CDNM congratulates ANMAC on the appointment of Camilla Rowland as CEO

The Council of Deans of Nursing and Midwifery (Australia and New Zealand [CDNM]) extends its congratulations to the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council (ANMAC) on the appointment of Camilla Rowland as the new Chief Executive Officer, commencing on 20 April.

Ms Rowland brings more than 20 years of senior leadership experience in Australia's health, education, community and not for profit sectors. In her current role as CEO of Palliative Care Australia, she has strengthened partnerships across government and the health system, and advanced progress in national workforce and education initiatives.

CDNM welcomes this appointment and looks forward to working with Ms Rowland to support high-quality education and a strong nursing and midwifery workforce.

"We are pleased to see Ms Rowland appointed to this role," said Ms Rachel Yates, CEO of CDNM. "We value the respectful and cooperative working relationship we have with ANMAC which has enabled us jointly to advance quality nursing and midwifery education. We are confident this will continue under the new CEO given the wide ranging knowledge and experience that Camilla brings to this position."

We look forward to continuing to work with ANMAC to support public safety, high-quality education and a nursing and midwifery workforce ready for the future.

CDNM also acknowledges and sincerely thanks Ms Karen Grace for her significant contribution as Interim Chief Executive Officer at ANMAC. Ms Grace will remain in the interim role during the transition period.
