LETTER FROM THE PUBLISHER

Welcome to Discover Tlaquepaque, our biannual publication, sharing the best of what Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village has to offer.

Located in the heart of Sedona, Tlaquepaque (pronounced Ta•la•ka•pa•kee) has been a landmark since the early 1970s. A magical place where visitors from around the world come to experience the much-loved, Mexican-inspired architecture, renowned galleries, shops, and restaurants, and exciting events held throughout the year.

Our annual Day of the Dead celebration has been transformed this year into a four-day event celebrated from Saturday, October 29 through Wednesday, November 2, 2022. Enjoy large-scale installations and altars curated throughout the village, each celebrating a different aspect of Mexico's Dia de Los Muertos culture and traditions. Musical entertainment, dance performances, and children's activities will take place daily for our visitor's enjoyment. This free event is one of our most exciting and not to be missed. As is our spectacular Festival of Lights, happening on December 10. At this awe-inspiring event, more than 6000 luminarias light up Tlaquepaque village at dusk. It is a sight to be seen. Find out more about these events and our other celebrations on page 2.

Tlaquepaque, which means the "best of everything" in ancient Aztec, will make you feel transported to another time and place.

Whether you have an hour, an afternoon, or a day, there is always something unique to discover at Tlaquepaque.

I hope you will join us at our arts and shopping village soon!

TLAQUEPAQUE

The Abe Miller Story

VISIONARY, DEVELOPER, LOVER OF THE ARTS

In the 1970s Sedona had only one stoplight and the area was mostly an open range, but visionary businessman Abe Miller saw the potential for more. A traveler, Abe had spent time in Mexico where he became enthralled with its vibrant arts scene—in particular, that of a small arts and crafts village outside of Guadalajara that would become our village's namesake, Tlaquepaque (Ta-la-ka-pa-kee). It was Abe's dream to establish a place for artists where they could collectively create and sell their work.

At that time, Abe also fell in love with Sedona. In particular a unique piece of property on Oak Creek with a distinctive 100-year-old sycamore grove. He knew he had found the place to bring his arts and crafts village to life. It took two years of being persistent, but Abe finally acquired this piece of land from its owners Harry and Ruby Girard, assuring them that their beloved sycamores would remain untouched (a promise he kept and that we continue to honor today).

To express his vision, Abe collaborated with a gifted and unconventional local architect, Bob McIntyre. As the story goes, Bob, Abe, and Bill Herrick, the contractor, flew Abe's plane all over Mexico and ventured into small villages to photograph, sketch, and document their look and feel. They studied how they were constructed—the materials, their structural components, detailing and flow—with a goal to build Tlaquepaque as authentically as possible. They photographed thousands of scenes from rural villages and sketched dozens of vignettes of Spanish Colonial architecture.

When Bob and Abe came upon a small village, they would sit and watch for hours, coming to know the importance of how people, gardens, fountains, and trees shaped social interaction in a public space. They carefully studied the architecture. They were soul searching, discovering what life really looked like in rural Mexico and what architectural elements they should embrace, taking particular note of how the patios, courtyards, tiled walls, and plazas created natural gathering places for the villagers to sell their crafts and minge together. They began to bring artifacts reflecting Mexican culture back to Sedona—iron grillwork, huge carved doors, handmade lanterns, clay pots, and benches were incorporated into the architecture to create the genuine feel and spirit of Tlaquepaque.

In keeping with his unconventional ways, Bob McIntyre purposely hired only amateur artisans and self-trained plasterers, chosen for their heart and enthusiasm for the project. No professional stonemasons were on the crew. He gave tremendous artistic freedom to the workers who "loved to be turned loose on a wall and watch it grow under their hands." If they weren't happy with their day's work, Abe allowed them to tear it down and start over. "Forget the plumb, use the thumb," was a favorite saying on the construction site. Very little of Tlaquepaque was sketched out on paper. Everything was eyeballed, keeping the basic orders of columns and capitals, but allowing for variables. It was all part of what gave Tlaquepaque its authenticity and unique charm.

THE LEGACY CONTINUES

In 2017 Tlaquepaque North opened its doors. The addition, located on the north side of Sedona's highway 179, was artfully developed to maintain Abe and Bob's original spirit and authentic design.

Here too, no detail was overlooked. Visitors enter the space through large elegant archways where niches are filled with Tlaquepaque's signature blue ceramic tile work and hand-painted murals. The roofs are covered with terracotta tiles. Walkways are created with stone pavers that lead you from shop to shop and meet at the center, where you find a graceful stone fountain with its cooling waters and bubbling sounds. Tlaquepaque's giant Sycamore trees and colorful flower beds are interwoven into the space, adding to its inimitable style.

