

PARENT-CHILD DISCUSSION

Parent/Guardian:

Discuss any or all of the following with your child and write one "take away" from your conversation.

1. What attracts you to someone with whom you want to be friends? (shared interest, personality)
2. It is normal for teens to experience romantic attraction. Would you like to share about someone you might be attracted to? What is attractive about the person? (he/she is cute, funny, talented, etc.)
3. The most intimate expression of the body is sexual activity, including sexual intercourse, which bonds the husband and wife to each other and can bring forth a child. The language of sexual activity says, "I am committed only to you for life, no matter what, and I am open to being a parent with you." Have you heard anything about sexual activity that seems confusing?
