A MOTHER'S LOVE
A PRAYER OF OUR LADY OF FATIMA

We praise you, Lord, and bless you,
For in a time of horrific war and pandemic plague,
You sent us your mother, Our Lady of Fatima.

We sing praises to you, for even in times of sorrow and fear the earth is still touched by one such as she. And we are reminded, knowing that whatever war visits itself upon us, whatever deprivations, whatever want, whatever illness, whatever calamity endured by humankind that may cause us to look to the sky and despair, that your children do not toil in this world apart from your grace, that our prayers are not unheard And we do not go forth without a mother's love.

Keep us devoted to you, O Lord, devoted in our prayer, our words and our acts, that all souls in this world may know your compassion, peace and mercy, that all souls who have departed this world may find salvation.

Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco, pray for us.
Our Lady of Fatima, pray for us.

Amen

Journey OF Faith

6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

In Word & Deed

A young musician told the reporter that the best compliment he ever received came in a magazine review of his work in which he was compared to his father, a famous musician and composer. After a favorable comparison, the writer referred to him as a chip off the old block. The young man felt he had indeed inherited his father's genius for music.

In giving some final instructions, Jesus describes the unity between the Father and Him, and between the Father and the Holy Spirit. That unity is shared with all those who believe in Jesus, because Jesus dwells within them and they in Jesus. Nothing can separate us from the Lord because we share the same life, the

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

It's easy to take things for granted. Good food, a great family, a loving spouse, an outstanding school or a wonderful community all suffer from the same disease: familiarity. These things are a part of our life everyday and after a while, we fail to notice just how special and important they are. It sometimes takes a visitor's appreciation to jolt us out of our complacency and to rekindle our gratitude for the blessings that we have.

Take faith, for example. When religious practice settles into a routine, it can become just one more thing on a To-Do list. It no longer impresses, or motivates or inspires. Pretty soon, we can find ourselves going through the motions of prayer and sacrament, focused more on what else we need to do rather than on what God wants us to do.

Family life is even more vulnerable. It's easy to see just the faults and failings of those who are closest to us. But there is so much more to know and love and do. Family life and marriage is so much better when each family member actively participates, contributing something to an atmosphere of love and acceptance, support and growth. Don't hold back, waiting for the right moment, or the best opportunity or for someone else to make the first move or offer an apology. Do something today, right now and see your spouse and your family as the blessing they really are.

-Jim Gaffney

In Word & Deed

*And I will ask the Father,
and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always,
the Spirit of truth,
which the world cannot accept,
because it neither sees nor knows it.*

*But you know it,
because it remains with you,
and will be in you.*

• John 14:16-17 •

same love and the same Spirit. Our unity is more than a superficial likeness; we truly are soul mates of the Lord.

Faith is not something we do as much as it is something that we are. Baptism does not simply make us members of a group called Church. It makes us church, shaping us as a new creation and a child of God. Made in God's image and likeness, we have inherited His genius for life, grace, truth and peace. We are given the same mission as Jesus to build the Kingdom, to proclaim God's love and to share His blessings and His glory. We are given the promise of eternal life with God in Heaven. We are more than chips off the old block. We are heirs of God.