The architect and builders took pains to ensure that Tlaquepaque North gives the impression that it too has elegantly stood here for decades. The result is that visiting is a complete sensory experience while also offering a chance to explore and discover unique artwork, handcrafted and well-curated products, jewelry, and tasty foods and treats. A beautifully renovated former cobblestone home is now the Pump House Station Urban Eatery, one of Sedona's most beloved restaurants. Around the plaza, you will also find the Artists Kitchen, filled with treasures for the kitchen and home, Renee Taylor Jewelry, with more of its exquisite jewelry and art, and Bow Wow Sedona, the finest in fashion, accessories, health, and nutrition for the quad pet set. Look for Cream & Cake Couture too. Located down the steps by the parking area, here you can enjoy homemade ice cream, shakes, sweets, and cake by the slice.

These carefully curated shops and galleries are not to be missed. So head north from our other location, visit us and see for yourself.

LOCATED AT THE HEART OF SEDONA, TLAQUEPAQUE OFFERS A PLACE FOR ART COLLECTORS, DISCERNING SHOPPERS, AND GUESTS TO EXPERIENCE A RARE TREASURE AS THEY CELEBRATE ART, ENTERTAINMENT, BEAUTY, AND COMMUNITY.

RENÉ RESTAURANT

CHANGING OF THE GUARD AT THIS TLAQUEPAQUE INSTITUTION

A landmark destination in Sedona since 1983, over the years, René's restaurant has received a long list of awards, from Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence to the renowned DiRoNa (Distinguished Restaurants of North America award), recognizing the best of fine dining throughout North America.

So when Chef Walter, at the helm of this prestigious kitchen, was ready to move on, he needed to find an exceptional chef and restaurateur to pass on this precious "torch"—that person would be no other than local resident Chef Mercer Mohr.

A graduate of the Culinary Institute of America, Chef Mercer came to Sedona after an illustrious career in San Francisco. There he worked as the Executive Chef for the five-star Four Seasons Cliff Hotel, Corporate Executive Chef and Caviar Maker for Tsar Nicoulai Caviar, and opened award-winning restaurants for Harrah's Casino in Lake Tahoe, The Valencia Hotel Group, Omni Hotels, Rock Resorts, Vail Resorts, Squaw Valley Ski Corporation and The Camelback Inn Resort and Spa in Scottsdale.

In 2015, Chef Mercer turned his attention to Sedona and started Mercer's Kitchen Restaurant Group, a full-service hospitality company with four uniquely themed restaurants in Sedona—Creeside American Bistro, Mesa Grill, Rascals, and now René Restaurant—each one offering a catering venue for special events such as weddings and other celebrations.

When asked what it was that attracted him to René Restaurant, Chef Mercer noted, "René feels very organic to Tlaquepaque with its sophisticated cuisine and European dining experience."

Handcrafted, Southwest-inspired Kitchen Gifts & Tableware

With René's, I get to return to my fine dining roots."

Guests will still find a number of the popular classic René Restaurant tableside specials and flaming desserts on the menu, but over time Chef Mercer plans to move the menu in a more Mediterranean direction. "The Spanish architecture of the restaurant is calling out for coastal favorites from Spain and Portugal with fresh seafood and dry-aged steaks," says Chef Mercer.

To authentically help him make this subtle shift, Chef Mercer has brought onboard Chef de Cuisine Orlando Amaro. Originally from Venezuela, Orlando worked in Spain under world-renowned Chef Ferran Adria and was the Executive Chef at Washington, DC's Lupo Verde, where he was part of the culinary team awarded a Michelin Star.

Chef de Cuisine Orlando took little convincing to move to Sedona, where he and his wife were eager to raise their daughter. And although Chef Mercer will be leading the team for the opening menus, Orlando and his team will be the people you will see there every night, bringing you distinguished food and service. So come by to meet him and the team. The menu will be changing seasonally as Chef Mercer, Orlando, and the team eagerly await your feedback as they continue René Restaurant's tradition of excellence in fine dining and culinary experiences.

JUST US GIRLS

SEDONA'S BOHEMIAN-CHIC STYLE AT ITS BEST

How does an elementary school teacher from British Columbia end up running a women's clothing store in Sedona? The answer is, serendipitously. Shea Edwards, the owner of Just Us Girls, was on vacation when she unexpectedly fell in love with the town of Sedona and its landscape, "I came around a corner, saw Bell Rock, and got shivers," she says, but also with Tlaquepaque. Lucky for her, a space at the arts and shopping village was available. That was in 2009, and her shop has been here ever since, doubling in size in recent years and broadening its offering from her first painted silk items to a diverse collection of apparel and accessories from over twenty global brands.

