Journey OF Faith

MOST HOLY TRINITY

In Word & Deed

Anyone who spends time with little kids knows that you never know when they will say the funniest things. Their observations on life range from the totally insightful to the completely innocent to the absolutely comical. One four-year-old's comment touched on all three. Riding quietly in the car during his family's vacation, he suddenly commented, "You know Santa Claus? I don't know how he does it, but I really do like his work."

Many theologians and spiritual thinkers wrestle with the problem of evil, free will, the Incarnation and most of all, the Trinity. Using examples, stories and complex theories, they attempt to explain the mystery of God. Nothing really

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

On a beautiful Saturday in May, I sat at a table in the park, reading term papers and enjoying the sights and sounds of spring. My favorite sound is that of little children laughing and squealing as mom and dad play games with them, or throw a ball or sit and eat a picnic lunch. It's the perfect image of family. Love is in the air, infusing the mind and spirit with a sense of peace and joy. There is something about a toddler's laugh that makes you smile with hope and happiness.

The Church describes the family as a domestic church.

In it, we learn the ways of God, the story of salvation, and the virtues of faith, hope and love. We do not learn our lessons from a book, but from each other; not just from words, but from deeds; not just from explanations, but from example. Like a spring day, faith can infuse us with love and hope so that we grow together, strong and faithful.

-Jim Gaffney

Angels and perhaps theologians can best explain the mystery of the Trinity, but we all experience the power of God. In every breath, we acknowledge the creative power of the Father; in every good deed, we see the redeeming glory of the Son; in every prayer, we are inspired by the sanctifying Spirit. Faith is an intimate relationship with God and He gives us all that we need to become His people, His ministers, and His church.

comes close. Infinite power, wisdom and love cannot be contained nor defined by the limits and constraints of the human mind. But the soul, the spark of the Divine within us, sees and understands. The soul recognizes the work of God and calls us to the mission that is written in our hearts by the waters of Baptism.

People spend a lot of time trying to figure God out. But God is not known nor understood by reason alone. God is known through acts of faith, hope and love. He is found in the poor and oppressed. He is seen in the eyes of those we love. He reveals Himself in quiet moments of reflection and prayer. We may not be able to explain the Father who creates, the Son who redeems and the Spirit who sanctifies. But we do enjoy their work.

-Jim Gaffney
