Integrative Method of Worship

There are many styles of worship. At First Presbyterian, our worship style, generally, is a traditional reformed service with liturgy, confession and classic Christian hymnody. Even with our traditional emphasis, we believe that relevant worship in the 21st century provides space for congregants and visitors to do integrative spiritual work. By this, we mean that our daily experiences inform and affect our theology and vice versa. In worship at First Presbyterian, we are striving to integrate experience and theology so that we feel responsive and genuine in our faith as we live our daily lives. Worship planning is anchored and planned around the sermon or the sermon series. Series are planned to address any one of four areas: mission of the church, life of the church family, Biblical literacy and current relevant topics. We strive to be balanced and thoughtful in what is offered for your prayer and reflection. However, because integration and responsiveness are the goal, we will often address sensitive issues. Prayers and confessions are written by our pastor. Our children's Spirit Box time is the opportunity for children to have a choice and voice in worship. We welcome you, as you are, to each worship service at First Presbyterian. Integrative work is not easy. It is not always comfortable, but it is essential to a vital church. Please feel free to reach out to our pastor with your questions.

Statement of Mission

First Presbyterian Church of Waco, Texas, welcomes all as children of God through our worship, outreach, Christian education and congregational life events. By the liberating and compelling grace of God, and in accord with our Reformed theological heritage, we follow Jesus Christ's example by reaching out to seekers and those in need, nurturing disciples, honoring diversity and seeking to reconcile the world to God through ministries of justice and mercy.

+ Call to Worship - (From John 18-23)

One: John the Baptist sent disciples to Jesus. They had a question.

Many: "Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?"

One: Jesus replied something like this: "I've been working with many people.

They have been affected and strengthened."

Many: He released John's disciples, saying, "And blessed is anyone who takes no offense at me."

One: Let us be the ones who have come to worship to strengthen the world around us in his name. Amen.

+ Hymn #23

God, You Spin the Whirling Planets

PLEADING SAVIOR

Prayer of Confession and Aspiration

Creator God of all Experiences, we confess we have romanticized love. We have associated love with warm resonance and pleasant feelings. In our worship we remember Jesus' rugged love that did not fill him with only warmth, but with frustration, some fear, and lots of intensity. We are touched by the range of love. As we hold love, how we long to celebrate our work alongside you, even when love feels rugged. We offer this prayer honoring all the ways you have been imagined. Amen.

Anthem Text

I hear the crying of the hungry in the deserts where they're wandering
Hear them crying out for heaven's own benevolence upon them
Hear destructive power prevailin', I hear fools falsely hailin'
To the crooked wits of tyrants when they call

I hear them all
I hear them all
I hear them all

I hear the sound of tearing pages and the roar of burnin' paper
All the crimes and acquisition turned to air and ash and vapor
And the rattle of the shackle far beyond emancipators
And the lowliest who gather in their stall

I hear them all
I hear them all
I hear them all

So while you sit and whistle Dixie with your money and your power
I can hear the flowers growing in the rubble of the tower
I hear leaders quit their lyin', I hear babies quit their cryin'
I hear soldiers quit their dyin' one and all

I hear them all
I hear them all
I hear them all

I hear the tender words from Zion, I hear Noah's waterfall
See the gentle lamb of Judah sleeping at the feet of Buddha
And the prophets from Elijah to the old Paiute Wovoka
Take their places at the table when they're called

I hear them all
I hear them all
I hear them all

I hear them all
I hear them all
I hear them all

I hear them all
I hear them all
I hear them all

During 10:30 worship services in July the prelude and offertory on the organ will feature late 19th century “gospel hymn” arrangements. These historic tunes feature catchy melodies, upbeat rhythms, and quick tempos. They express joy and exuberance! Featured on July 12, will be a pedal solo on “When the Roll is Called Up Yonder.” On July 19, friends of the organ will add their instruments to “The Church in the Wildwood.” Feel free to hum along!