Although initially an educator, Shea grew up with a love of fashion, often dressing up in her mother's clothing. Just Us Girls brings her passion for bohemian-chic style to life. "I love lightweight, feminine, flowing dresses, made from natural and breathable fabrics," she says. And "everybody, every body type," is her motto. With customers from around the world, she has learned the best items to offer them while visiting Sedona. She focuses on unique pieces from smaller, less commercial brands and easy-to-wear, often one-size-fits-all, items that can be packaged and shipped effortlessly. This curated collection is complemented by an assortment of inspired accessories that make choosing one's favorite difficult.

Sustainability and social consciousness are essential to Shea's mission at Just Us Girls. Sourcing companies dedicated to doing

"I LOVE LIGHTWEIGHT,
 FEMININE, FLOWING DRESSES, MADE FROM NATURAL AND BREATHABLE FABRICS"

good and giving back to their community and the world, She carries lines such as Indie Ella clothes made from recycled Saris, Nomads Hemp made of bamboo, organic cotton, and spandex, and Souлку Jewelry, an environmentally friendly, mother-owned and operated business.

Just Us Girls also carries Love Locks custom engraved locks. Visitors can purchase them at the store and "lock in place" that special memory of their travels to Sedona, an engagement, wedding, anniversary, or other occasions to commemorate and come back to celebrate year after year.

2022 DAY OF THE DEAD & The Marigold Mural Project

ONE OF TLAQUEPAQUE'S MOST INTOXICATING EVENTS, THE DIA DE LOS MUERTOS (DAY OF THE DEAD) CELEBRATION, AND THE MARIGOLD MURAL PROJECT ATTRACT VISITORS OF ALL AGES TO CELEBRATE AND COMMEMORATE THE DEAD—THIS INCREDIBLE TRADITION CONTINUES WITH A NEW, EXCITING FORMAT.

Known also as “Old Souls Day” in Mexico, Dia de los Muertos is a millennial-old holiday to celebrate lost loved ones.

Our new format, on display from October 29 through November 2, 2022, includes exquisitely curated, color-filled altars and large-scale installations to be discovered throughout Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village. Come see Tlaquepaque's streets, patios, and fountains magically transformed.

Experience and learn about this Mexican cultural event during this FREE five-day celebration. Spend time gaining a deeper understanding of the Day of the Dead traditions. Learn about “Oferendas,” offerings placed at the altars, “Papel Picado,” brightly-colored cut-paper banners strung across the patios, and “La Calaca,” handmade clay figurines depicting lost loved ones.

Our annual Marigold Mural Project will be back again this year too. Visitors are encouraged to paint their tributes on the 26-foot-long community remembrance wall. Paints and brushes will be provided onsite with the previous years' murals on display for viewing and inspiration. Mural painting will continue daily throughout our Day of the Dead festivities on Calle Independencia from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m., with artist Lovejoy onsite to assist you.

Although there will be no Mercado this year, we encourage visitors to shop and dine as you meander the grounds and enjoy the celebration. Music and entertainment will take place on Saturday night. We recommend those interested in attending review our website as we get closer to the event date to see the final lineup of activities. Please also be sure to make your dining reservations ahead of time.

This Tlaquepaque celebration and its new format are not to be missed.

HOLIDAY EVENTS 2022

Whether you live in Sedona or are just visiting, Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village is the place to go to celebrate the holiday season with the not-to-be-missed annual Festival of Lights and other highly anticipated, free festive events. Come celebrate!

FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS · LUMINARIAS

A 49-year-old tradition, Tlaquepaque's Festival of Lights is its signature winter event. Stop by for an afternoon of holiday music, entertainment, and the lighting of over 6000 luminarias at the tolling of the 5 p.m. chapel bell.

Come by 4 p.m. to enjoy Santa's grand entrance. Talented musicians will be performing throughout the day, including the riveting River of Life Tabernacle Choir, made up of over 80 adults and youths. Special Luminarias to honor cancer survivors will be available for purchase at the Patio Del Norte from the American Cancer Society.

This is the rare opportunity to see Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village bathed in candlelight.

A big thank you to Tlaquepaque's shop and gallery owners, as well as to the local Boy Scouts and Sedona Marine Corps, for their help with this event.

Luminarias is a FREE event. Open to all ages, supervised children are welcome.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 10, 3:00-8:00 P.M., LIGHTING OF LUMINARIAS 5:00 P.M.
LOCATED THROUGHOUT TLAQUEPAQUE AND TLAQUEPAQUE NORTH

TREE LIGHTING

Sedona's Tree Lighting has been a beloved annual event for many years, helping to make the holidays brighter for visitors and locals alike. Celebrate the beginning of the holiday season as we light up this spectacular evergreen, covered from top-to-bottom with twinkling lights, bows, and sparkling holiday decorations.

