A Conservatory Training Program & Performance Company

At Nutmeg's Dance & Theatre Co., we believe every dancer deserves a place to grow, belong, and thrive.

For dancers that are ready for a deeper commitment, and are seeking a more focused training experience and expanded performance opportunities, we are excited to introduce the Kula Dance Collective at Nutmeg's.

"Kula" is a Sanskrit word meaning family, tribe, community, or a group of people united by a shared purpose. At its heart, Kula Dance Collective is exactly that—a community of dedicated dancers who challenge, inspire, and support one another - while pursuing artistic excellence.

While Kula offers a more intensive training experience, and requires a strong commitment, it remains grounded in the values that have always defined Nutmeg's: kindness, encouragement, collaboration, and a genuine love of dance.

WHO IS KULA FOR?

Kula is designed for dancers who are eager to deepen their training, expand their artistry, and commit to a higher level of involvement.

It is for dancers who are excited to work hard, support one another, embrace new experiences, and become part of something bigger than themselves!

Junior Company | Ages 9–13

Senior Company | Ages 14–18
