TLAQUEPAQUE

Come discover our shops, plazas, restaurants, art, and people.

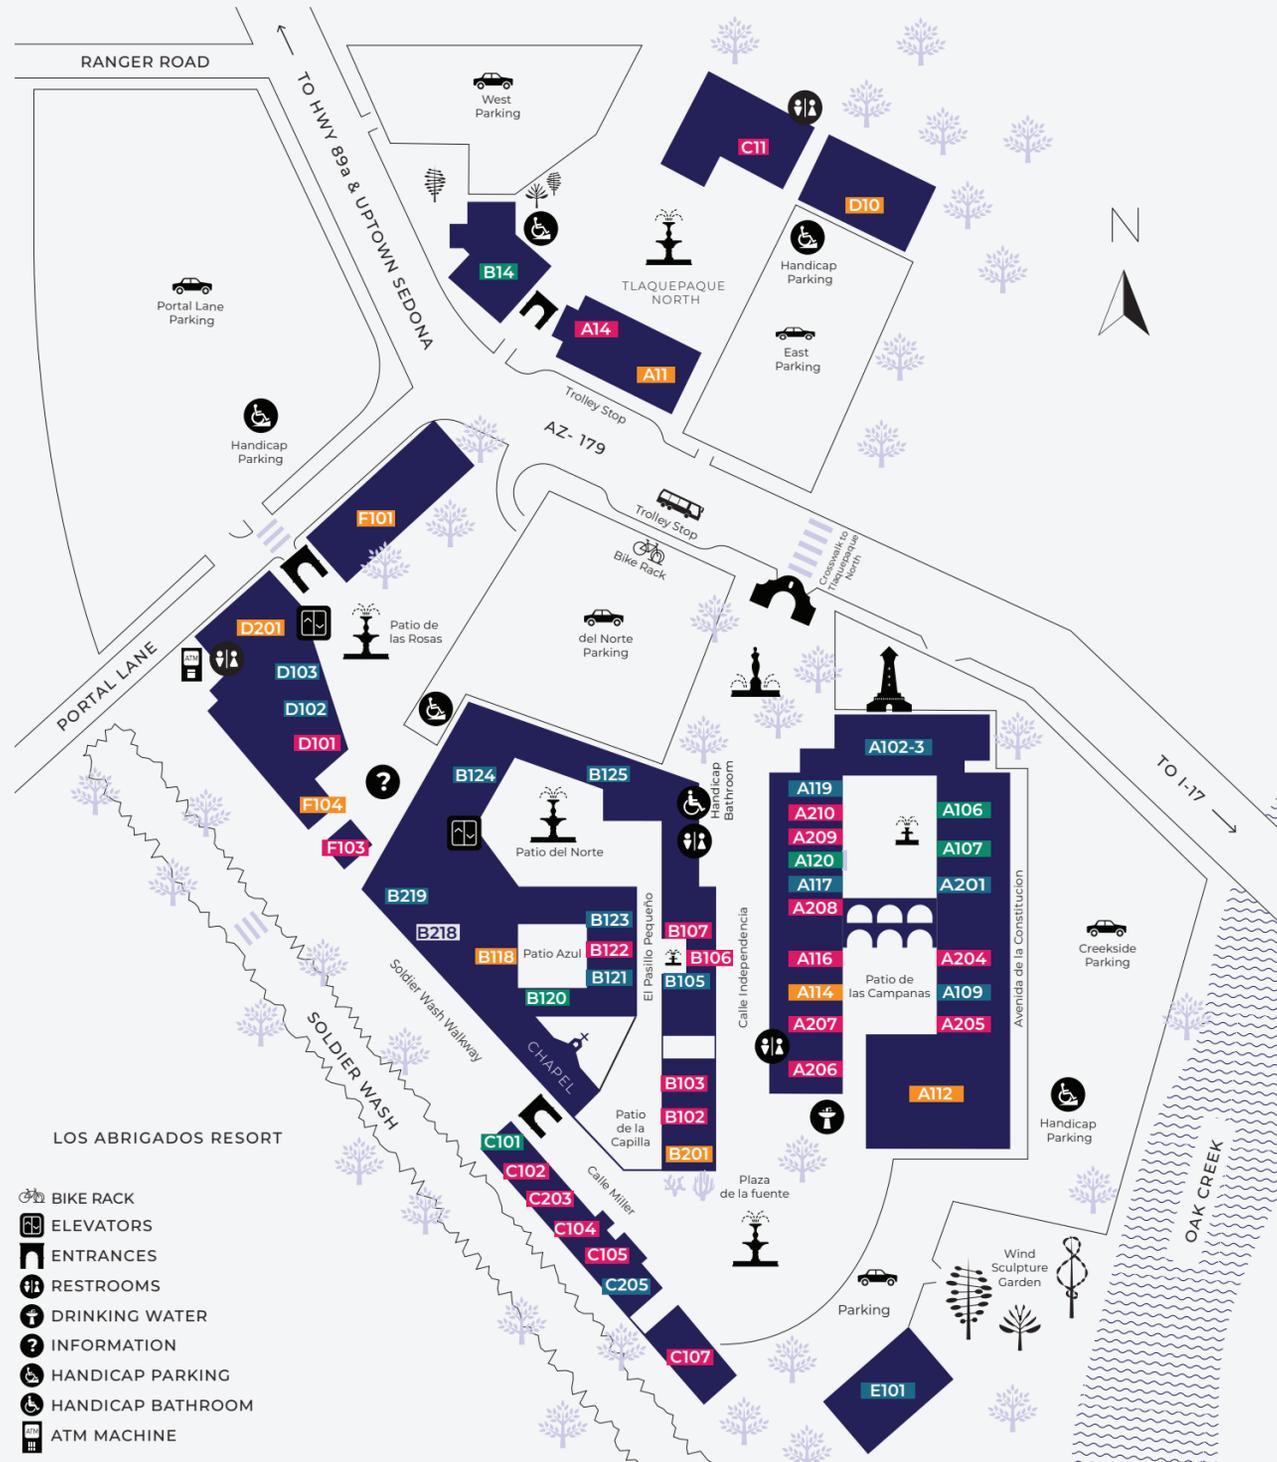

A landmark since 1973, Tlaquepaque, which means the "best of everything," offers a unique art and shopping experience in the heart of Sedona.

The dream of visionary Abe Miller, Tlaquepaque was designed in the 1970s to reflect the traditional Mexican villages that he so admired. From its cobblestoned walkways, plazas, and shady verandas, to its flowerbeds and greenery, no detail was overlooked.

Today, we have over 50 exclusive galleries and specialty shops, including five celebrated restaurants. Come spend a day with us exploring our grounds and discovering our distinguished artists and craftspeople, art treasures, gifts, entertainers, food, and more.