This magical event is FREE and a delight for people of all ages. Children can enjoy a visit and take pictures with Santa and other holiday characters such as Frosty the Snowman, as well as enjoying balloon twisting and hot chocolate to keep their hands warm. Each child will receive a small holiday gift bag while Adults can listen to live music and stroll the grounds as they start off the holiday season.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 5 P.M.-7 P.M.
LOCATED AT TLAQUEPAQUE NORTH

DURING THESE EVENTS A FREE SHUTTLE SERVICE WILL BE RUNNING FROM THE UPTOWN MUNICIPAL PARKING LOT TO TLAQUEPAQUE. PLEASE CONSIDER USING THIS SERVICE AS PARKING IN THE LOTS IS LIMITED.

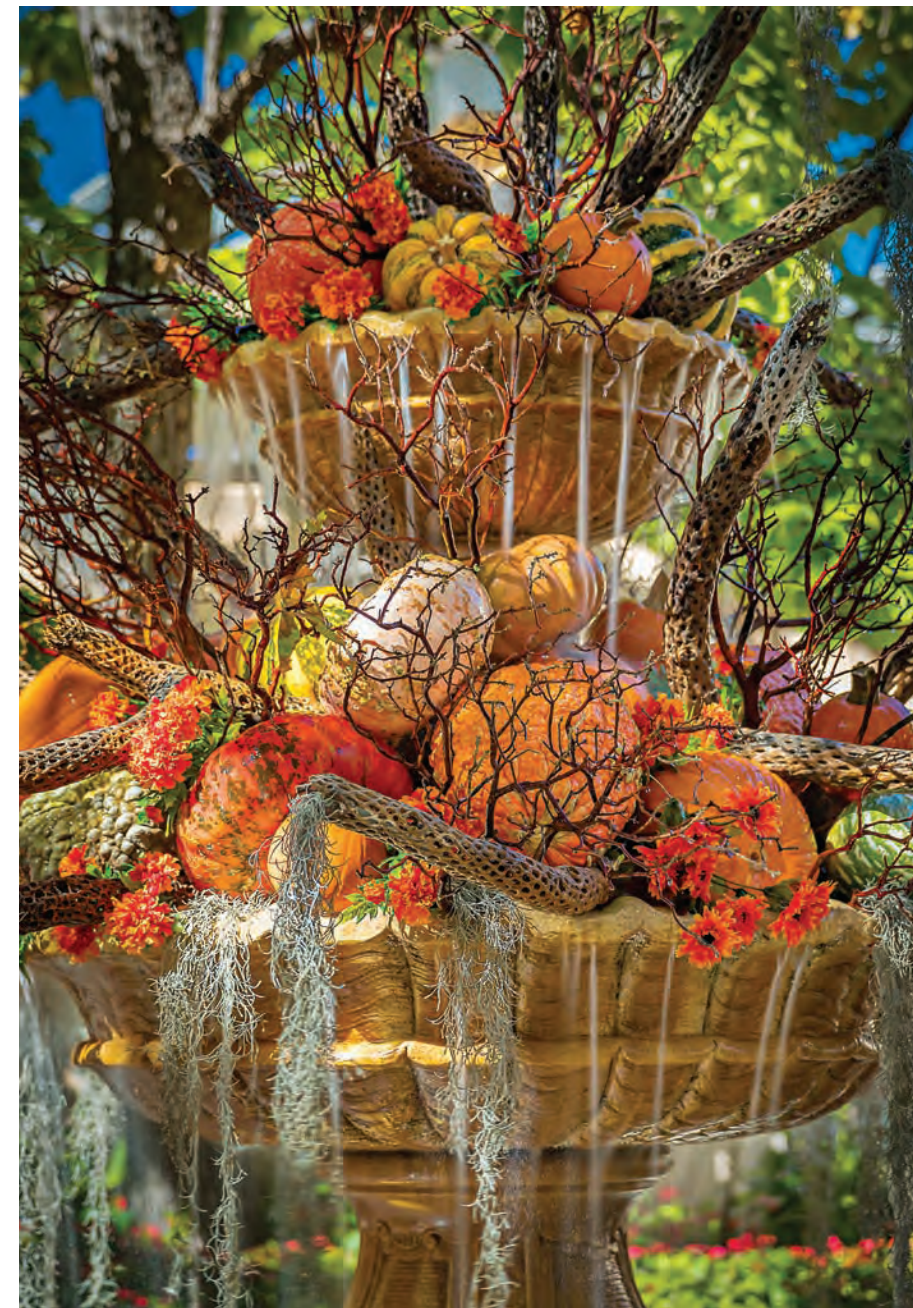

AS THE FALL AND WINTER SEASONS PROGRESSES, PLEASE VISIT THE EVENTS CALENDAR AT TLAQ.COM FOR UP-TO-DATE INFORMATION ON THESE EVENTS AND OTHERS.

