1st Sunday of Lent

Year A

First Reading: Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7: God formed man and placed him in Eden. The serpent deceived the woman into eating the forbidden fruit. She and her husband ate it and realized they were naked.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 51: Lord, have mercy and cleanse us from our sins. Create a clean heart and renew our spirits. Restore our joy and open our lips to praise you.

Second Reading: Romans 5:12-19: One man's sin brought death to all, but God's grace through Jesus brings life and righteousness to many. Christ's obedience will make many righteous.

Gospel: Matthew 4:1-11: Jesus was tempted by the devil after fasting in the desert. He resisted, quoting Scripture each time. Afterward, the devil left, and angels cared for him.

This weekends special collection is in Support of the Church around the World in those underdeveloped areas of the world. Catholic Relief Services, the Church in Africa and in Central and Eastern Europe and three important national Catholic missions: The Military archdiocese, Home Missions, and the Black and Indian Missions. Please help if you are able.

REST IN PEACE...

Remember in your prayers the soul of Patrick F. Delcourt, whose funeral Mass took place this past week.

Remember the soul of Neal Doherty, beloved husband and father, whose funeral Mass took place last week.

*"No eye has seen, nor ear heard,
Nor heart conceived, what the Lord has prepared for those who love Him."*

Contribution statements are available upon request, please call the church office if you would like a copy! Thank you..

Your daily labors, though maybe unnoticed and often unseen, still bear much fruit in the body of Christ!

In Matthew 6 Jesus tells us, "Be careful! When you do good things, don't do them in front of people to be seen by them. If you do that, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven... Your giving should be done in secret. Your Father can see what is done in secret, and he will reward you." (Verses 1 & 4)

On this first Sunday of Lent, we want to encourage you, "Be stout of heart and take courage, all you who hope in the Lord." (Psalm 31:24)

1st Sunday of Lent

In the Little League World Series, Georgia played Japan. After extra innings, Georgia won on a home run. The Japanese team was devastated after coming so close to winning. The remarkable thing to watch was the Georgia team, after high-fiving and hugging each other, ran onto the field and embraced and comforted their opponents. Language barriers pushed aside, their gestures, smiles and assurances showed true sportsmanship and friendship.

Lent is our time to be renewed in our practice of the faith. We must strive to go beyond the dictates of the politically correct and reach past our own comfort zone. It is not about enduring a penance for Lent, but allowing others to experience the goodness of God that we carry in our hearts. So, if you want to live in a better community, be a better neighbor. If you want a better world, be more peaceful. If you want to eliminate hunger and poverty and want, share your treasure and your table. Then you can be the light and the salt that makes the world not only a better place, but also a place for God.

~James Gaffney © Pilot Bulletins

Together We Are One

Once a year, Catholics throughout the Archdiocese are asked to support the greater church by giving a gift to the Catholic Appeal. Just as our weekly collection supports parish expenses, initiatives and programs, the Catholic Appeal helps fund services that are essential to our parishes, schools and the greater community. Each of us is responsible not only for the wellbeing of our parish, but also for the wellbeing of the Church throughout our Archdiocese. In preparation, we invite you to prayerfully consider making a generous gift. To make an online pledge, please visit www.bostoncatholicappeal.org. Thank you for your prayerful consideration of the 2026 Catholic Appeal.

Lenten Regulations

- Abstinence from meat is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years and older on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all *Fridays of Lent
- Fasting is to be observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics over the age of 18 but not yet 59. Those bound by this may only take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal practices.

(Those who are ill, pregnant, on medication or special diets for health concerns, or those who work at extremely physical jobs may be exempt from these regulations)

*In the United States, the bishops have asked Catholics over the age of 14 to abstain from meat on all Fridays of Lent.
