Next week the special Collection, Promoting the Gospel, will take place. This collection is shared by the Catholic Campaign for Human Development and the Catholic Communication Campaign. These two organizations communicate the Gospel by promoting works of justice, education, and the dignity of human life. Your generous donations will give those in poverty the support they need to make lasting changes and will support our local communication needs, such as Catholic TV programming.

While this collection supports national efforts, a portion of the proceeds are designated for local CCHD grants and parish communication efforts.

Join us for a coffee social, to say thank you, and wish Fr. Aveni the best on his new assignment !

REST IN PEACE...

Remember in your prayers the soul of Marie E. Higgins, pre-deceased by her husband Lawrence, beloved mother, cherished grandmother and dear friend. Her funeral Mass took place this past week.

FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Kingdom of Priests

The words God speaks to Israel in today's First Reading are intended for us as well.

The Church is the fulfillment of God's covenant promises to Israel—a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation (see Deut 26:19; Is 62:12).

In the Church, we have been gathered as the new "Israel of God" (see Gal 6:16). He has made us his own people, the flock He tends, as we sing in today's Psalm.

Moses was Israel's first shepherd (see Ex 3:1). With the Promised Land in view, he prayed that God raise up a successor so that God's people would not be left as sheep without a shepherd (see Num 27:17).

These same words are used in today's Gospel to describe Jesus' pity for the crowds, who are "troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd."

Israel's shepherds—the Pharisees and scribes—had abandoned and misled the people through their hypocrisy and spiritual blindness (see Mt 23:1-36; Jer 50:6).

But God had long before promised that He himself would come and save His sheep—searching over the whole earth where they had been scattered "for lack of a shepherd" (see Ez 34:1-24).

Jesus is the new Moses and new David promised by the prophets, a divine shepherd-king sent to restore God's priestly kingdom (see Jn 10:11).

As Moses commissioned Joshua as his successor, so we see Jesus today giving the Twelve His powers and authority (see Mt 9:35; 10:1). In God's plan, they are to seek out the lost sheep of Israel first and then bring all nations into the fold (see Acts 13:46; Rm 1:16).

Together we have been saved and reconciled to God, as we hear in today's Epistle. As he delivered Israel, he has also made us a kingdom of priests in the Church (see Rev 1:6).

So we come in this Mass to serve Him with gladness, to praise His kindness, which endures forever

Journey OF Faith

11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Word & Deed

When people are appreciative of the opportunities they receive which they can't repay, they promise to share their good fortune with others by 'paying it forward.' It's a way of sharing with someone else the gift they have received so it will also help someone else. It becomes a gift that keeps on giving.

As much as Jesus loved the disciples, the gift of faith that He entrusts to them is not meant for them alone; rather, it is to be shared and proclaimed so that God's love and power will renew the face of the earth. The sacrifice of Jesus is freely given to all those who need salvation. Through the

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

A media critic wrote about the portrayal of fathers on television shows. They all seemed to be clueless men, totally inept at dealing with children, wives or a crisis. They are less than sensitive, always joking, outsmarted by even the youngest of their children. While there are some exceptions, dads seem to be an easy target for jokes, insults and bad gags. But reality and experience paint a different story.

Dads I know are hard working, smart and caring men. They sacrifice everyday for their wives and families, often managing two jobs, aging parents, a Girl Scout cookie sale, a Little League field building project and a 'honey-do' list of epic proportions. All this they do with a smile, a sense of gratitude and a deep joy that is evident in the pride they take in their families. These dads are no slouches; they give 'til it hurts and they hurt 'til they give. They truly reflect the love of God the Father as they create, guide, teach and heal their families and friends. So, with a great deal of gratitude and love, we say to the dads among us, Happy Father's Day!

words and deeds of His followers, Jesus' gift of life and grace is offered to everyone.

We have been given so much by God and by those who have gone before us. These gifts all come from the heart and so they must be passed on from the heart as well. When we love others and share with them what we have received, we indeed pay faith forward, making God's Kingdom a little more visible and accessible for those who need Him most.
