19th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

First Reading — 1 Kings 19:9A, 11-13A: Elijah hides in a cave. God tells him to stand outside. A strong wind, an earthquake, and a fire pass by, but God is not in them. Then Elijah hears a quiet whisper. He knows God is there.

Responsorial Psalm — Psalm 85: God proclaims peace and salvation for the reverent. Kindness, truth, justice, and peace unite. The LORD grants benefits and prepares His path with justice.

Second Reading — Romans 9:1-5: Paul feels deep sadness for his people. They have received many blessings from God. He loves them so much that he would give up everything if it could help them believe in Christ.

Gospel — Matthew 14:22-33: Jesus goes to pray alone. His disciples take a boat across the lake. A storm comes, and they are afraid. Jesus walks on the water toward them. Peter tries to walk on the water too but starts to sink when he doubts. Jesus saves him. The disciples worship Jesus, knowing He is truly sent by God.

Offertory Collection is reported monthly in proportion to the monthly budgeted amount.

Sinking Fear

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

How do we find God in the storms and struggles of our lives, in the trials we encounter in trying to do His will?

God commands Elijah in today's First Reading to stand on the mountain and await His passing by. And in the Gospel, Jesus makes the disciples set out across the waters to meet Him.

In each case, the Lord makes himself present amid frightening tumult - heavy winds and high waves, fire and earthquakes.

Elijah hides his face. Perhaps he remembers Moses, who met God on the same mountain, also amid fire, thunder, and smoke (see Deuteronomy 4:10-15; Exodus 19:17-19). God told Moses no one could see His face and live, and He sheltered Moses in the hollow of a rock, as He shelters Elijah in a cave (see Exodus 33:18-23).

The disciples, likewise, are too terrified to look on the face of God. Today's Gospel is a revelation of Jesus' divine identity. Only God treads across the crest of the sea (see Job 9:8) and rules the raging waters (see Psalm 89:9-10). And the words of assurance that Jesus speaks - "It is I" - are those God used to identify himself to Moses (see Exodus 3:14; Isaiah 43:10).

Even Peter is too overcome by fear to imitate his Lord. His fears, Jesus tells him, are a sign of his lack of faith. And so it often is with us. Our fears make us doubt, make it hard to see His glory dwelling in our midst.

Yet, we should know, as we sing in today's psalm, that His salvation is near to those who hope in Him. By faith we should know, as Paul asserts in today's Epistle, that we are heirs to the promises made to His children, Israel.

We must trust that He whispers to us in the trials of our lives - that He who has called us to walk along the way of His steps, will save us whenever we begin to sink.

The Good Shepherd

A "Spiritual Bouquet" for Father Yoon will be gathered during the month of August. You are invited to sign the display at Our Lady of Assumption during the first half of August and Saint Ann's the second half of the month. The display will contain our rosaries, Holy Hours and prayers for Father Yoon and all priests.

The poster will be next to the prayer Intentions podium at each Parish.

God bless.

In Your loving kindness, bless our Pastor, our faithful Shepherd, and all priests of the Archdiocese of Boston and Rome. Strengthen them in spirit, and fill their hearts with the fire of Your divine love.

Grant them wisdom to guide their flock, courage to proclaim Your truth, and compassion to care for every soul entrusted to them. May Your grace renew them each day, and may the Holy Spirit be their constant companion. In Jesus' Holy name. Amen.

Journey OF Faith

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In Word & Deed

After teaching for many years, a well-known professor could not go anywhere without bumping into someone who recognized him. His sizable frame, his booming laugh and his deep voice could not be mistaken, even after many years had passed. Former colleagues, students and friends of the university would stop and chat. Even if he could not recall a name, he would remember the person's face and perhaps a detail or two from long ago.

Jesus comes to the Apostles at a time and place they are not expecting. In such unusual circumstances, they are caught off guard and think they are seeing a ghost. Peter recognizes the Lord, but still asks for proof. His faith and courage fail

*"Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid."
Matthew 14:27*

FAMILY LIFE:

TO WALK AS ONE

A proverb says that great things come in small packages. That is often true. The small acts of love and appreciation that we do for each other can mean more than the most expensive gift. Coming home to a clean house, or supper prepared can mean more to a busy parent than a costly gift. The small gestures reach deep into the heart and the message is full of love. In the unexpected, we see more clearly the love of our spouse and family. There is nothing to get in the way.

It's logical to expect God to express Himself in a way that is grand, glorious and powerful. It would be an awe-inspiring thing. But God does not want our awe; He wants our love. He comes to us in the small, unexpected moments of life, asking us to recognize

Him and feel His presence. His small whisperings make Him available to everyone and even the smallest and weakest have no reason to fear Him. So when the loudness and busyness of life overwhelm you, sit quietly, search within for a moment of quiet and listen with your heart. Just focus on the quiet and ask the Lord to speak to you and know that God is near.

-Jim Gaffney

him, however, and he needs the Lord to rescue him. He calls for help as quickly as he called for proof.

We can be surprised by the Lord's Presence, too. In odd moments, places and situations, we can come face to face with Him and fail to recognize Him. In the weak and helpless, in the annoying and unloving, in the old and the young, the Lord is present. We are invited to walk with him; will your faith and courage hold out?

-Jim Gaffney

*P*eter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.

But when he saw how (strong) the wind was he became frightened; and, beginning to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

Immediately Jesus stretched out his hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

Matthew 14:28-31

*Touch our hearts,
help them grow toward the life you have promised.
Touch our lives, make them signs of your love for all.*
