26th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

First reading – Ezekiel 18:25-28: The Lord responds to those who complain about fairness. God's ways are just. A virtuous person who turns to iniquity will face consequences, but if they repent, their life will be preserved.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 25: The psalmist seeks God's guidance and asks for instruction in truth. Remembering God's compassion, the psalmist asks for mercy and guidance. The Lord, good and just, leads sinners and the humble in righteousness.

Second reading – Philippians 2:1-11: Encouraged by Christ's love, unity, and compassion, we're urged to be of one mind, considering others above ourselves. Christ's selflessness and humility serve as an example, leading to exaltation and acknowledgment of His lordship.

Gospel – Matthew 21:28-32: Jesus presents a parable of two sons asked to work in a vineyard. One initially refuses but later obeys, while the other agrees but doesn't go. The lesson highlights that actions, not words, reveal true obedience and righteousness, and tax collectors and prostitutes enter God's kingdom due to genuine belief.

The Humble Path

ST. PAUL CENTER FOR BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Echoing the complaint heard in last week's readings, today's first reading again presents protests that God isn't fair. Why does He punish with death one who begins in virtue but falls into iniquity, while granting life to the wicked one who turns from sin?

This is the question that Jesus takes up in the parable in today's Gospel.

The first son represents the most heinous sinners of Jesus' day - tax collectors and prostitutes - who by their sin at first refuse to serve in the Lord's vineyard, the kingdom. At the preaching of John the Baptist, they repented and did what is right and just. The second son represents Israel's leaders - who said they would serve God in the vineyard, but refused to believe John when he told them they must produce good fruits as evidence of their repentance (see Matthew 3:8).

Once again, this week's readings invite us to ponder the unfathomable ways of God's justice and mercy. He teaches His ways only to the humble, as we sing in today's Psalm. And in the Epistle today, Paul presents Jesus as the model of that humility by which we come to know life's true path.

Paul sings a beautiful hymn to the Incarnation. Unlike Adam, the first man, who in his pride grasped at being God, the New Adam, Jesus, humbled himself to become a slave, obedient even unto death on the cross (see Romans 5:14). In this He has shown sinners - each one of us - the way back to the Father. We can only come to God, to serve in His vineyard, the Church, by having that same attitude as Christ.

This is what Israel's leaders lacked. In their vain-glory, they presumed their superiority - that they had no further need to hear God's Word or God's servants.

But this is the way to death, as God tells Ezekiel today. We are always to be emptying ourselves, seeking forgiveness for our sins and frailties, confessing on bended knee that He is Lord, to the glory of the Father.

SIGN THE PETITION !

The recently enacted Massachusetts abortion/infanticide law allows the destruction of babies in the womb up until birth and removes safeguards that had been in place for pregnant women. For example, where formerly the law had required that late-term abortions be performed in hospitals, that safeguard has been removed.

We need to repeal this horrendous law!

Please stop and sign the petition sheets that are being presented by pro-life volunteers following the 8 am daily Mass on Wednesday, October 7 and all Masses the weekend of October 10 and 11. With enough signatures, the matter will go on the ballot, enabling us, the people, to vote to repeal this law.

WHAT: St. Joseph Men's Group

WHO: All men ages 18+

WHEN: Weekly meetings 6:30-7:30p.m. Tuesday

WHERE: St. Ann's Parish Hall

WHY: We are a brotherhood committed to modeling our lives after the great Saint Joseph. Sign up by emailing info@olamarshfield.org or join us.

Special Message from Archbishop Henning

Archbishop Henning, Bishop McManus, Bishop da Cunha, and Bishop Byrne have sent a Message this weekend to the Clergy, Religious, and Lay Faithful of Massachusetts regarding the "Prioritizing Patient Access to Care Act," a new Massachusetts law which permits abortion throughout pregnancy for any reason. Please use the QR code below to read this Message, which invites each of us to take concrete actions during Respect Life Month to renew our reverence for life and to witness to the beauty and sanctity of this foundational gift of the Lord.

"Protecting Our Children is Everyone Concern."

Thank you for your cooperation on this most important matter.

Welcome Families with Young Children !

We welcome you to the celebration of the Mass, where we receive Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. The word eucharist means "thanksgiving," and as we celebrate together, we thank you for your presence here among us.

Children are especially close to the heart of Jesus, so don't feel you have to stifle those wiggles and giggles in God's house!

Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you, so quietly explain parts of the Mass, sing the songs, and participate as best you can! If you need to leave Mass to calm your child, feel free to do so, but please come back.

Remember, the way we welcome families in Church directly affects a child's faith, what they think about the Mass and, by extension, Christ. Let them know that they are at home in this sacred gathering.

To our Parishioners—a smile and a word of encouragement is a joy to parents with small, active children.

Let them know that they are welcome here.

Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Archangels

FEAST DAY: SEPTEMBER 29

These archangels, messengers sent by God, are the only ones named in the Bible. In the Book of Daniel, Michael is called "the great prince"; in the Letter of Jude, he argues with the devil over Moses' body; and in the Book of Revelation, he leads the battle against Satan. He is patron of the sick, radiologists and mariners. Gabriel explains Daniel's visions to him in the Book of Daniel, and in the Gospel of Luke announces to Zechariah and Mary the births of their respective sons. He is the patron of messengers and telecommunications and postal workers. Raphael guides Tobiah in the Book of Tobit; he is patron of the blind, physicians and travelers. The church created their joint feast after the Second Vatican Council.