FALL FOUNTAINS OF TLAQUEPAQUE

The cooler months are a great time to visit Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping Village. Designed in the spirit of Old Mexico and its hacienda-style architecture, elegant fountains can be found throughout the village. As centerpieces for the many patios and plazas, as well as serendipitously located through an archway or nestled into the side of a walkway. The sound and cool waters of these fountains offer moments of pause for visitors as they stroll the grounds. During the fall and winter festivals, Tlaquepaque fountains are transformed into the spectacular seasonal displays seen in these pictures by Showstoppers. Works of art, decorated with gourds, pumpkins, foliage and other holiday decor. We encourage you to wander the village and Tlaquepaque North to enjoy them all, take photos, and visit our many unique galleries, eateries, and shops along the way.

SEDONA & THE RED ROCKS

Sitting 4,350 feet above sea level. Sedona is a place like no other. An oasis in the desert, its majestic, other-worldly landscapes and natural beauty surround the revered, spiritual town located on the edge of Oak Creek.

An inspiration for artists, Sedona and its surrounding beauty have been depicted in the work of many well-known painters, photographers, and other creators looking to capture a piece of its magic, freeze it in time, and share it with others.

Tlaquepaque's gallery curators have selected some of their favorite depictions of Sedona, The Red Rocks, and other nearby landmarks to share with you.

TLAQUEPAQUE IN ART

The one-of-a-kind beauty of Tlaquepaque Arts & Shopping village is undeniable. Artists from around the world come to the village to not only enjoy and be inspired by the art of others but to work en plein air in the many courtyards and patios, capturing Tlaquepaque's exquisite architecture and landscaping. Whether working in watercolor, pastel, colored pencils, or paints, artists help us see the village from an original, poetic perspective. To notice things visitors may not have seen before. To help them to preserve a memory or dream of returning again and again.

FOUR DECADES OF SAVING AND MAKING HISTORY

Sedona Heritage Museum home of The Sedona Historical Society

The Sedona Historical Society has spent the last 40 years both saving history and making history. The non-profit group has evolved from hosting an annual Pioneer Picnic to almost 70 events per year, most held at their Sedona Heritage Museum.

It all started over 50 years ago when a group of Oak Creek Canyon pioneers and Sedona residents came together to organize a historical society. There were some false starts, but finally, a group was organized in January 1982.

The most “audacious” goal of the Society’s founders was to open a local museum telling the stories of the area’s rich and unique history. That goal was checked off the list in 1998 when the Sedona Heritage Museum opened its doors. In less than a year the Museum had enticed enough volunteers to be open daily and began building a year-round calendar of events. The Society and Museum now routinely host 60-70 events and programs annually.

Today the organization can look back on decades of achievements that most small volunteer museums only dream of. The Museum has expanded its exhibits to cover Sedona’s winemaking history since the 1880s, the importance of Oak Creek, and the story of the community’s development into an arts destination. Early permanent displays have been replaced by professionally curated and designed exhibits, with more upgrades in process.

Jordan Historical Park, a city park that hosts the Museum, has become a mecca for public art, including four life-size bronzes and several other pieces, including the novel park sign and entry gate.

In 2014, the Society literally stumbled on the last remaining building from the 1940-50s era western movie set, a contributing element to Sedona being known as “Arizona’s Little Hollywood” for a time. The Telegraph Office from John Wayne’s film “Angel and the Badman” was found abandoned on a property just out of town, donated to the Society, and relocated to the Museum where it now holds exhibits and movie clips about the golden era of western film making in Sedona.

Along the way, the Society has accepted gifts of the area’s two oldest cemeteries (1893 and 1918) from pioneer families, both of which continue to accept pioneer descendant burials. The Cook Cedar Glade Cemetery is the final resting place of Sedona Schnebly, the town’s namesake. Volunteers maintain these sacred places and host annual fund-raising cemetery walks to raise money for their care.

In 2018, the gift of the Schuerman family’s 1908 homestead house, the area’s oldest and last remaining home used specifically to meet homestead requirements, set the Society on a course of restoration and eventual opening. The building is currently being nominated to the National Register of Historic Places.

Meanwhile, Society volunteers have made plans to observe their 40th year of “researching, preserving and teaching the history of the Greater Sedona area.” Yet to come this Fall are several special events, along with a Time Capsule planned for burial in November.

The Society encourages everyone who visits, lives in, or just plain loves Sedona, to visit the Museum to learn about the past and to see what’s new. Also, visit SedonaMuseum.org to check out the Calendar of Events. The Fall is a busy time in Sedona and the Museum is no exception, hosting the popular “Voices from the Grave” cemetery walk on October 28-29; or the sell-out Red Rock Roundup History Tours on September 28, 29, 30, and October 1; or some early holiday shopping at the Fall Arts & Crafts Fair; or free old-time family fun, hot cider, and cookies at “Christmas in the Park” on December 10.

