St John the Baptist was imprisoned for criticizing King Herod's unlawful marriage. Despite his confinement, he continued to preach and uphold moral values.

Herodias' daughter, Salome, danced for King Herod on his birthday, leading to her request for John's beheading. Herod, bound by his promise and fearing the public's reaction, ordered it.

John the Baptist, by his life and death, stood by the values of truth and honesty. Uncompromising, he remained faithful till the end of his life.

"IN HIS IMAGE" RETREAT, from Broken to Beloved, will be held Friday, September 18th (6:30-8:30 p.m.) and Saturday, September 19th (9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.) at the Sacred Heart Church, Miles City. Toni Turner will be the presenter and includes Adoration, Saturday lunch, and opportunity for confession. What if the deepest wounds of your life are not the end of your story, but the very place where Christ longs to meet you? Drawing from the writings of St. John Paul II, Sacred Scripture and the wisdom of the saints, this retreat offers a fresh lens for understanding God's beautiful design for every human person. Discover how our bodies, our relationships, and even modern biology reveal that we are created for love and that God has truly written His law upon our hearts. Whether you are carrying past hurts, searching for purpose, or simply longing to know Christ more deeply, come discover the hope of seeing yourself and others not through brokenness, but through His love. RSVP (406)951-2456 or (406)599-8232. All are Welcome!
