Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading — Isaiah 8:23-9:3: God transformed the fortunes of Zebulun and Naphtali, bringing light to their darkness, joy like a harvest, and breaking the bonds of oppression, reminiscent of Midian's defeat.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 27: The Lord is my light, salvation, and stronghold, eliminating all fear. I desire to dwell in His presence forever, confidently expecting to see His goodness in my life.

Second Reading — 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17: I urge unity and no divisions among you, to avoid factions that claim allegiance to different leaders. Christ alone should be our focus, not human leaders.

Gospel — Matthew 4:12-23: Jesus retreated to Galilee, fulfilling Isaiah's prophecy by bringing light to a darkened region. He began preaching repentance and assembled his first disciples, starting his ministry of teaching, proclaiming, and healing.

*Christ brings light

Special Collection this weekend...

Church in Latin America (1/25/26) This collection supports the Church in Latin America. The CLA provides support for pastoral projects in financially poorer dioceses in Latin America and the Caribbean. CLA funds catechetical and lay leadership programs, youth ministry, evangelization programs, and formation programs for religious, priests, and deacons. CLA is making it possible for the Catholic faithful in the Western hemisphere to help each other. Please visit www.usccb.org/catholicgiving/opportunities-for-giving/latinamerica/index.cfm

Please help if you are able., please deposit your envelope marked Latin America in the regular collection.

A writing student once made the observation that, once she learned some basic rules of grammar, she paid a lot more attention not only to the way she wrote, but also to the way she spoke. Having learned the correct way to use certain words, she could not return to her bad habits and mistakes. Her newfound knowledge changed her language forever.

Jesus preaches a new message of God's love and mercy. Once people hear it, they must make a choice to either accept or reject it. Either way, they are changed forever. God's love seeks them out, manifesting itself in words and actions, in people and events, and in their innermost thoughts and feelings. All listeners are called to reform their lives and build the Kingdom of God.

Our desire to live the Gospel can be overwhelmed by other influences. The daily grind of living, the comfort of material possessions, and our sincere wish to be liked by others can draw us away from the difficult choices that we know we need to make. Being honest and true to our mission always includes sacrifice. But it is the way to life and truth and grace.
