Hope From on High

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

The Lord is our guardian, beside us at our right hand, interceding for us in all our spiritual battles.

In today's Psalm we're told to lift our eyes to the mountains, that our help will come from Mount Zion and the Temple - the dwelling of the Lord who made heaven and earth

Joshua and the Israelites, in today's First Reading, are also told to look to the hilltops. They are to find their help there - through the intercession of Moses - as they defend themselves against their mortal foes, the Amalekites.

Notice the image: Aaron and Hur standing on each side of Moses, holding his weary arms so that he can raise the staff of God above his head. Moses is being shown here as a figure of Jesus, who also climbed a hilltop, and on Mount Calvary stretched out His hands between heaven and earth to intercede for us against the final enemy - sin and death (see 1 Corinthians 15:26).

By the staff of God, Moses bested Israel's enemies (see Exodus 7:8-12; 8:1-2), parted the Red Sea (see Exodus 14:16) and brought water from the Rock (see Exodus 17:6).

The Cross of Jesus is the new staff of God, bringing about a new liberation from sin, bringing forth living waters from the body of Christ, the new Temple of God (see John 2:19-21; 7:37-39; 19:34; 1 Corinthians 10:4).

Like the Israelites and the widow in today's Gospel, we face opposition and injustice - at times from godless and pitiless adversaries.

We, too, must lift our eyes to the mountains - to Calvary and the God who will guard us from all evil.

We must pray always and not be wearied by our trials, Jesus tells us today. As Paul exhorts in today's Epistle, we need to remain faithful, to turn to the inspired Scriptures - given by God to train us in righteousness.

We must persist, so that when the Son of Man comes again in kingly power, He will indeed find faith on earth.

Remembering our Beloved Dead

The Church sets aside the month of November to remember and pray for all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith: family, friends, neighbors and people we do not know. The Parishes of Our Lady of the Assumption and Saint Ann will commemorate our beloved dead throughout the month of November. The solemn celebration of All Saints (not an obligation this year as it is on a Saturday) Mass will be celebrated; Saturday, November 1, at 8:00 AM at OLA, the 4 PM Mass on Saturday is the anticipated Sunday Mass for All Souls. The Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed (all souls) will be celebrated in place of the Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary time

Throughout the month of November, we continually pray (at every Mass in November for the deceased whose names are written in the Book of Remembrance at both parishes and those submitted through the All-Souls Envelopes at both parishes. The Books of Remembrance will be accessible in each church to anyone who would like to include the names of loved ones in the liturgies throughout the month of November. Our Masses of Remembrance for those whose funerals were celebrated at our parishes in the past year will be celebrated on Saturday November 1; 4:00 PM at Saint Ann by the Sea and Sunday November 2, 2025, at 10:30 AM Our Lady of the Assumption.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and may the perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

SMALL GROUPS MEETING- Oct. 25th, OLA

Prayer Intentions

Do you or someone you know need prayers? There are two ways to have prayers said for you or a loved one. Here at the Collaborative of St. Ann by the Sea and Our Lady of the Assumption prayers can be offered at Mass as an intention for the person needing prayers. Every time the priest celebrates the Holy Mass, they offer it for an intention. You can schedule intentions by calling the parish office at 781-834-6252.

We also have a team of prayer warriors that will pray for you or your loved ones. Please visit our website at: <https://www.osvhub.com/olamarshfield/forms/prayer-request>. Complete the form and submit it and our prayer warriors will be praying for you!

There is a misconception that only certain people are called or gifted to be intercessory prayer warriors. There are people in our churches and our lives who seem to have that special intimate connection with God. They are relentless when it comes to praying for others. The truth is we are all called to pray for others. Praying for others is not a choice; it is our privilege.

If you would like to join the prayer warriors, please contact Pam Hulme at: pamhulme@hotmail.com

Journey OF Faith

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Word & Deed

The secretary at our school is a computer wizard, explaining the inner workings of word processors, spreadsheets and accounting programs to the confused and the lost! When asked how she knew so much, she said that she always read the directions and all the information she could find online. Even though she knew the programs, she was always reviewing, learning something new or discovering a new way of using the computer to make her job better.

As the early Church community was growing, St. Paul reminds Timothy that the Scriptures are the source of wisdom. They lead us to faith in Jesus and to salvation. They are the directions of faith that teach us the ways of God. Follow Him and He will lead us to the life of Heaven. In word and deed, all the baptized are called to preach the Gospel, teaching the truth of the Gospel

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

*I*t is the middle of October. People are amazed that summer is over, we're half way through fall, and winter is not that far off. Time flies! The good intentions of a new school year, of cleaning out the basement, or re-painting a room in the house have lost their enthusiasm and appeal. Even the spiritual things we planned on doing—volunteering at church, attending adult education classes, or praying more regularly get lost in the rush of day to day living. We've settled into our routines, yet there are still some things we want to do. Many of us have our lists and wishes. But how do we slow time down long enough to accomplish them all? The answer is pretty simple: just do it.

There is so much clutter in our lives, meaningless junk that saps our energy, robs our time, and distracts us from the things that are more important. Identify those things that are important, eliminate those things which are not, and you'll accomplish so much more.

Make a list and re-set your priorities. Turn off the TV. Limit computer time. Stop the multiple trips to the store, the texting, gossiping on the phone, and mindlessly hanging out at the mall, or playing video games. Pick something on your important things list and do it. Study, clean, paint, pray, read, attend, write, or learn. Do the things that make us better, holier, kinder, more understanding, more knowledgeable, more patient, and more prayerful. Exercise the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and they will become stronger, more powerful in your life. There's time for everything that is important in your life. Make sure they are important enough for you to do.

-James Gaffney

Spirituality without a prayer life is no spirituality at all, and it will not last beyond the first defeats. Prayer is an opening of the self so that the Word of God can break in and make us new. Prayer unmasks. Prayer converts. Prayer impels. Prayer sustains us on the way. Pray for the grace it will take to continue what you would like to quit. - Joan Chittister as we support and help one another. That's what it means to be a member of the community of faith.

We all need a refresher course in faith from time to time. Reviewing the basics, learning more about Scripture, deepening our understanding of the sacraments or discovering something about our history can renew our sense of connection, our dedication to our mission and an appreciation of who we are as a community of faith. There is always something new to learn, or something to remember, or a new level of understanding to achieve that will help us explain, defend or grow our faith. Sometimes it just pays to read—and reread—the directions!