Every month there are choices, from cowboy poetry and story-tellin’ at a performance of “Fool Me Twice”, to pioneer reenactments at “Throwback Thursday”, or the “Living History” speaker series and “Monday at the Museum” old-time demonstrations. There’s always something going on.

THE SEDONA HISTORICAL SOCIETY’S HOME IS IN THE SEDONA HERITAGE MUSEUM, ON THE NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES, AND LOCATED AT 735 JORDAN RD. IN JORDAN HISTORICAL PARK IN UPTOWN SEDONA. FOR MORE INFORMATION, CALL THE MUSEUM AT 928-282-7038, OR VISIT SEDONAMUSEUM.ORG.

DULY MITCHELL

MASTER CREATOR OF HIGH-FIRE PORCELAIN ART

The unique beauty and other worldly qualities of artist Duly Mitchell's high-fire porcelain pieces are mesmerizing. Animate yet seemingly alive, their crystalline glaze develops randomly-perfect patterns that shimmer and shine on his elegant forms.

Mitchell began his journey with pottery in 1969 after returning from Vietnam. For over 30-plus years, he has been running his own ceramic studio in Tuscon, AZ, experimenting with high-fire porcelain and willemite crystalline glazing. A mix of science and art, this process requires firing each piece for twenty hours in a kiln with heat upwards of 2,400 degrees. His carefully created glazes form crystals and develop their elegant patterns as the kiln slowly cools and stops the crystal growth.

"THERE'S A LOT OF HEARTACHE
IN THE FAILURES INHERENT IN THIS PROCESS, BUT THAT'S WHAT DRIVES ME TO KEEP AT IT."

CREATIONS IN CUISINE

AMAZING FOOD AND THE BEAUTY OF ARIZONA, A PERFECT PAIRING

What happens when two lifelong friends with love for authentic Italian food and other global cuisines and extensive experience in the foodservice and hospitality industry decide to relocate from New York to Arizona? They come West, settle in Phoenix, and establish one of the premier off-site catering companies in the area.

Started in 1996 by Chef Tony Rea and business partner Frank Vara, friends since the fifth grade, Creations in Cuisine is now in its twenty-sixth year of providing creative, delicious food, flawless presentations, and unsurpassed customer service to clients throughout Arizona, including Sedona.

“SEDONA IS A PERFECT LOCATION TO CATER,” SAYS CHEF REA EMPHATICALLY, “EXCELLENT VIEWS AND AMAZING FOOD GO HAND IN HAND!”

And Chef Rea is no stranger to the beauty of Arizona or creating amazing food, a graduate of the esteemed culinary arts program at Johnson and Wales, prior to opening Creations in Cuisine, he had years of award-winning Culinary Arts experience with several prestigious resorts and restaurants throughout the Phoenix metro valley, including the position of Executive Chef at The Boulders Resort and Golf Club in Scottsdale Arizona—repeatedly recognized as one of the top golf resorts in the world. He and Frank are also the owners of Pasta Rea, a sister company that produces fresh pasta, sauces, and other Italian specialties.

Although many think of spring as the wedding season, Chef Rea notes that Fall is the perfect time to host your special day in Arizona. “The Autumn colors, when paired with the stunning Red Rocks, make for a beautiful setting,” he says, “and you can’t beat the great weather.”

He and Frank’s greatest advice when planning a fall or winter wedding would be to choose menu ingredients that highlight the season and region. “Our Butternut Squash Raviolis are full of fall flavors, and our Agave Tequila Glazed Guajillo Pork Tenderloin and Corn Crusted Scallops, Avocado-Tomato Salsa and Green Chili Sweet Potato Mash showcase the great flavors of the Southwest,” Chef Rea notes.

An exclusive Tlaquepaque Wedding Vendor, they note that what they love about the venue is its exquisite aesthetic and unique versatility. “We love that there are so many great spaces within Tlaquepaque — it allows for show-stopping events,” says Frank. And they have been the caterers for many of them.

