Returning Thanks

ST. PAUL CENTER
FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

A foreign leper is cleansed and in thanksgiving returns to offer homage to the God of Israel. We hear this same story in both the First Reading and Gospel today.

There were many lepers in Israel in Elisha's time, but only Naaman the Syrian trusted in God's Word and was cleansed (see Luke 5:12-14). Today's Gospel likewise implies that most of the 10 lepers healed by Jesus were Israelites - but only a foreigner, the Samaritan, returned.

In a dramatic way, we're being shown today how faith has been made the way to salvation, the road by which all nations will join themselves to the Lord, becoming His servants, gathered with the Israelites into one chosen people of God, the Church (see Isaiah 56:3-8).

Today's Psalm also looks forward to the day when all peoples will see what Naaman sees - that there is no God in all the earth except the God of Israel.

We see this day arriving in today's Gospel. The Samaritan leper is the only person in the New Testament who personally thanks Jesus. The Greek word used to describe his "giving thanks" is the word we translate as "Eucharist."

And these lepers today reveal to us the inner dimensions of the Eucharist and sacramental life.

We, too have been healed by our faith in Jesus. As Naaman's flesh is made again like that of a little child, our souls have been cleansed of sin in the waters of Baptism. We experience this cleansing again and again in the Sacrament of Penance - as we repent our sins, beg and receive mercy from our Master, Jesus.

We return to glorify God in each Mass, to offer ourselves in sacrifice - falling on our knees before our Lord, giving thanks for our salvation.

In this Eucharist, we remember "Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David," Israel's covenant king. And we pray, as Paul does in today's Epistle, to persevere in this faith - that we too may live and reign with Him in eternal glory.

To live by faith means to put our lives in the hands of God, especially in our most difficult moments.

The 19th Annotation of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

An invitation to Meet Christ in Prayer, arranged by Fr. John Sassani & Mary Ann McLaughlin is being offered in a group seeing for Catholic adults. The number of participants will be limited.

These Spiritual Exercises extend over the course of twenty three weeks and are loosely aligned with the liturgical year. The group will use the ZOOM format to meet weekly, on line, from 10am to 12noon starting on Wednesday, November 19, 2025 through Wednesday May22, 2026.

Mary Ann McLaughlin and Deacon Dan Burns will direct the Spiritual Exercises. For further information please call Mary Ann at 617-686-2287 or email: maryannmclauhlin2@aol.com.

Pay Attention. You may have what you want. We often forget to sit down and think about where we started and where we are now. The human tendency is to always want more. A better approach is to remember where you started and appreciate how much you have accomplished.

"Whose prayer can you be the answer to today?"

Prayer Intentions

Do you or someone you know need prayers? There are two ways to have prayers said for you or a loved one. Here at the Collaborative of St. Ann by the Sea and Our Lady of the Assumption prayers can be offered at Mass as an intention for the person needing prayers. Every time the priest celebrates the Holy Mass, they offer it for an intention. You can schedule intentions by calling the parish office at 781-834-6252.

We also have a team of prayer warriors that will pray for you or your loved ones. Please visit our website at: <https://www.osvhub.com/olamarshfield/forms/prayer-request>.

Complete the form and submit it and our prayer warriors will be praying for you!

There is a misconception that only certain people are called or gifted to be intercessory prayer warriors. There are people in our churches and our lives who seem to have that special intimate connection with God. They are relentless when it comes to praying for others. The truth is we are all called to pray for others. Praying for others is not a choice; it is our privilege.

If you would like to join the prayer warriors, please contact Pam Hulme at: pamhulme@hotmail.com

Prayer Shawl Ministry: A group gathers at St. Ann Parish Hall on the 2nd Saturday of the month from 10-11am. New members are most welcome to join them. Contact Judy Hill 781-837-5139 for more details.

Journey OF Faith

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Word & Deed

There are words in English that can motivate people to greatness, encourage others to give, inspire heroic deeds and satisfy the need for recognition and support. They touch the core of our being and connect us to each other in unique and powerful ways. They give us strength, determination and a sense of worth. One such word is love. Another is thanks.

After Jesus heals the lepers, only one returns to give thanks. Jesus expresses His surprise and His disappointment. He is not looking for personal accolades, but sees the lack of gratitude as a lack of faith. No one gives God thanks, but the foreigner. And his thanks—his faith—is his salvation. Our thanks is the one thing we can give back to God.

The word Eucharist means to give thanks. We offer the sacrifice of the Mass in your faith has saved you."*

If it is unexpressed, it is plain, old-fashioned ingratitude. * Robert Brault”

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

The junior year religion teacher asked her class to do an experiment. Within a week, the students were to say 'thank you' at least 8 times a day and it had to be genuine. They were told to focus on how their thanks changed others—family members, friends and even strangers. Little did they anticipate that it would really change them. Almost to a person, they reported feeling more appreciative of others, realizing how fortunate they were, how kind other people could be, and how much they were motivated to do nice things for others. Giving thanks made them better people.

The word Eucharist means to give thanks and we claim to be a Eucharistic people. Not only do we receive the Body of Christ, and we are the Body of Christ, but we also should do what we say we are—give thanks. By doing so, we are changed. We become more aware of the Presence of God in our lives, the graces and blessings He offers us, and the ways in which we can express our faith by the way we live, act and speak. If giving thanks makes people better, Eucharistic thanks can make people holier. Isn't that our goal? We want to be one with God, satisfied in our hunger for the spiritual, the holy, and the sacred. Let us do what we are meant to do, and be who we claim to be. Pray, believe, and act as Jesus taught. But most of all, let us give thanks.

—James Gaffney

Therefore,

I bear with everything
for the sake of
those who are chosen,
so that they too
may obtain the salvation that is in

Christ Jesus,
together with eternal glory.

2 Timothy 2:10

The Eucharist is not something static.

THE GIFT BECOMES THE OBLIGATION.

THE EUCHARIST IS SOMETHING DYNAMIC,
A LIFE THAT DEMANDS TO BE LIVED.

WE RECEIVE CHRIST FOR A PURPOSE,
NOT TO KEEP HIM FOR OURSELVES
BUT TO GIVE HIM TO OTHERS
SO THAT THEY MAY RECOGNIZE HIM IN US.

• GODFREY DIEKMANN •

thanksgiving for life, for salvation, for grace, for Jesus and for each other. We offer thanks when we share the Gospel, when we live our faith, and when we take care of one another. Our thanks is expressed in the words and deeds that bring hope and help to those who are most in need. When we offer thanks, we lose nothing, but gain every good thing that God offers freely to us: His grace, peace and love. For this, and so much more, we give thanks.
