WELCOME HOME, CHILDREN OF GOD

Integrative Method of Worship

There are many styles of worship. At First Presbyterian, our worship style, generally, is a traditional reformed service with liturgy, confession and classic Christian hymnody. Even with our traditional emphasis, we believe that relevant worship in the 21st century provides space for congregants and visitors to do integrative spiritual work. By this, we mean that our daily experiences inform and affect our theology and vice versa. In worship at First Presbyterian, we are striving to integrate experience and theology so that we feel responsive and genuine in our faith as we live our daily lives. Worship planning is anchored and planned around the sermon or the sermon series. Series are planned to address any one of four areas: mission of the church, life of the church family, Biblical literacy and current relevant topics. We strive to be balanced and thoughtful in what is offered for your prayer and reflection. However, because integration and responsiveness is the goal, we will often address sensitive issues. Prayers and confessions are written by our pastor. Our children's Spirit Box time is the opportunity for children to have a choice and voice in worship. We welcome you, as you are, to each worship service at First Presbyterian. Integrative work is not easy. It is not always comfortable, but it is essential to a vital church. Please feel free to reach out to our pastor with your questions.

Statement of Mission

First Presbyterian Church of Waco, Texas, welcomes all as children of God through our worship, outreach, Christian education and congregational life events. By the liberating and compelling grace of God, and in accord with our Reformed theological heritage, we follow Jesus Christ's example by reaching out to seekers and those in need, nurturing disciples, honoring diversity and seeking to reconcile the world to God through ministries of justice and mercy.

If You Are New Here

Stop by our Welcome Center in the Narthex for information. When you are seated, please fill out the Welcome Folder you will find in the pew. After all in the pew have signed, pass it to the center aisle or use the QR code to sign in online.

These May Help During the Service

If you would like a large-print hymnal or hearing enhancement device, please ask an usher. We also have worship bags for children on the wall of the Narthex. Please return the bag after the service.

If You Are in Need of Prayer

You will find prayer cards in the back of the pew. You may place them in the offering plate or hand them to an usher. Your prayers are confidential.

+ Call to Worship (Psalm 135:15-18 and Psalm 115:4-8)

One: We arrive to worship carrying idealized versions of life.

Many: Idealized versions of self, others and circumstances take up residence in our lives.

One: Idealized images of God seem to arrive with the permission of the ages, even when we resist tradition.

Many: We arrive into worship to lay down the idealized that we may live, move and having our being with integrity before God.

One: Let us worship our incarnate God in Christ. Amen.

FESTAL SONG

Prayer of Confession and Aspiration

God of Family Identity, we confess we are one big family of creatures on the planet earth. Our human race runs a particular race within cultures. We seek to run and win the race established by cultural rules. We confess culture's audacious question: Are you a winner or a loser. How we long to run the race that Christ lays out. A race run not to leave others behind but to cross different finish lines together. May the fruits of the spirit fuel our sprints and our marathons that only the heart can run. Amen.

+ Affirmation of Faith

We affirm our faith in God's generations. In God's generations there is emergence and loss. There is development and regression.

We affirm our faith in the Body of Christ. Within the body there are members who are more vulnerable. There are members who exert greater strength. Within the Body of Christ, the weak can be strong and the strong can be weak.

We affirm our faith in the matrix of the Spirit. Beyond biology and blood, there are soul mate connections strengthened by the Spirit. We affirm surges in the Spirit that connect us serendipitously. We affirm ebbs in the Spirit that create space in our relationships.

We affirm our faith in the sacraments of the Lord's Baptism and Supper. In the flow of water, the breaking of bread and the pouring of cup, we allow life to move through us. The sacraments impart essential elements of Christ, building our vitality.

We affirm our faith in the scriptures. The Bible's stories, wonderings and assertions help us to examine our judgements, kindle our awe, and find ways to tell our own story as an important extension of the churches history. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
