ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Why commemorate a church dedication that happened in fourth-century Rome?

First, because St. John Lateran is no ordinary church—it's the cathedral church of the Pope and still known as "the mother of all the world's churches."

But more than that, because God has from all time intended the church building to be a symbol of His Church and our bodies. This is what the readings for today's feast invite us to consider.

God's prototype for the church is the Jerusalem Temple, described in this week's First Reading and Psalm. It's God's "holy dwelling," site of His presence in our midst, source of "living waters"—of all life and blessing. But God intended the Temple to give way to the Body of Christ. That's what our Lord's words and actions in Sunday's Gospel are intended to dramatize. Christ's Body is now the dwelling of God's "glory" among us (see John 1:14).

It's the new source of living waters (John 4:10,14; 7:37-39; 19:34), the living bread (John 6:51), the new sanctuary where people will worship in Spirit and truth (John 4:21,23). By Baptism, we are joined to His Body in the Church (see 1 Corinthians 12:13). Sunday's Epistle says the Spirit of God comes to dwell in us and makes us "God's building...the temple of God" (see also 1 Corinthians 6:9).

Jesus drove out the sellers of oxen, sheep and doves, signaling an end to the animal sacrifices that formed the worship of the old Temple. In the spiritual worship of the new Temple, we offer our bodies—our whole beings—as a living sacrifice (see Romans 12:1). Like living stones (see 1 Peter 2:5) built on the cornerstone of Christ (see Mark 12:10; Acts 4:11), together we are called to build up the new Temple of God, the Church.

As the Jerusalem Temple was, so the Church will always be under construction—until at last it is perfected in the new Jerusalem, our mother Church, come down from heaven (see Revelation 21:3,10,22; 22:1; Galatians 4:26).

Remembering our Beloved Dead

Throughout the month of November, we continually pray (at every Mass in November) for the deceased whose names are written in the Book of Remembrance at both parishes and those submitted through the All-Souls Envelopes at both parishes. The Books of Remembrance will be accessible in each church to anyone who would like to include the names of loved ones in the liturgies throughout the month of November.

Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and may the perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

We Remember...

The 10:30 Mass on Sunday, November 16th, at Assumption Church will be celebrated in memory of our children who have gone home to God too early. We also remember our families living with the pain of the loss of a child. We will not forget them, especially those children who were members of our parishes.

We invite the families to write your child's (children) name in our Book of Remembrance, near the altar at OLA. Please join us in prayer as we remember our children and support our families.

Reception following the Mass
in the parish Hall ~

Deacon Walter and future deacons

Can you believe it was two years in September that Deacon Walter was ordained to the diaconate and assigned to serve in our collaborative? We are truly blessed to have his ministry at our Masses and baptisms and in the devotional life of our collaborative. As we have heard in his vocational story and in his homilies, his discernment for the diaconate was born from his volunteer ministry especially at the Plymouth County House of Corrections, where he continues to serve as a deacon.

Since the beginning of the year, Deacon Walter has continued to discern God's call in his life, especially in the area of his career. After working in computer technology sales for the past 20+ years, Deacon Walter has responded to an opportunity to accept a position as Chaplain at the Old Colony Correctional Center in Bridgewater. I am personally happy for Deacon Walter and this new ministry opportunity in his life. Though this does not affect his assignment as deacon serving our collaborative, it will change his presence in our parishes, especially on Sundays and some weekdays at the weekday Mass. As he settles into his new career, he will be able to better determine the effects of his ministry to our parishes. Please pray for Deacon Walter as he responds to God's call to serve the inmates at Old Colony.

With the example of the late Deacon John Hulme and Deacon Walter, other men in our collaborative have begun discerning a vocation to the diaconate. I am happy to announce that David Tonaszuck, a parishioner of Our Lady of the Assumption is currently in his third year of formation in the permanent diaconate program for the Archdiocese of Boston. David and his wife Anne have three adult children and have been active in lay ministry in our parish and other parishes and catholic ministries in the archdiocese for many years. Over the next two years, David expects to be formally admitted to candidacy, and installed as a Lecter and Acolyte as preparation for his ordination in the fall of 2027. More to come as it unfolds. Please pray for David as he continues in his formation.

I have recently been approached by other men inquiring about diaconal ministry and look forward to engaging in conversations with them. If you feel you have a call to religious life, priesthood or permanent diaconate, please contact me to discuss it further. The Holy Spirit is alive and active in our parishes, and we are grateful to the men who have served in the diaconate who witness to their faith and joy in ministry.

Pastoral and Finance Council News

Collaborative Pastoral Council

The Pastoral Council of a collaborative or parish serves as a leadership advisory council to the pastor in matters concerning pastoral life, such as liturgical scheduling, parish programming and parish life. A pastor is required to form a pastoral council, and they are required to meet on a regular basis. As an advisory council they represent the larger body of both parishes. The guidelines of Archdiocese state that a council serves a particular pastor and when his term ends so does the council. Nominated/elected members are to serve a three-year term, the pastor can also appoint additional members who have specific skills or to fully represent the parish population.

Both parishes have been blessed to have dedicated parishioners who have generously given their time and talent to the pastoral council. The council is co-chaired by Jack Hanratty and Melinda Campbell. As I began as pastor, I asked the existing councils of the two separate parishes to continue as members for the first two years, forming the collaborative council. In the second year we reintroduced the three-year terms with two of members finishing their term each year. Over the past two years, Susan Galvin, Peg Scollins, Pam Hulme, Bob Counihan, and Beau Stebbins completed their terms, and Ed Neary and Casey Rein at my request switched to serve on Saint Ann by the Sea Finance Council. In the past two years we have welcomed new members Melinda Campbell, Todd Robinson, Maureen Bradley, Jane Clougherty, Jim Ellis, and Dan Hubbard.

Parish Finance Councils

Unlike the pastoral council, because we are two autonomous parishes with separate finances each parish is required to have a finance council. These councils meet both separately and jointly throughout the year. As the pastoral council advises me on things pastoral the finance council advises me on the finances of the parishes. They review and approve income and expenses, they pre-approve and advise me on large expenses such as property repairs and projects, hiring of employees, salary increases, and major purchases, and approve the annual budget.

There have been several changes in the Saint Ann Finance Council since I began, and currently I am preparing to name a chairperson. I am happy to welcome Ed Neary and Casey Rein to the Saint Ann Finance Council. Bill Last, the chair the OLA Finance Council is stepping down as chair after more than 20 years. I am personally grateful for Bill's dedicated years of service to the parish and for his council and friendship since my first term at OLA. I am happy that Bill will continue to remain an active member of OLA finance council. I have subsequently invited Bill Bowers to serve as the next Chair of the OLA Finance Council, and he has graciously accepted. Bill has been a member of the finance council for over 10 years.

Gifts for the Needy

Our Lady of the Assumption and St. Ann's will participate once again this year. (The Giving Tree) In collaboration with St. Christine's, we have helped over one hundred needy families in Marshfield each year at Christmas.

This year we are asking our parishioners to purchase gift cards to various stores in order to provide funds for families to purchase toys, clothing, etc. for Christmas giving. Gift cards may be purchased from Kohl's, Stop & Shop, Roche Brothers, Star Market, Walmart, Target, Ocean State, Dollar Tree, Amazon, Marshall's and CVS. Cash may also be donated.

Your donations may be brought to the parish office during office hours, mailed to 40 Canal St. or deposited in the boxes at each church entrance. Our collection will begin Nov. 22 and all donations are due by Dec. 7. Please watch for the posters in each church!
