

2025 STPGA Little Linksters Fall Championship Invitation Breakdown

STPGA Championships are meant to reward players that participate in many events but also bring highly skilled players together to form a cohesive Championship. The STPGA has outlined how many players will receive an invitation to The STPGA Fall Championship based on their points earnings at the end of the Fall Series on December 7th. As stated in our Junior Golf Rules and Regulations, our Championship fields are a direct representation of our entire program based on both the number of players in each metro area and the number of players in each division.

The Fall Championship Invitation breakdown went off participation through early October, percentages this year in each metro, and historical data. The STPGA team sends out extra invitations during the process to ensure our fields are full. Once the division and tournament reaches maximum capacity, we will no longer accept registrations. It is the players' responsibility to register right away once they receive their invite to secure their spot. Below is the Invitation Breakdown for the Little Linksters Fall Championship.

Please review the following process that will be utilized for Championship invitations in 2025:

1. Once invitations are sent, invited players will have 24 hours to register or decline their invitation. After a player declines or no action has been completed in 24 hours, the invited player will lose their spot and the next player from the same division/metro area Points List will be invited. If there are no players next on the same list, the spot will revert to the overall division Points List.
2. Players in the top 10% of their respective overall division Points List regardless of metro area that may not have earned a spot via the breakdown below will receive an invitation. Only players who earned points are used in these percentages. If these spots are not accepted, the STPGA will not invite more players.
3. The STPGA reserves the right to invite players based on the overall division Points List on Wednesday, December 10th in order to complete the playing field. The field will be finalized on Wednesday, December 10th at 12:00pm.
4. If at the end of the season a metro area and division does not have a player, the invitation will be redistributed to the overall points list within the respective division outside of the top 10%. If these spots are not accepted, the STPGA will not invite more players.

Invitations will be sent Monday, December 8th via email. Official timing to register and other event information will be communicated at this time. It is the player's responsibility to register according to these guidelines.
