PRAYER FOR INDEPENDENCE DAY

God, source of all freedom,
this day is bright with the memory
of those who declared that life and liberty are your gift to every human being.
Help us to continue a good work begun
long ago.

Make our vision clear and our will strong:
that only in human solidarity will
we find liberty,
and justice only in the honor
that belongs to every life on earth.
Turn our hearts toward the family of nations:
to understand the ways of others,
to offer friendship,
and to find safety only in the common good of all.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Journey OF Faith

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

By Dr. Scott Hahn

TO FIND OUR LIVES

The Liturgy this week continues to instruct us in the elements of discipleship. We're told that even the most humble among us have a share in the mission Christ gives to His Church.

We're not all called to the ministry of the Apostles, or to be prophets like Elisha in today's First Reading. But each of us is called to a holy life (see 2 Timothy 1:9; 1 Thessalonians 4:3).

At Baptism our lives were joined forever to the cross of Christ, as Paul tells us in today's Epistle. Baptized into His death, we're to renounce sin and live for God in Christ Jesus.

We are to follow Him, each of us taking up our personal cross, as Jesus says in today's Gospel. That doesn't mean we will all be asked to suffer a martyr's death. But each of us is called to self-denial, to the offering of our lives in service of God's plan.

Jesus must be elevated to first place in our lives—above even our closest bonds of kinship and love. By Baptism, we've been made part of a new family—the kingdom of God, the Church. We are to proclaim that kingdom with our lives, bringing our fathers and mothers, and all men and women to live as “little ones” under the fatherhood of God and the kingship of the Holy One.

Q&A by BROOKS GIBBS

Dear Brooks,

When making decisions, how do I hear God's voice?

A. Mastering the sensitivity to hear God is a lifetime pursuit worth seeking. God speaks to people differently, however I have found that he consistently speaks to others using four different methods.

Through His Word, the Bible. The Bible is full of so many stories of people encountering a variety of decisions. The Bible is a definitive journal of God interacting with people and we can apply these biblical lessons to our life. It is a resourceful book of wisdom. This is the first and most important way God will speak to you. In fact, you should ignore any advice that contradicts what Scripture teaches.

Through our circumstances. God will help us decide things through open and closed doors. Our circumstances can dictate our decisions. If God is not providing opportunities or if He has not p

Through other people. God uses the counsel of older and wiser people to help us clear the fog of indecision. He uses friends to rebuke or encourage us. God even uses complete strangers to give us a glimpse of what might happen in the near future. We should be eager to listen to the Godly people around us, because they could be speaking on God's behalf.

Through your internal convictions. Many times you may have a growing awareness inside your consciousness, causing you to know deep down what to do. God loves to lay things on your heart or put things in your mind, and we must listen to that inner voice.

My sheep hear my voice. John 10:27

TO FIND OUR LIVES

We do this by opening our hearts and homes to the service of the Lord, following the Shunnamite woman's example in today's First Reading. As Jesus tells us, we're to receive others—not only prophets, but also little children, the poor and the imprisoned—as we receive Christ himself (see Matthew 18:5; 25:31–46).

As we sing in today's Psalm, we are to testify to His favors and kindness in our lives.

We're to hold fast to the promise—that if we have died with Christ, we shall also live, that if we lose our lives for His sake, we shall find our reward, and walk forever in His countenance.

Jesus said to his apostles:

“Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.”

~ Matthew 10:37-39