RICOTTA CAVATELLI WITH BROCCOLI RABE AND TOMATOES

Yield: 2 servings

INGREDIENTS:

- 4-5 oz. blanched broccoli rabe spears
- 16 ripe tear drop tomatoes, cut in half
- 1 oz. quality olive oil
- 4 oz. italian sausage, hot or mild your choice
- 2 tablespoons minced shallot
- 4-5 garlic cloves, shaved thin like in goodfellow’s
- 2 oz. white wine (something you enjoy drinking)
- 10 oz. pasta rea cavatelli
- 1.5 oz. whole butter
- 3 tablespoon chopped fresh parsley
- Sea salt, to taste
- Freshly ground black pepper, to taste
- 3-4 oz. grated fresh romano cheese

DIRECTIONS:

1. Clean broccoli rabe of any excess leaves and cut in spears about 3” long. Be sure to use tender stems as well as the florets.
2. Bring 2 quarts of salted water to a rolling boil—blanch broccoli rabe in boiling water until al dente. Drain well and immediately submerge in an ice bath. When chilled throughout, remove from the ice bath and drain well.
3. Rinse out the pot and bring 3 quarts of salted water to a boil and hold.
4. Remove sausage from casing. Heat oil in a nonstick skillet, lightly brown sausage, and crumble with a fork as it browns.
5. Add garlic and shallots to the sausage and sauté until translucent. Add tomatoes and sauté to blister. Add rapini and toss to warm.
6. Add wine and reduce by ½ to remove alcohol; hold on a very low simmer.
7. Drop pasta in water and cook to desired doneness. Cook on a high boil for 3 minutes after they float to the top.
8. Drain pasta well, reserving some pasta water.
9. Add pasta to the pan and toss.
10. Add whole butter and toss again until butter is melted. You can add small amounts of pasta water if needed.
11. Add parsley and season to taste with salt, pepper, and ½ the Romano cheese.
12. Toss on medium heat to make sure all is hot.
13. Plate and garnish with remaining cheese.

Serve and enjoy. Buon appetito!

EAT, DRINK, AND BE MERRY

TLAQUEPAQUE'S FIVE ACCLAIMED RESTAURANTS

Whether dining outdoors under the coolness of the giant sycamore trees or indoors in one of the arts and shopping village's unique restaurant settings, Tlaquepaque offers an array of exceptional dining experiences for breakfast, lunch, dinner and drinks set against the backdrop of this stunning location.

From elegant bistro dining at René, to Mexican food and margaritas at El Rincon Restaurante Mexicano, handcrafted beers and BBQ ribs at Oak Creek Brewery and Grill, delicious salads and grilled paninis at Secret Garden Café, or fabulous coffees and an inventive lunch and dinner menu at the Pump House Station Urban Eatery and Market, it's all here for one's dining pleasure.

ALL OF TLAQUEPAQUE'S RESTAURANTS ARE PET-FRIENDLY. MANAGEMENT DOES REQUIRE THAT ALL FURRY FRIENDS REMAIN ON A LEASH AND CLOSE TO THEIR OWNERS AT ALL TIMES.

OAK CREEK BREWERY & GRILL

Oak Creek Brewery and Grill in Tlaquepaque is known for its award-winning premium beers, brewed on site and stored in highly polished, custom copper serving tanks behind its classic oak bar. The fabulous craft beers, big cozy booths, wood-fired pizza oven, high-energy open kitchen, and fantastic views, makes it the perfect gathering place for Sedona visitors, family, and returning friends. Its popular second story patio with red rock views has bar style seating around the patio perimeter, a larger central table and smaller two-person tables that create an intimate, protected outdoor space that fills up quickly. Their beers range from light and crisp to dark and full-bodied, with many of their brews receiving gold and silver medals from the North American Brewers Association. Order the “Seven Dwarves” to try them all. This highly entertaining beer tasting presented in 5 oz. steins are the ultimate introduction to Oak Creek Bar and Grill’s craft beers.

RENÉ RESTAURANT

Nestled into Tlaquepaque's iconic Patio Del Norte is René Restaurant, a landmark in Sedona since 1978, now under the ownership of local Chef Mercer Mohr.

Discerning guests can continue to expect the same memorable dining experience and unparalleled standards for the finest food, exceptional wine, and impeccable service that won René a Distinguished Restaurant of North America award.

Sit outside in the intimate courtyard listening to the fountain's dancing water or enjoy René's formal dining room as you delight in one of the daily specials or signature tableside dishes, such as carved rack of lamb or flambé desserts, a feast for the eyes and the stomach.

PUMP HOUSE STATION URBAN EATERY & MARKET

The Pump House is a Sedona local favorite, and for good reason. Serving innovative American cuisine in what was once a private home, its rustic, retro vibe makes the place feel immediately familiar and provides a peaceful dining experience. The staff is super friendly and relaxed, and you can dine indoors by the fireplace, outdoors on the front porch, or on the back of the patio facing a garden of giant sycamores. The restaurant has a knack for blending tradition and innovation into dishes that are honest and rustic, yet elegant and full of nuances. With a menu focused on fresh, organic, and sustainable foods whenever possible, breakfast, lunches, and dinners will delight you. If you are on the go, coffees are first class, as are the sinful pastries and the crepes. Pump House offers a full bar serving specialty cocktails, wines, and local draft beers.

