“JESUS IN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

is the most tender of friends with souls who seek to please Him. His goodness knows how to proportion itself to the smallest of his creatures as to the greatest of them.

Be not afraid then, in your solitary conversations, to tell him of your miseries, your fears, your worries, of those who are dear to you, of your projects, and of your hopes. Do so with confidence and with an open heart.”

JOHN 14:12

In Word & Deed

Building a house requires no small amount of patience, careful planning and attention to the budget. It's exciting to watch as progress is made step-by-step until the building is under roof and the attention is focused on the construction inside. Each day brings us closer to the goal of finishing the house and having a family move in.

The Apostles are nervous and uncertain, trying to grasp the meaning of all that has happened. Jesus wants them to have confidence in God's plan and He is very clear and very certain. Jesus knows His Father's house. The apostles have nothing to fear. Jesus has done it all, not only preparing a place in His Father's house for everyone, but also giving Himself as the way, the truth and the life. The last

*"I am the way and the truth and the life."
John 14:6*

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

It takes a lot of time, effort and money to build a house. A successful endeavor requires a good plan, quality construction and a flexible budget. Without a doubt, there will be setbacks and headaches, changes and problems. But perseverance and patience will see the project through to the finish. But when does a house become a home? At what point does it cease being a building project and start becoming “our place”?

A house is a frame that holds a home. Home is the place where our heart finds peace. It is the place where we feel good in our own skin, a place where we know we are accepted as we are. Home is the place where faith, hope and love fill each room, teaching us their lessons of life. Home is where we find everything we need and the courage to hope for more. Home is the place where our friends become our family and our family becomes our friends.

Jesus prepares a place for us in His Father’s house, a place where we really are at home. It is a place of rest, peace and life. We can offer and experience a bit of that as we strive to make our own home a place of refuge from the hectic lives we lead. A house becomes a home when we listen, share, and support one another. Do what you can to make everyone feel at home. It will add immeasurable value to your house!

-Jim Gaffney

step He leaves for us to take: follow Him with all that we are and all that we have so that we will be all that He wants us to be.

Our faith is not insulated from the temptations of sin and failure, from doubt and even despair. We need to keep working and build the Kingdom of God. We choose to build a life of grace and peace, of faith and trust. The example of Jesus, His words and His life, guide us and give us hope as we follow Him to the Father.
