. You may also call the parish office or email Catherine Rein at rein@olamarshfield.org with additional questions.
