Just Like the disciples on the way to Emmaus, we too don't always recognize Jesus either.

As you know, last weekends collection went entirely to the Clergy Benefit Trust for our retired priests. We are grateful for your generosity in supporting the priests who have served us.

Because of that special collection we lost a week of offertory that we depend on for our operations. . . If you are able, we kindly ask that you consider giving a little extra this weekend to help meet our parishes ongoing needs..

Thank you for our continued generosity and faithfulness..!!!!

Thank you for a meaningful Holy Week!

Special thank you to all our church ministries which made Lent and our Holy Week so meaningful.

On Friday evenings of Lent, our church ministries hosted our Soup & Stations evenings. These evenings went from 15 in attendance to 42. Thank you to all our cooks, our Deacon, and Pam Hulme for leading us in the Stations of the Cross!

So much preparation goes into Holy Week. We could not do it alone. Special thanks to our custodial staff, the decorators, our Lectors and Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, Altar Servers, Musicians and Choirs, and all who helped in some way to enhance the services all week.

Happy Easter!

Divine Mercy Service, April 12, 3pm. (OLA)

The message of mercy is that God loves us, no matter how great our sins, and that His forgiveness will be ours if we call upon Him with trust. We are called to :

Ask for His Mercy. Be merciful to others.

Completely trust in His Love.

Visit FORMED: DIVINE MERCY 101

We highly recommend you watch this hour-long video to find out what Divine Mercy is all about. Fr. Chris Alar gives one of the best explanations of why it is so important for our souls to participate in the mercy that God gives us on Divine Mercy Sunday. Truly fascinating presentation on how easy it is for us to enter the gates of heaven. Visit www.formed.org

Together We Are One

Once a year, Catholics throughout the Archdiocese are asked to support the greater church by giving a gift to the Catholic Appeal. Just as our weekly collection supports parish expenses, initiatives and programs, the Catholic Appeal helps fund services that are essential to our parishes, schools and the greater community. Each of us is responsible not only for the wellbeing of our parish, but also for the wellbeing of the Church throughout our Archdiocese. In preparation, we invite you to prayerfully consider making a generous gift. To make an online pledge, please visit www.bostoncatholicappeal.org.

Thank you for your prayerful of the 2026 Catholic Appeal.

Through early support, our parish has already reached (73% SAS/ 51% OLA) of our goal and, together, we are on our way to greater success. Thank You!

ROSARY IN THE PARK
Saturday, April 11, 12 noon
In front of Police Station.

Easter is not just celebrated on Easter Sunday. It's an entire season that lasts for 50 days! This time of joy and exultation, from the Resurrection of the Lord to Pentecost, is one feast day, or one "great Sunday."

I've met so many parents who blame themselves for their children wandering from God and leaving the Church.

Can I say this to everyone reading who bears that burden? Please stop doing that to yourself.

God is a pretty good parent, and his first two children rejected him! It's not failed parenting. It's that annoying thing called "free will".

So, what do you do if your adult child wanders from the faith?

- 1. Pray and fast. It worked for St. Monica. It's said that she gave birth to her son, St. Augustine, twice. The first time was physical. The second was spiritual, and through her tears, her prayers, and her fasting. Prayer and fasting are a powerful one-two punch. It changes lives. Maybe you're being called to go into a new kind of "labor" for your adult child!*
- 2. While it's important to challenge them, don't let your relationship become all about that challenge. When you evangelize family members, remember that it's a marathon, not a sprint. Keep loving them. Keep the doors of communication and friendship open. It's okay to speak when the opportunity seems right, but don't make every conversation about that.*
- 3. Never lose hope. Even if you don't get to see your child come back to the faith while you're on earth, never lose hope in Jesus' mercy and in his ability to win them back. God loves your children more than you. And he'll never stop working harder than you to bring them home.*

Update on the Confessional Kneeler

To better serve all who come to the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the kneeler in the confessional has been removed and replaced with a chair. In recent months it became clear that kneeling behind the screen has become difficult or impossible due to age, injury, or mobility for many people.

Providing a chair ensures that everyone - regardless of physical ability - can receive the sacrament with dignity and privacy.

The option for face to face confession is unchanged.

Thank you for your understanding as we continue to make our worship spaces welcoming and accessible for all who seek Gods mercy.

You are such a blessing and faithful friends to "Friends". Thank you for your generous donations of all the Baby Shower gifts, along with your monetary donations. We are blessed and touched by your sacrifice!

May God bless you for caring so deeply, for loving so generously, and for sharing so selflessly in the Gospel work of our ministry.

You reveal the work of your heart by the support of our moms and their babies. Please know we blanket you and your loved ones in prayer in the New Year. In His Name,

Friends of the Unborn

Divine Mercy Sunday

Second Sunday of Easter

"Jesus told Sr Faustina: 'Humanity will not find peace until it turns trustfully to divine mercy' (Diary, p. 132). . . It is not a new message but can be considered a gift of special enlightenment that helps us to relive the Gospel of Easter more intensely, to offer it as a ray of light to the men and women of our time." —St. John Paul II, Divine Mercy Sunday, 2000

In 1931, Jesus appeared to Sr. Faustina in Poland and expressed his desire for a feast celebrating his mercy. The Feast of Mercy was to be on the Sunday after Easter and was to include a public blessing and liturgical veneration of His image with the inscription "Jesus, I trust in You." All priests were to proclaim God's great mercy on this day.

This promise of mercy has been affirmed by the Church, which has made Divine Mercy Sunday an occasion for receiving a plenary indulgence, "the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sin whose guilt has already been forgiven" (CCC, no. 1471). The plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful under the usual conditions (Confession, Eucharist, prayer for the intentions of the pope, and complete detachment from sin, even venial sin). The faithful may either take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy in any church or chapel or recite the Our Father and Creed in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus.

The Easter Season

Easter isn't just a day, it's a whole season and stretches all the way to the feast of Pentecost.

At masses all through the Easter season, our usual practice of reading from the Old Testament is replaced by reading from the Acts of the Apostles. These readings tell the story of the church's earliest days, and the beginnings of our faith's spreading throughout the ancient world. These stories of heroism, controversies, persecutions and miracles all testify to the continued presence of the Risen Christ in the world, through the lives of his disciples, and the actions of the Holy Spirit.

All of this should be an encouragement and a sign of hope for us today. Despite war, violence, personal struggles, and an under-performing economy, God has not abandoned us, nor left us to our own devices. The risen savior is still with us. These 50 days of Easter ask us to reflect on his presence, and—even in the face of danger or fear—to live with joy.