THE SECRET GARDEN CAFÉ

Enter The Secret Garden Café and find yourself in a dappled light setting that envelops you in lush greenery. Sit alongside fragrant flower beds and a cool grassy oasis under abundant shade from towering pines. If just sitting there is quite therapeutic, then the healthy fresh cuisine is beyond nurturing. Offering a sumptuous menu of creatively prepared fresh ingredients, with gluten-free and vegan selections as well, The Secret Garden Café is the perfect choice for breakfast, lunch or dinner. Specializing in soups, gourmet salads, sandwiches, quiche, famous Quesa “Divas” and much more. Be sure to consider a sinful dessert item and check out the specialty Kona coffees, teas, juices, beer and wines by the bottle (high tech dual-cooled for optimum flavor) or on tap with organic options.

FALL IN SEDONA

A HUNT FOR AUTUMN'S MOST VIBRANT COLORS

Fall in Sedona is spectacular. The weather is perfect and the colors are world-class. What's more, our amazing autumn spans more than three months. The secret is the wide variety of elevations, bio-zones, and deciduous trees that keep leaf peepers and photographers smiling from late September to early December.

It starts in the brilliant yellow and gold aspen stands of Flagstaff's high elevation San Francisco Peaks during the last week of September.

By mid-October, maples, gambel oaks, sycamores, and cottonwoods produce an amazing array of colors in Oak Creek Canyon.

This lasts into mid-November when the lower reaches of Oak Creek and the Verde River explode with the gold, orange, and yellow of sycamores and massive cottonwoods.

Note the dates and happy hunting.

SEPTEMBER FLAGSTAFF SAN FRANCISCO PEAKS

Just a short 45-minute drive north of Sedona, aspens surround Flagstaff's San Francisco Peaks. By late September they turn brilliant yellow and gold and can be accessed via a network of decent forest roads. Hart Prairie Road (FR 151, off Hwy. 180), with its meanders thru forests and meadows, is always a highlight.

OCTOBER - NOVEMBER OAK CREEK CANYON

The second half of October into November is when Arizona bigtooth maples begin to turn in Oak Creek Canyon. These maples produce a wide variety of colors, sometimes blood-red, brilliantly pink, or subtly salmon. Interspersed with old-growth ponderosa pines, gambel oaks, and sycamores, the color display is awe-inspiring.

The two best locations are the West Fork Trail and the area around Cave Springs Campground. Both are easily accessed along Hwy. 89A.

Following the elevation down, by November a stop anywhere along Hwy. 89A in Oak Creek Canyon will find sycamores and cottonwoods in full fall color. Banjo Bill Picnic Site, Bootlegger Picnic Area & Grasshopper Point Picnic Area are great stops with easy access to the colors.

By early November, an absolute must-see are the yellow and gold cottonwoods, sycamores, and alders that line the banks of Oak Creek and frame Sedona's signature rock formation, Cathedral Rock, as viewed from Crescent Moon Recreation Area. The sunsets there are world-famous.

TLAQUEPAQUE ARTS & SHOPPING VILLAGE

Late November into the first half of December, there's no finer place to stroll amongst the colors than our very own Tlaquepaque. Nestled in a forever-preserved stand of old-growth sycamores, it makes for a shopping experience like no other.

Our Festival of Lights, held this year on December 10, 3:00 - 8:00 PM, with over 6,000 luminarias, is often right at the peak of fall color. Come by and experience the beauty yourself.

A MAGICAL WEDDING IN A MAGICAL PLACE

Melanie Boothe and Jean Paul Moussa were married at Tlaquepaque Village on June 13, 2021. The elegant ceremony held in the Patio de las Campanas was followed by cocktails on the Patio del Norte Terrace with views of the Red Rocks in the background, followed by a reception under the Sedona night sky on Tlaquepaque's picturesque Calle Independencia. Traveling from Washington, D.C., this beautiful couple crossed the country to be married in the town where JP proposed to Melanie. "Sedona is a magical place," notes Melanie, "And we absolutely loved the unique, antique feel of Tlaquepaque. The greenery, the stone, the water fountains, everything created a gorgeous background and setting for our wedding. It was so gorgeous all by itself minimal additional decor was needed." Their guests also raved about the romantic location and how comfortably cool it was in June under the shade of the village's sycamore trees.

At roundabout four, take the 3rd exit onto Red Rock Scenic Byway/State Route 179/AZ-179. Tlaquepaque is just past Portal Lane.

TLAQUEPAQUE IS A PET-FRIENDLY ENVIRONMENT

We love seeing animals enjoying the grounds of our arts and shopping village. Remember they must be on a leash at all times for their safety and that of our guests.

Animals should not be left alone in cars, especially during the warmer months.

Thank you, and we hope to see you soon!
